AU REVOIR, MISTER JOB

I am going away to-day, hooray! I'm going away to day! For another week I shall not speak, Nor have a word to say!
No frills nor foibles to tease my knob. For a seven days' rest-so farewell, Job.

I'm going to get a tan, old man! I'm going to court the sun! I'm going to fish where the waters swish And lie like a son-of a gun! So it's au revoir to you, Mister Job!

I'm going to cast my bait, and wait While making a face at me!
And I'm going to yank, and haul him out—

The breakers that leap and roar!
And I'm going to feel the sing of my reel, And laugh at the distant shore!
I'll have friend freedom hitched to my fob;
I'm glad you're not going along, O Job!

I'm going away to day, hooray!
