IN MEMORIAM

And stand within and all God's working see,

We could interpret all this doubt and strife,

And for each mystery could find a key.

But not today. Then be content, poor heart

God's plans, like lilies pure and white, unfold We must not tear the close-shut leaves apert, 'I ime will reveal the calyxes of gold.

I think that we will say, "God knew best!"

She suffered much, she murmured not,

And the spring comes fresh and fair,

And plant a chosen flower there.

With those loved and gone before,

There where parting is no more.

Sleep, mother dear,

Like a flower, she passed away,

To moulder in the tomb.

She goes to call us there.

Destroyed in all her bloom;

And take thy rest; God called thee home,

He thought it best.

She left this world and all her friends

She came to raise our hearts to Heaven,

For Infants and Children.

We watched her night and day;
