IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of CHARLES H. JONES, our beloved husband and father, who condition was said to be most serious, departed this life one year ago, February 7, 1914. Its only a step that divldes us From glories no mortal hath seen,

I shall find them when death's grim finger Shail have lifted the veil between. Some may think 1 have forgotten you And my wounded heart is healed, But little they know the sorrow That is within my heart concealed. BY HIS LOVING WIFE. If you ask do I miss him,

Yes, it fills my heart with pain, But his spirit sweetly whispers, Courage, dear, in Heaven we will meet BY HIS LOVING DAUGHTER, BERTHA. God called him home-it was his will,

But in my heart I love him still, His memory is as dear to day As in the hour he passed away. BY HIS LOVING DAUGHTEE, HELEN. In sad memoriam these lines are penned By those who loved him best; To our dear father, who, alas! Has gone to his eternal rest.
