Pumps

The Pump is one of the most important things on any farm, and every farmer wants a pump that is easy-to-fix and needs nothing but a wrench to take it apart. Such is the RED JACKET, the pump with a reputation and one that is always on the job. So-Easy-to-Fix and So-Easy-to-Work, now what more could be desired? We have sold quite a few of these pumps the past season and every one of them is giving satisfaction; and, my friend, if you are having any kind of trouble with that old hard-to-repair, hard-to-work pump, it will pay you to throw it away and buy a RED JACKET.

Its So-Easy-to-Fix feature gives the Red Jacket individuality and lifts it out from among all other pumps.

Gasoline Engines

We sell the engine to go with the pump and we can give you most any size or price engine you might desire. Our sales on the old reliable INTERNATIONAL ENGINES have been large this season and our satisfied customers are our best advertisements.

See the goods, take it home; we start it for you and guarantee it to do the work and do it right.

We are prepared to furnish estimates for Electric Light Plants for the farm.

THE fight for Town Commissioner has opened here. Mr. Wm. S. Carroll, who has held the office for nine years, asks for re-election. The friends of Mr. Geo. Rouse are urging him for the place.

TWENTY-ONE suits on behalf of the Government were filed Saturday against the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company to recover a penalty of $500 in each case for alleged violation of the 28-hour law. According to the Government the company allows live stock to remain in its care more than 28 hours and in some cases as long as 58 hours. The violations are alleged to have occurred during the months of June, July and August of last year. It is also contended that cattle were not unloaded in a humane manner and were not putin properly equipped pens for rest, water and feeding for a period of five consecutive hours as the law requires.

PUBLIC MEETING.

A town meeting was held in Firemen's Hall Tuesday night at which Mr. J. D. Bacchus presided and Mr. C. N. Satterfield acted as secretary. It was decided to present two bills to the legislature, one of which would change the law as to the election of members of the Water Board and make it similar to election of Town Commissioners, i. e., one retires each year.

The second bill proposes to bond the town for $25,000, $2,000 of which to be used for sewers on Main st, Cannon and College streets and the balance for permanent road. This bill will be submitted to the people. A similar question was defeated in 1912

A public meeting was held in the Chestertown Lyceum Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of furthering the Old People's Home and Emergency Hospital. Mr. Charles S. Smith was chosen chairman and Miss Rebecca McFeely, secretary. It was decided to name a finance committee who should arrange for the collection of money. This committee consists of Mrs. W. B. Copper, Mrs. C. W. Whaland, Mrs. H. B. Rote, Mrs. A. A. Harris, Mrs. W. H. McKee and Miss Mayme Thompson.

It was also decided to hold a Bazaar during Easter week and Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson was named as chairman.

The Westcott house on Queen street is being considered as an eligible place for the Hospital and Home.

NEW RACING CIRCUIT

At a meeting held in Salisbury on Tuesday a new racing circuit was formed to be known as the Del-Mar-Via Fair and Racing Circuit. The members are Wilmington, Chestertown, Tasley, Va., Salisbury, Cambridge and Easton. Wilmington will begin and end the season, having a summer and fall meet.

The officers are: President, Lee Leeompt, Cambridge; vice-president, Clifton L. Jarrell, Chestertown; secretary and treasurer, Mr. Ward, of Salisbury.

Chestertown's Fair dates for 1914 will be the last week in July, following Wilmington's first meet.

The circuit will pay shipping expense on full carload of horses from Chestertown to Tasley, Va. Each association will have four stake races of $500 each day. This will guarantee a large entry list and better horses.

The outlook at Chestertown is very promising. Mr Peacock, with his string of 15 horses, will arrive about April 1st, as will Jockey Welsh, of Baltimore, Messrs. Mallalieu, Rising and others, thus insuring some fine racing matinees.

WEDDING BELLS.

One of the prettiest weddings to take place in Chestertown this season was celebrated Saturday, when Miss Julia McMahon, daughter of Mrs. Priscilla J. McMahon, of Baltimore, became the bride of Mr. William Ernest Fishbourne Armstrong, also of Baltimore.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's sister, on Queen street, Mrs. H. Childs Hughes, by the Rev. Thomas Urner, pastor of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, of Chestertown.

The bride was unattended. The best man was J. R. C. Armstrong, a brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were Messrs. Benjamin F. Cator, R. L. Tilghman, W. H. Fisher, and A. O. G. Armstrong, all of Baltimore. The ushers are connected with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, in the engineering department, of which Mr. Armstrong is employed.

The bride's gown was of beautiful white satin, trimmed in Dutch lace and embroidered in pearls.

After the ceremony a reception was held, and late at night the bride and bridegroom left in an automobile for Wilmington. They will go from there to New York, to leave later for a wedding trip to South America.

Those present at the ceremony and the reception included:

Mrs. James Armstrong, mother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Priscilla Armstrong, Misses Caroline and Mabel Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Armstrong, Misses Grace and Julia Moore, Miss Elizabeth M. Daly and Messrs. A. H. S. Garcelon, J. C. Schmidt, J. D. Jones, J. T. Henthorn and J. T. Tapman, of Baltimore. Others from a distance were: Dr. Carroll Lowell, of Philadelphia; Miss Nan Lowell, of Lancaster, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hatchell, of Washington, while Chestertown was represented by Mr. and Mrs. John D. Welch, Misses Anna and Helen Welch, Mrs. Charles Whaland, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Nicholson, Misses Julia and Belle Emory, Miss Jennie Wilkins, Mrs. H. G. Simpers, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Dixon, Mrs. Harry Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers, Miss Nannie Brice, Mrs. James L. Beck, Miss Sophie Beck and Hynson Beck.

Prof. Herman E. Pearson and Miss Alice E. LeCompt, both of Chestertown, were married at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Newcomb, 1201 Cleveland street, Baltimore, Friday, at 8 p. m., by Rev. J. Franklin Bryan in presence of quite a number. A reception was held afterward. Prof. Pearson is a well-known music teacher of this section while the bride is the sister to Mrs. Thos. Willis and daughter of Mrs. Melvina Crew. They returned home Saturday and will reside on Cannon street near Mill.

BRAMBLE—MCCLAIN

Mr. George Samuel Bramble, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bramble, of Galena, and Miss Naomi Blanche McClain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. McClain, of Church Hill, were quietly married at the rectory of Mother of Sorrows Church, Centreville, Wednesday evening by the rector, Rev. Chas. P. McGoldrick. They will reside at Galena the home of the groom.

Arnold Thomas Berry and Miss Nellie Canthern, of Shamokin, Pa., were married Thursday at noon at Christ Church parsonage by Dr. W. [illegible] Graham. They returned on the afternoon train
