ROCK HALL

The remains of Mrs. Kerr, widow of the late T. C. Kerr, were brought here by steamer from Baltimore, on Monday and interred in Wesleyan Cemetery on Tuesday.

Ethelbert Nickerson has opened up an ice cream and confectionery parlor at the stand vacated by Elmer Jones. He seems to be doing an active business, notwithstanding the dullness occasioned by the freeze up.

Albans Phillips' article in Monday's Sun "Oyster officials must quit beaten paths" has caused our watermen to sit up and take notice.

Rock Hall is to have an A. & P. store. A new building is to be erected near the bank.

Mrs. Mary Linder and others have news that a cousin, Mrs. Margaret Sanders, a fleshy woman, fell down stairs a couple of weeks ago at her home in Baltimore and fractured the frontal bone in her skull and broke a leg.

Mrs. Ruthwin Strong has gone from the home of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Charles R. Kerr, where she had been since her return from the hospital, to her own home.

Reuben Rodney has purchased a store and dwelling from Mrs. Abram Casey.

Mrs. Mary E. Warner will occupy a house belonging to T. Milton Jones, formerly tenanted by the late Alfred Walbert.

STILL POND

Mrs. Dudley, of Baltimore, spent several days this week with her sister, Mrs. Charles Walters.

The monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid Society will be held at the home of Mrs. S. G. Roseberry on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 1st, beginning promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

The missionary program for tomorrow will be a monologue "Martha, the Leper." Remember there is only one more missionary Sunday before conference, so don't forget your collection.

Devolotional service of the Epworth League will be lead on Sunday evening by Mrs. Edw. Crowding.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shallcross, Mrs. J. L. Price and Mrs. Ralph Geary visited Philadelphia this week.

Miss Inez Russell, of Chestertown, spent last week-end with her friend, Miss Lucille Parr.

Mrs. R. D. Moore's Sunday School Class will hold a pie social that's different on Wednesday evening, Feb. 1, at the parsonage. The members of the class will furnish pies.

Equal Rights For P. E. Women.

Under the provision of a bill introduced this week in the Maryland Legislature, Kent county women who are affiliated with the Protestant Episcopal Church will be given equal rights with men to vote and hold office in diocesan conventions.

The recent locals stating that Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard was Chairman of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation Committee for Kent county seems to be an error, as Mrs. Hubbard says that she was proffered this position, but has already agreed to act with the National Committee and accepted a chairmanship in Washington.

Chestertown High Wins
Chestertown High School started its schedule by defeating the All-Stars, of Wicomico county, by a score of 10 to 6.

County-wide Farmers' Meeting
Every farmer in Kent county is urged to attend the county-wide farmers' meeting to be held Wednesday, February 1st, in the Court House at 1:30 p. m.

Tomato Contracts Signed.
Several Federalsburg camera men contracting with the farmers in that vicinity for next season's tomatoes at the price of $15 a ton, though some are trying to hold the farmer down to 20 cents a basket.

Another Gravel Road.
The residents of near Lankford have got the gravel road fever and as a result a terribly bad stretch of road, that which leads from Lankford to Broad Neck is at present being reconstructed of gravel.

MILLINGTON
W. H. Price, of Philadelphia, Pa., spent the past week-end with his sister, Mrs. Mary A. Vansant, who is still quite sick at her home on West Cypress street.

Miss Martha Pennington, of New Jersey, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Liston Pennington.

Rev. J. T. Lovelinson, of Crumpton, preached quite an interesting and helpful sermon which was much enjoyed by the large number present at Asbury M. E. Church on Friday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harrison were guests this week of friends in Philadelphia.

The Ladies' Card Club was delightfully entertained last Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Isaac Gibbs, Jr., of Massey.
