

MILLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Disharoon, of Philadelphia, spent a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Wallen.

William Carroll, of Seaford, is the guest of his nephew, Jas. E. Higman. Mrs. Leon Lyons, of Wilmington, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. R. Poore.

Miss Addie Vansant, of Wilmington, was called home last week on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Mary A. Vansant, and sister, Marie, who we are glad to say are improved at this writing.

Among others on the sick list are William Carroll, Mrs. Kate Higman, Mrs. Mary B. Aydelotte, Mrs. Charles Stevens and daughter, Miss Anna, and son, Thomas, and many others with deep colds and coughs.

Richard Fedeman, of Goldsey College, Wilmington, and Miss Mary Fedeman, of Baltimore, spent a few days this week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Fedeman.

The improvements that are being made to Trinity M. E. Church, South, are progressing nicely and when finished will make a handsome church edifice. The windows are quite pretty. All are of art glass and many of them memorial, when completed it will be a structure of which all may feel justly proud.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Nelson, of Philadelphia, were week-end guests of his sisters, Mrs. E. E. White and Miss Cynthia Nelson, of Millington.

A state road cop was in Millington on Saturday last. No arrests.

Miss Margaret Turner, of Ellicott City, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Turner the past week.

Eugene Forter, of Wilmington, Del., spent the week-end at the home of his mother, Mrs. Eva Marvel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Branigan, of Baltimore, were guests last week of her sister, Mrs. Paul Coney.

Miss Mollie Higman returned home last week after a week's visit with Seaford friends.

Miss Alice Stansbury, of West Chester, Pa., is visiting Miss Etta Jones.

Mrs. Herman Wallace, of near town, is visiting her father, George Dixon, who is quite sick at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. R. Poore. Mrs. W's daughter, Elsie, and Mrs. Poore are also quite sick at the same home.

Miss Hilda King, of Wilmington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard King, of Millington, and Earle Stanley Lockwood, of Chester, Pa., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lockwood, of Millington, were married February 17th, 1921, by Rev. Curiale L. Hubbard, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. Church, of Wilmington.

The bride wore blue charmeuse and carried white roses. The bride's maid, Mrs. Lewis L. Allcorn, wore blue satin and carried pink roses. The best man was Lewis I. Allcorn. They will reside at 423 E. 13th street, Chester, Pa.

After the marriage they were given a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Gallagher. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis I. Allcorn, Alfred King and son, Misses Julia and Edith King, Misses Marie and Nellie Russell, Miss Dora Cook, Miss Anna McLaughlin, Miss Sadie Kent.

W. Howard McGinnes and bride, formerly Miss Alva Lynch, of Richardson Park, Wilmington, Del., arrived home Thursday night at "Chester Manor," Mr. McGinnes' beautiful new home at Meginnes, in Queen Anne's county, directly following the wedding ceremony at the bride's home at Richardson Park, at high noon, on Thursday, Feb. 17th.

A serenade and reception by friends of the young couple was quickly and quietly planned, and on Friday evening they descended en masse led by a calithumpian band of every noise-making device—horns, drums, bells, pans and ringing of the farm bell. Among this band many of the boys were masked and some ludicrous costumes and make-ups were in line. After blowing their horns and beating their drums to their hearts' delight, and not dismayed by the newly-weds in the least, the serenaders began to unmask and with a large company of friends began showering the bridal couple with congratulations and well-wishes. That they were really surprised was evident, and for the first time (in their married life) they were forced to play host and hostess which they did gracefully and the bride with a personal charm of manner. The evening was delightfully spent in games, music, song, and laughter. At eleven o'clock a splendid collation was served consisting of several varieties of fine cake, lemonade, fruits, candies, etc.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. McGinnes were Thomas J. McGinnes, of Chester, Pa., and Miss Esta Sparks, Crumpton. Guests were present from Philadelphia, Chester, Wilmington, Chestertown, Sutersville, Millington and Crumpton. The guests departed at a late hour for their homes after having spent a most enjoyable evening and leaving their well wishes with the bridal couple for a long and happy married life.

KENNEDYVILLE

Miss Cynthia Clandaniel has been spending some time with her parents.

Mrs. Elwood Baker, of Chestertown spent Tuesday with her mother.

Mrs. Hague is spending some time with her son, Albert Hague and family.

Henry Boggs was called to the bedside of his mother on Friday at Clayton, Del. We are sorry to report her death on Monday from pneumonia.

Lou Irvin, former resident of this place was found by Jack Reimile in a building on the outskirts of town. People were surprised to know he had been there seven days without food or medicine. His brother was notified and removed Mr. Irvin to his home at Ingleside. Everything was done for his comfort that was possible by his many friends.

Service this Sunday at Grace Presbyterian Church at 11 o'clock and Georgetown at 2:30 o'clock.

Aid Society of the M. P. Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Rasin on Friday evening, February 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas VanDyke, Miss Mary Crew, D. C. Kelley have been on the sick list but all are improving at this writing.

MARY ANDERSON AS "BUBBLES" (THAT'S FOR JOY) THE STORY OF A GIRL WHO WANTED TO BE A BOY

Bubbles is a joy forever with her little heart bubbling over with buoyant youthfulness—there is no villain to worry about—fun and laughter run riot until DAN CUPID takes a hand and stops the show. You know the rest—handsome hero, blushing bride and Bubbles whispering into her hubby's ear. "If music be the food of love, play on."

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MARCH 4th and 5th VIOLA DANA IN "THE CHORUS GIRL'S ROMANCE" A ROADSHOW WITH A BUNCH OF PRETTY GIRLS

Peaches, one of them, who danced the shimmy like the very dickens—naughty shoulders, rising and falling—Yale boys shouting—"Grind" sitting in the front row hypnotized by the girl with the shimmy shake.—that's only the beginning; it's too good a secret to tell here. If you want to be let in on the particulars, come to the Lyceum on Friday, March 4th

Fordson THE Ford Motor Company have just issued a book called "The Fordson at Work." This book is given free. Call in and get one. It is not what the Ford Motor Company says about the Fordson Tractor but what the army of users have to say. This book voices the hardest kind of practical experience. It shows in illustration the Fordson Tractor at actual work along some ninety different lines of activity. It shows in these illustrations the wonderful versatility and utility of the Fordson Tractor. Shows it to be, beyond all question, the one bit of machinery that is a necessity, not only on the farm but along many lines of commercial business; especially does it show up the Fordson as a valuable servant on the farm. With it the farmer is relieved of the hard work; because he can take advantage of the weather in preparing his seed bed; he can do it at the right time; the same is true when it comes to harvesting. It solves, to a great extent, the problem of scarcity of labor. With its wonderful, reliable power, it brings to the farm home all the conveniences, in the way of running water in the house, electric lights, operation of the washing machine, churning, separating the cream from the milk; it assumes and takes to itself the drudgery of farm life both in the field and in the house and it is only a matter of a few years until it will be as universal in its service on the farm as is the farmer himself. It will become a part of farm life; a beneficial part; a profitable part. Get order in for there's a rush coming. FORD-FORDSON Authorized Sales and Service. C. A. GOODWIN, Chestertown, Md. SOME PLUMS NAMED

After an all-day session the Maryland Republican leaders established on Wednesday an amazing precedent in practical politics by walking out of Senator France's office with a written slate of Federal appointments to be made in Maryland under the Harding Administration. No one ever heard of such forward and prompt agreement on Federal patronage before. The slate agreed upon, to be referred to Mr. Harding, follows: District Attorney—Amos W. W. Woodcock, of Salisbury, now Assistant Attorney-General of Maryland. Surveyor of Customs—John H. Cunningham, of Westminster, candidate for Comptroller on the Goldsborough ticket in 1911. Appraiser—John A. Janetzke, Jr., of Baltimore. Naval Officer—Clinton A. Richardson, president of the Fire Board of Baltimore. Collector of Customs—Charles H. Holtzman, of Cumberland. Collector of Internal Revenue—Galen L. Tait, of Montgomery county, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee.

Endowment Insurance

Endowment Insurance is a contract to pay a definite sum to the holder at the end of a definite term of years. If he does not live until the end of the period the sum is payable at once upon his death to the beneficiary named or to his estate. It combines life insurance with savings. It gives the largest investment coupled with protection. It is a favorite with those whose chief aim is to save a sure fund for old age, but who still wish to increase the family income if death occurs before with Warren.
