

KENNEDYVILLE

Miss Anna Wiltbanks, of Wilmington, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hyde Wiltbanks. Miss Carrie Jacobs, of Centreville, has been spending some time with Miss Lula Van Dyke. Miss Sue Johnston who has been real sick the past week at her home was able to return to Washington on Monday. Miss Lula Van Dyke and James Van Dyke, of Galena, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crew and family near Fairlee. John Hesser has joined the Ford ranks. Service this Sunday at Grace Presbyterian Church at 2:30 o'clock. Miss Grace Greenwood, of Wilmington, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Lillie Greenwood. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Boggs and Mr. Fleming, of Clayton, were week-end guests of Henry Boggs and wife. We are glad to report Master James Edward Weer who has been sick for four weeks with a heavy cold is able to be out again. Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Bausmann, of Newark, Del., spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Cleland, Sr.

MILLINGTON

S. T. Pippin, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with his family here. Mrs. Lina Meginnis, of Wilmington, visited her sister, Mrs. Chas. M. Hurtt, last week. Wm. Anthony, of Wilmington, has rented the Harris property on South Crane street and will occupy the same soon. The Queen Esther Circle will hold an apron social on next Tuesday evening, May 3rd, in the Millington school auditorium, an admission of 1 cent per inch of waist measure will be made. Everybody welcome. Mrs. Eva Marvel spent Friday of last week with relatives at Prides. Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Massey are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a fine daughter. Mrs. Mary Hitchens, Mrs. Joe Miller and Mrs. Leon Lyons, of Wilmington, were guests this week of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Poore. George H. Dixon who has been recuperating at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ham Neal, near Spry's Gate, was able this week to drive his car to town to call on relatives here. A birthday party was held in Wiest's store room on last Tuesday evening for the benefit of the building fund of Trinity M. E. Church, South, and a nice sum was realized. Several property owners in town are slipping up with a new coat of paint. Among them are E. A. Wilson, James C. Vansant, Dr. Merritt Brice, J. T. Manning, the Barber Shop and Dr. N. Comegys Drug Store. May we add others to this list. Mrs. Emma Shehan has returned to her home here after spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Melvin, in Morgene. Rev. C. E. Kirby, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, South, has arrived and taken up the duties of Kent Circuit. He receives a hearty welcome.

STILL POND

Mrs. Wm. Medders spent last week-end in Baltimore. Miss Florence Kinsey, of Baltimore, spent last week-end with her parents. The Ladies' Aid Society will meet next Wednesday afternoon May 4th, at the home of Mrs. Sarah Crew, at Betterton. Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Harper and children spent Wednesday of this week in Wilmington. Miss Louise Pennington visited Baltimore this week. Mrs. Simon Moffett, of Philadelphia, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Kinsey. Little Miss Elizabeth Ford spent last week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hackett. The regular monthly meeting of the Epworth League will meet at the home of Mrs. Susie Toulson next Thursday evening, May 5th. This is a very important meeting to elect officers for this year. Wm. Clark seems to be our earliest gardener, as has been eating lettuce and radishes since Easter and now has peas in blossom with lima beans climbing the polls. The devotional service of the Epworth League will be lead on Sunday evening by Mrs. Wm. Medders.

DR. HYNSON LEFT $100,000

Druggist Remembers Kent County Church; $2400 For Secretary.

A personal estate estimated at $100,000 is distributed under the will of Dr. Henry P. Hynson, druggist, which was filed in the Orphans' Court Monday. He directed that $5000 be given to Christ Church at I. U., Kent county, for the construction of a railing around the edifice. His secretary, Miss Mary Virginia Spilman, is to receive $2400, and the residue of the estate is left in trust with the Safe Deposit and Trust Company and W. Calvin Chestnut, to pay the income as follows: One-third each to his daughter, Mrs. Natalie Nimmo Bayless, of Seattle, Wash., and one-sixth each to his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mary Charlton Hynson, and grandson, Henry P. Hynson, Jr.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

HAND OF DEATH

Mrs. Elizabeth Walraven, beloved wife of the late Elias Walraven, and daughter of the late Isaac Parsons, of Kent county, Md., died at her late residence No. 1325 W. Lanvale St., on Thursday the 21st instant, at 9:50 o'clock p. m., aged 86 years. She had been in failing health for the past year, and death was due to the infirmities of old age although she visited friends up to the past few days of her life. She is survived by one son, Frank Walraven, of Lanvale St., Baltimore, and one brother, Harrison Parsons, of Worton. Funeral services held on Saturday at her son's residence, 1313 W. Lanvale St., at 3:00 o'clock p. m. Prayer by Dr. Mills, of Grace M. E. Church, and funeral services by Rev. C. M. Wright, who spoke very touchingly of her devotion to and doing for those she loved. The bearers were John Broening, William Stickle, Harry Stephens, Thomas Anderson, Fred Stickle and Edwin Shaw.

Mrs. Louise Coleman died at her home at Rock Hall Friday evening, April 22nd, at 6 o'clock of paralysis. She was about 65 years of age and left two sons, Rynd and Cleveland Coleman, and a daughter, Mrs. Thomas F. Benton. The funeral was conducted at the home Sunday at 2 o'clock by Rev. T. C. Smoot. Interment in Wesley Chapel Cemetery. The bearers were her sons, Wm. R. and Walter C. Coleman, Thomas F. Benton, Charles Porter, Chas. Smith, and James Martin. Thomas H. Casey, undertaker.

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Willis, wife of Quovaso Willis died at her home on the Harry Willis farm near Betterton on last Wednesday night of general debility, aged 81 years. She leaves beside her husband six sons among whom are the most prosperous farmers of this county and Rev. Ivanhoe Willis, of Wilmington M. E. Conference and one son, James, of Phoenix, Ari. Also seven daughters. Mrs. Willis embraced the faith of the Adventist Church and her funeral will be held under the auspices of that denomination and interment will be in Chestertown Cemetery; undertaker, Wm. H. Krusen will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Susan C. Knox, widow of Enoch Knox, died at the home of her son, Enoch Knox, on Riverside Terrace, on Sunday, aged 68 years. She is survived by a husband and three children, Mrs. J. H. Chaires, Mrs. Nathaniel Brown and Enoch Knox. Funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. Omar E. Jones, interment in Chester Cemetery. The following were pall bearers: Owen C. Smith, Claude Mullen, Wm. A. Burk, Harry B. Rote, John E. Barnes, H. M. Rolison. Charles L. Doid, undertaker.

Mrs. Margaret S. Nicholson died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Catherine Samsell, at Cumberland, Md., on Monday night at 7 o'clock, after a long illness of cancer of the stomach, aged 60 years. She leaves four sons, J. T. Nicholson, of near Still Pond; Clarence R., of Betterton, and George E., and Medford, of Cumberland, also two daughters, Mrs. Catherine Samsell and Mrs. Sadie Boden, of Cumberland. Body was brought to Kent county by boat on Wednesday and taken to the home of her son, near Still Pond where funeral services were held Thursday at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. Titchman Smith officiating with interment in Still Pond Cemetery. Undertaker, W. H. Krusen.

John Hopkins died near Chestertown on Wednesday last, aged 62 years.

A Total Eclipse

Of the sun is a matter of peculiar interest to the scientists. A total eclipse of the father of a family is a direct bread and butter problem. In this case no smoked glass is needed to find the loss and suffering caused, nor spectacles to see the benefit of insurance. The man who insures lives up to his epitaph as a good husband and a kind father, and deserves it. "Have a talk with Warren" R. GOLDBY WARREN SPECIAL AGENT National Life Insurance Company, Montpelier, Vt. Phone 107 Chestertown, Md. FIRE-ACCIDENT-LIFE

Eggs For Hatching BEAUTIFUL GOLDEN BUFF ROCKS

I have headed my flock this year with a yearling Cuck Bird for which I paid $20.00. Also purchased six yearling hens to strengthen my flock for $30.00. These birds are from guaranteed heavy egg laying strains, and are unsurpassed for color and size. Great layers of fertile eggs, and fine general purpose birds. Eggs—$1.50 for setting of 15; $5.00 per 30; $9.00 per 60. THOMAS D. BOWERS, Chestertown, Md. Phone No. 125.

Daniel W. Younger, a former resident of Kent county, died April 24th, in Baltimore, aged 71 years. His remains were brought to Kent county by Rock Hall ferry and interment made in Union Cemetery, Worton, services at the grave conducted by the Rev. Avery Donovan. He leaves one son, John W. Younger, and two daughters, Alice P. Younger, and Mrs. Mary A. Meekins. Undertaker, C. L. Doid.

Pauline Dill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dill, died at her home near Massey Thursday morning, April 21st, after only one week's illness of pneumonia and whooping cough, age 2 years 6 months and 25 days. Funeral services were held Friday at the M. E. Church, Massey, Rev. Mr. Connelly preached the funeral sermon. The bearers were Helen and Alice Dill, her two sisters, Alice and Mary Dill, cousins of her father. Interment in Massey Cemetery.

John Frank Coppage, a well-known citizen of Queen Anne's county and a retired farmer, died last Tuesday at his residence at Hayden, in the 84th year of his age. Chronic nephritis, from which he had suffered the past two years, was the cause of death. He was a son of the late John and Rebecca Nickerson Coppage, and had spent his life practically in this county, engaged in agricultural pursuits, until a few years ago, when increasing infirmities of age compelled him to lessen his activities. Surviving him are his widow and two daughters, Miss Sarah Coppage and Mrs. Fred Seney. Funeral service was held Saturday from his late home at 1:30 o'clock p. m. Interment in Church Hill Cemetery.

CHURCH NOTES

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. O. E. Jones, pastor. Services for Sunday, May 1st. Public worship 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school 2:15 p. m.; Epworth League 7; evening worship at 7:30. Sacrament of the Lord's Supper in the morning with the following as the subject of meditation: "The Forward Look of the Lord's Supper." Evening subject: "Love's Because." Topic of the Epworth League: "Thy Kingdom come. In My Community." Leader, Mrs. Walter Bramble. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30 followed by class in Leadership Training.

At Wesley Chapel Sunday School last Sunday the contest between the Ladies' Bible Class, taught by the pastor and the Men's Bible Class, taught by Prof. Strang, ended, the ladies winning, they securing 157 points against 151, by the men. Now the men must serve a supper to the ladies on Friday, May 13th. Men eat crackers and drink water. During May, Charles Miller's Class of Young Men will hold a contest with Mrs. Raum's Class of Young Ladies.

Wesley Chapel services for Sunday, May 1st 10 a. m., Sunday school, S. Elwood Burgess, superintendent, election of officers for the coming year; 11 a. m., communion service. On Monday 2 p. m., first quarterly conference at the parsonage. Tuesday, 8 p. m., C. E. Meeting, leader Wilbur Gale.

Broad Neck—Sunday school at 2 p. m., James Bouter, supt.; preaching services at 7:30 p. m.

FORD

FORDSON

Important Notice NEW PRICES

Buy your Ford, Car, Truck or Tractor from the real authorized

FORD-FORDSON Dealer in Chestertown

Get unexcelled-unequalled Ford Service and LOWEST PRICES ON THE EASTERN SHORE

DELIVERED TO YOU—

- Ford Touring equipped with Starter and Demountable Wheels, Gas, Oil and Lens, $595.69. Ford Runabout equipped with Starter and Demountable Wheels, Gas, Oil and Lens, $548.83. Ford Coupe equipped with Starter and Demountable Wheels, Gas, Oil and Lens, $814.35. Ford Sedan equipped with Starter and Demountable Wheels, Gas, Oil and Lens, $866.41. Ford Ton Truck Chasis equipped with Demountable Wheels, Pneumatic Tires, Gas, Oil and Lens (no starter) $596.42. Fordson Tractor delivered to you, $653.60.

ORDER NOW FROM

C. A. GOODWIN FORD-FORDSON

Authorized Sales and Service Chestertown, Maryland

H. F. Jefferson THE LADIES STORE

Chestertown, - Maryland OPEN 7.30 A. M. CLOSE 6 00 P. M.

Watch This Space for Announcement Next Week of Our Great Summer Millinery Opening, MAY 17 and 18

H. F. JEFFERSON The Ladies' Store

CHESTERTOWN, - - MARYLAND

BE INDEPENDENT

There is no greater feeling of independence than that of having a Bank Account sufficient for your needs.

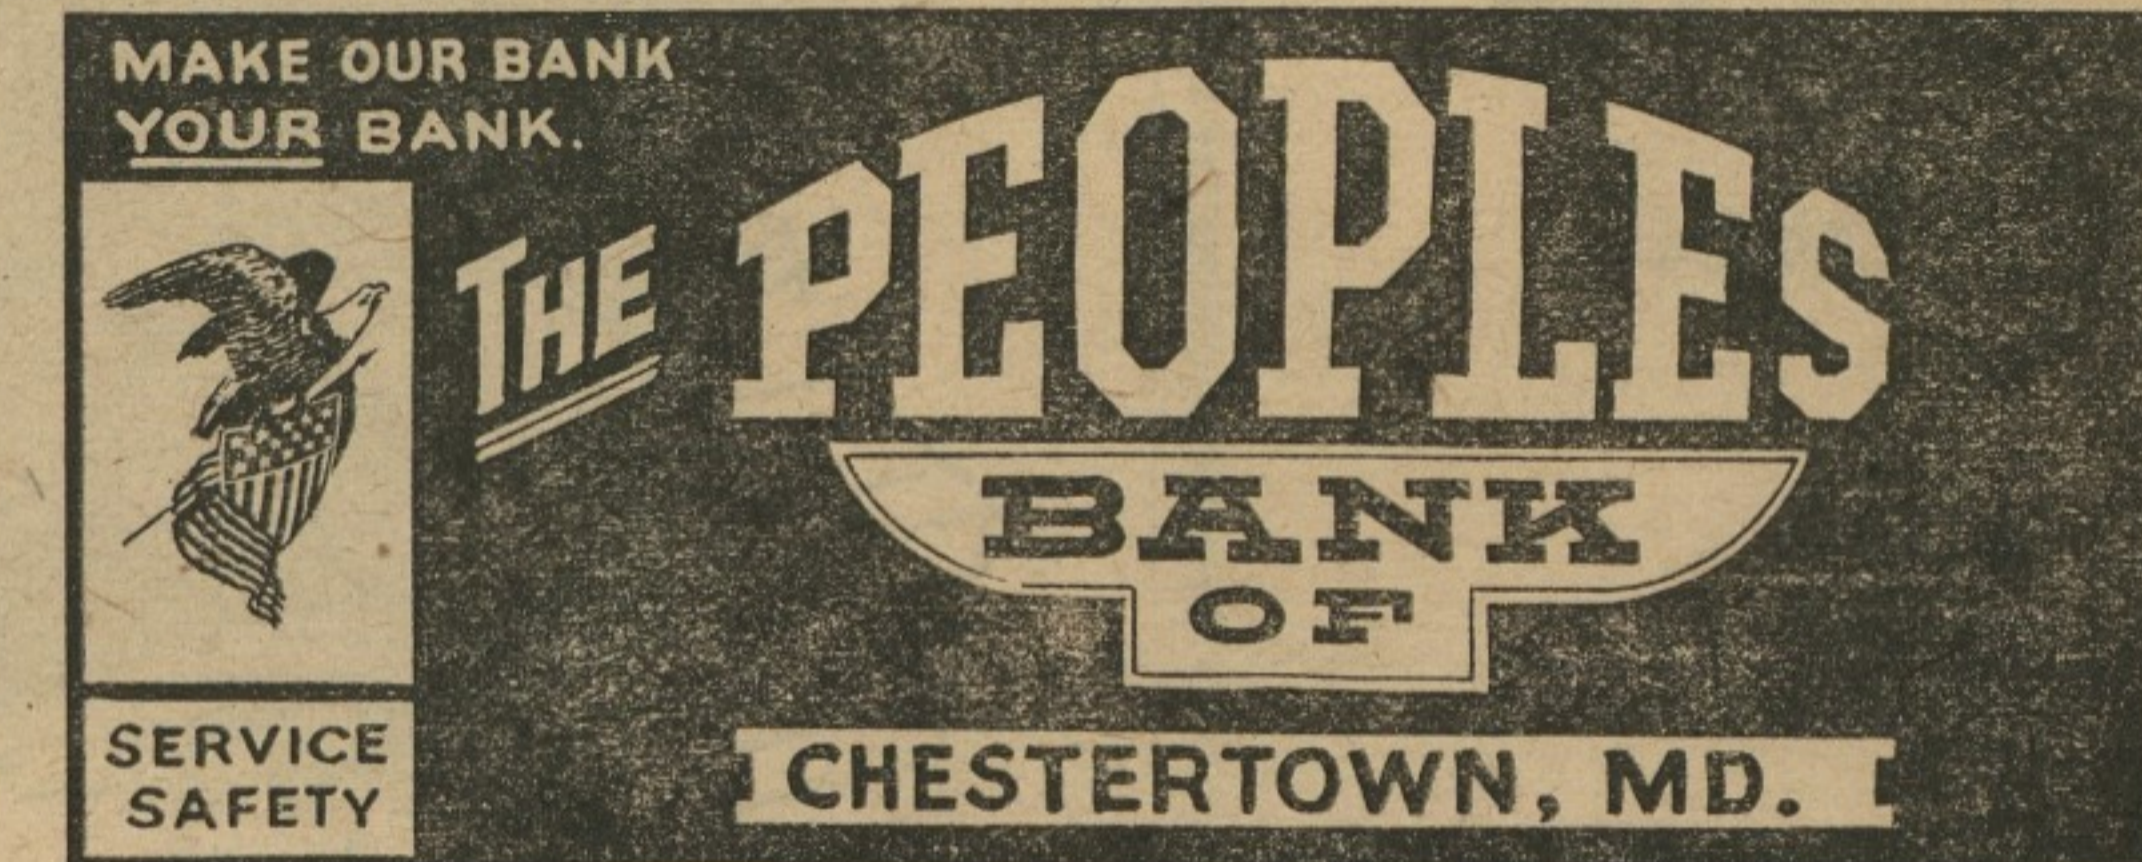

The only way you can ever have such an Account is first to make

THE START

We solicit your Account; we make the start easy for you. We are your friend.

WHY WAIT

Longer when you know the importance of this matter today?

CULP Lumber

BUILDING MATERIAL

- Cypress Shingles Asbestos Shingles Galv. Iron Roofing Composition Roofing Slate, Cement, Lime Coal, Paint

W. S. & A. M. CUI

Chestertown, Maryland