EASTERN SHORE SOCIETY OFFICERS

John H. K. Shannahan was elected president of the Eastern Shore Society of Baltimore at the annual business meeting of the society at the Hotel Rennert Wednesday night. Mr. Shannahan succeeds Dr. J. M. H. Rowland, dean of the Medical School of the University of Maryland, who has been president of the society since the death of Dr. Henry P. Hynson.

Mr. Shannahan is superintendent of the order department of the Bethlehem Steel Company's plant at Sparrow's Point, having been connected with the steel works for twenty years. He also is a director of the Bank of Sparrows

Walter R. Gale, a member of the Kent County chapter of the society, was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Preceding the general meeting of the entire society meetings of the nine county chapters were held and a vicepresident of the society was elected by each chapter.

J. Henry Baker was elected vicepresident from the Kent County Chapter, J. Caulk Kemp from the Talbot County Chapter, William W. S. Causey from the Somerset County Chapter, B. S. Mace from the Dorchester County Chapter, Cecil Ewing from the Cecil County Chapter, F. Leif Earackson from the Queen Anne,s County Chapter, Edward H. Hammond from the A.
