WICE during each year a store (especially of this sort) presents to the buyer entirely different aspects. In fact, due to our local climate, the Dry Goods Merchant has but two seasons— Fall and Winter merge to make one season, and Spring and Summer the other. To prepare for one of thesc seasons (six months long) is no small task.

To assist us in this preparation the policy of this store has been to buy only from wholesale houses which are considered foremost in the country, both as to style and quality of their goods. This policy has been the bulwark of whatever success we have achieved as distributors of good merchan-
