SOMERSET FOR HARRINGTON

Senator Blair Lee and Mayor Preston have been on the Eastern Shore. Last week they were at Crisfield in Somerset county and this is what the Crisfield and valuable information, also big line of Times says of the meeting:

"Each candidate made a short ad- ROMAN AUTO CO. Inc. | ures at home. dress and Mr. Lee expiained that he had been compelled to run for Governor 203 N. Broad St., Philadelphia by the urgent demand of the Democrats Aug. 7-14-21-28. of the whole State, and that as the Maryland Democracy was determined to have him serve as its chief executive Bolgiano's Red or Purple and wouldn't take no for an answer; he had been compelled to make the sacri- Top White Globe Turnip fice incident to serving as Governor of the commodwealth. His explanation came as a surprise to those present because this section of Maryland had never seen any evidence of the great demand for his candidacy with which Mr. Lee declared he had been overwhelmed. He was conspicuously silent, however, on the State road appropriation in which he attempted, in a deal with Baltimore City, to cut $38,000 from Somerset county's portion of the State Road

Mayor Preston in his address stated that he favored Mr. Lee because Mr. Lee was for reform and because he, Mr. Preston, and the Baltimore City organization was for reform. He did not say just who had been the tutor in the reform education on which he and Senator Lee were now attempting to graduate, but left the audience to guess which of those two great reformers, Sonny Mahon or Danny Loden, was entitled to the credit.

Preston rounded out a flow of oratory When the applause failed to materialize | flesh and delicious flavor—a very ch he dropped his hands to his sides and with a most distressed look o'ershadowing his contenance seemed to inquire of the audience, "What's the matter with you people—don't you understand it to be a splendid s what I am talking about?"
