Home Service work of the Amerithrough the period of demobilization but also as a peace time activity and will be expanded in some communities to include others besides the families of soldiers and sailors. This has been decided at National Headquarters after a recent conference of directors of civilian relief work in the various divisions and in response to urgent requests which came from all over the United States. This desire for Home Service work to continue and expand came particularly from communities where there are no other organized agencies for social service. In their plans for the future the Red Cross officials are especially concerned to see that the service to soldiers' and sailors' families shall not be impaired. They will adhere to the present policy of giving help only to those who ask for it and never going where the offer of assistance is unwelcome. There will be also a scrupulous care to avoid duplicating or interfering with work which is being done for social betterment by any

Miss Mahala Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Mason, of of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allston, of Wilmington, were married last Monday evening at the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. Thomas O. Crouse, pastor of the Denton M.

Miss Mary Lewis, a former schoolmate, played the wedding march. The bride was the recipient of many gifts. After an extended tour to points north, Mr. and Mrs. Alston will be at home near Denton after April.
