WEDDING NOTES

Miss Lelia Everett, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Everett, of Worton Point, and George Pennington, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pennington, of Kennedyville, were married on Tuesday evening at six o'clock at the home of the bride, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Avery Donovan. The occasion was also the marriage anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Everett so that the events of the evening had a double significance.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Coleman, of Rock Hall, announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Viola, to Harry D. Metch on January 16th, at the Wesley Chapel parsonage, the Rev. A. F. Raum officiating. The bride wore a blue velvet traveling suit, with hat and gloves to match. The groom was attired in a blue serge suit. Many useful presents were received. After a wedding trip North, the happy couple will be at home in Rock Hall.

Many friends are interested in the approaching marriage of Miss Alva Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mimos Lynch, of Richardson Park, and William Howard McGines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lemuel McGines, of Millington, the wedding to take place on February 17. Miss Lynch is a charming girl, who is well known among the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church for her church work. Mr. McGines is a graduate of Maryland State College, and a nephew of Rev. E. L. Hoffeecker, D. D., former district superintendent of Wilmington of the M. E. Conference.

THE CHURCH ENUMERATION. For the first time it is possible to form a fairly accurate idea of the number of people who actually go to the churches of Baltimore. Out of a population of 290,000, 290,000 attending service last Sunday in 320 of the city's churches, and a close estimate may be obtained of those who were present at the remainder. Allowing for these and subtracting for those who went twice, it may be said that about 230,000 were under said that about 320,000 were under a church roof.

FREE MOVING PICTURES. The people of Kent County have a real treat in store for the coming week. Arrangements have been made to bring good moving pictures into five communities in Kent. The schedule is as follows: Monday, February 7th, at 7.30 p. m., at Betterton School. Tuesday, February 8th, at 7.30 p. m., at Kennedyville School. Wednesday, February 9th, at 7.30 p. m., at Fairlee School. Thursday, February 10th, at 7.30 p. m., at Fairlee School. Friday, February 11th, at 7.30 p. m., at Rock Hall School.

BAKE. St. James Bake Saturday, February 12, at 11 a. m., in C. C. Jones Shoe Store. Biscuits, rolls, pies, cakes, chickens, ducks and guinea will be on sale. Committee.

BAKE. A Bake will be held this Saturday at C. C. Jones Shoe Store by the Sunday School Class taught by Miss Lucy Frazer. Come get your pies.

Personal Tidings

Capt. Edward Woodall and Kent's poet, Frank H. Root, are enjoying their trip West. A postal from Los Angeles, Cal., says, "Saw about 600 alligators from 6 inches to 800 pounds today." Pulled lemons and dates from trees. On January 26th they took a trip on the Pacific Ocean en route to Catalina. They expect to be in Mexico next week.

Professor Frank A. Greenhawk, formerly manual training instructor in Rock Hall High School, and now State Executive of the Boy Scouts of the State of Delaware, has been spending several days with friends here and in Rock Hall. He states that he now has charge of 3,600 Boy Scouts throughout the State and is in charge of about one would not want to meet.

Capt. Clarence Fox returned Saturday from a trip to England. He reports some heavy storms, requiring 15 days to make the trip. Dr. J. M. Gill, pastor of West Baltimore Church, spent Sunday in Chestertown as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Usilton.

Sidney Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Turner, Chestertown, has been sent to New Mexico by his department. Sidney is doing excellent work. Lewis J. Howard, of Baltimore, spent Sunday here with his parents. Fred G. Usilton, of the News, and R. H. Collins, of the Transcript, attended the newspaper gathering in Wilmington Saturday. Gov. Ritchie, latter's home Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock conducted by Rev. A. F. T. Raum, Internat. at Wesley Chapel Cemetery, C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Annie E. Glenn, wife of Wm. H. Glenn, died Saturday, January 29th at her late home in Broad Neck, aged 66 years. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Margaret Louise Glenn, also one brother, S. J. Vickers. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 12.30, Rev. A. F. T. Raum officiating. The interment was in St. Paul's Cemetery with the following bearers: John T. M. Vickers, J. D. Gale, Samuel Kilbourne, Harry Jones, John Kilbourne, Harvey Kilbourne; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

William H. Brown, formerly clerk in the Chestertown postoffice, died at his home on Queen street, Sunday night, following a long illness of paralysis, in the 66th year of his life. He had been in the postoffice service here since 1906. Besides a widow, he is survived by the following children: Wm. Henry Brown, of Philadelphia, and Merritt C. Brown, of Altoona, Pa. Mr. Brown was an ideal home man. He loved his home and nothing gave him more pleasure than to be with his family around his own fireside. He was married 42 years ago and all during those years has received the loving care of a faithful wife and devoted children. His quiet, unassuming ways made him many friends, who will miss him from the walks of life. He was a great hunter when he was in good health and his love for his dog was a characteristic that showed he appreciated the value of dumb animals to most unusual degree.

Funeral took place Wednesday from the home of Mrs. Wm. Wit. from his late residence at 12 o'clock conducted by Rev. Omar E. Jones, internat. in Chester Cemetery. The following were pall bearers: Dr. H. L. Bowers, Staunton Brown, Leon Brown, William B. Usilton; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

J. E. Kirk, a native of Rising Sun, and widely known on the Eastern Shore as a salesman for a hardware firm died Monday at his home at Frederick, Md., aged about 60 years. For several years Mr. Kirk resided at Dover and about three years ago removed to Frederick, Md.

Mrs. Florence M. Carter, formerly of Chestertown, died at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of her mother, Mrs. John W. Cavender, in Chesapeake City, where she had lived since the death of her husband, William Carter, two years ago. Death was the direct result of paralysis, with which she was stricken a few days ago, though she had been afflicted with rheumatism and was almost helpless for many years. Mrs. Carter was born March 5th, 1852, being a daughter of John W. Cavender, who was a prominent teacher in Cecil county, Md. She was the mother of one child, who died in infancy. Notwithstanding her affliction she was of a sunny disposition and cheerful at all times.
