W. C. SEEK $50,000

The Alumni Association of Washington College of Maryland is making a drive for $50,000 for the purpose of canceling the college debt by the annual commencement day. Lewin W. Wickes, President of the College, of Chestertown, is sending a personal letter to each graduate of the college asking their help in making the drive a success.
When the alumni became interested in the college finances two years ago the debt was about $60,000, and since then it has increased to $75,000. Governor Ritchie and the legislature has raised the maintenance fund from $35,000 to $45,000 per year, and gave $30,000 toward the cancellation of the debt. There now remains $45,000 to be paid off, and the alumni hope to raise this amount and $5,000 more to begin the next year with.
M. Bates Stephens, of Denton, Md., is executive secretary of the Alumni Association and John I. Coubourn is chairman of the finance committee.

During the last couple of weeks four horses have reached two Queen Anne's county farms, and all efforts to trace their ownership have proven futile. Frank T. Price, of near Chestertown, has two animals that strayed to his farm, and Samuel T. McKenney, of Price, has the other two. Both farmers have advertised for the owners, but there have been no responses.

The baseball team of the high school defeated the second team of Washington College at the college field on last Wednesday. The score being 14 to 7.

GRANGE NOTES

Kent County Pomona Grange met at Worton Saturday, April 29th. A good attendance of enthusiastic patrons were present. The morning was devoted to business of importance. Bro. Derrick reported the banks of the county are taking an interest in Boys' Club Work and putting every effort forth to increase interest in the work.

The Pomona Grange decided to offer a banner to the club doing the best work during the year and a similar prize to the girls club doing the best work. The Grange decided to join with other organizations and cooperate with our County Agent in making Farmers' Field Day a grand success. At noon a fine dinner was served by members of the Worton Grange.

At the beginning of the afternoon session we paused for a short time in our work to honor the memory of our friend and co-worker, Bro. James T. Anthony, whose memory is dear to every member of the Grange in the State.

Resolutions were read by Rev. S. S. Hepburn, after which Bro. E. John Black, Master of State Grange, spoke beautifully of the life and character of Bro. Anthony and his influence for good through the State as Chaplain of the State Grange. Prayer was then offered by Bro. Hepburn.
Bro. Moore, of Talbot, also spoke of Bro. Anthony's courteous recognition of members and his high literary ability. Regular business was then finished and we listened to a fine literary program. Those who were not present missed a rare treat. Music was furnished by Worton orchestra with Mrs. Harris at the piano. It was delightful. B. John Black, Master of the State Grange, gave us a fine talk.

Mr. Black gave a report of the Farm Conference which met in Washington of which she was a member. Recitation by two little girls were most enjoyed. Mr. Moore, of Talbot, gave a comparison of Ford's Auto Co. and the real article which was most enjoyed. Rising vote of thanks extended to Worton for hospitality.

THE BOND ISSUE

The voters of Chestertown will vote on Monday, May 15th, upon the question of a $50,000 bond issue for improved streets and side walks. That every citizen and tax-payer desires good streets and sidewalks is beyond any contradiction. As to how much they are willing to go down into their pockets and pay for same is an open question. Many are willing to share in the expense cheerfully, while another class who do not pay a cent of tax are heartily in favor of it. There is still another class who are opposed to any improvement if it is going to cost them anything. The fourth class is composed of those who are anxious to see Chestertown take strides ahead and do everything in their power to help but who are financially unable to share in any extra effort and who are now straining every nerve in order to meet the every day necessities of life.

The first and last classes are the ones who make a town and it is incumbent upon those in authority to make the tax bill as little as possible, at the same time doing the things which are necessary. How can this be done is the big proposition before us?
If our Board of Commissioners as far as they could would give some assurances to the voters that not more than $10,000 would be expended any one year for improvements, then a five-year program could be mapped out and the payment of the $50,000 be spread out over a longer period and each citizen take a larger interest in his town.

The law which calls for the Bond Issue contains wide powers and if the Commissioners choose to do every cent of the fifty thousand dollars could be expended in one year. The town expended about $5,000 last year in new side walks and sewers and if even this amount could be expended each year for ten years a still greater degree of confidence would be awakened in the measure.

At this time there is much opposition to the Bond Issue and unless some practical steps are taken to overcome serious obstacles the measure may be defeated.

County Road Bids Opened.

Bids were opened by the State Roads Commission Tuesday for new construction in Queen Anne's, Montgomery and Kent counties. The low bids were: Queen Anne's county, Sudlersville to Ingleside 2.86 miles, Webster Construction Co., $60,300; Kent county, Betterton-Still Pond road 1.34 miles, Webster Construction Co., $30,300. On-half mile through Rock Hall, to the Kauffman Construction Company at $13,083.

OLD CLOTHES WEEK

Old clothes to be sent to the suffering ones of the Near East will be received until May 16th at the stores of M. A. Toulson and H. F. Jefferson. Charles S. Smith will receive any goods between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock at the office of the Water Board. The Firemen's Building will be the central place for collecting and packing all goods for shipment, and because of this fact, we urge all persons, who can, to send direct to this building to avoid extra handling. Donations of burlap bags are needed for packing goods for shipment.

Clothing is desired for men, women and children. Clothing that is past wearing is most acceptable for use in patching, by cutting off worn parts. Tops of stockings, pieces of yarn, buttons, thread, needles, cotton are needed and even the poorest shoes can be made over. Be sure to tie shoes together.

Children will be interested in sending toys. Only dolls, books and blocks will be acceptable. Shop-worn goods from stores will be greatly appreciated. No stiff hats are wanted, however!

It is expected that every minister in the county will co-operate in this movement to the extent that a committee of, at least, one will be named in each church who will receive goods from persons who cannot send them to Chestertown. Each school in the county will be expected to receive goods from the children, which may be delivered in Chestertown on Rally Day, May 16th.

Will not every one contribute a little toward this great need for Christ's sake?
Committee—Miss Rebecca Davis, chairman; Mrs. Hope H. Barroll, Mrs. Wm. F. Russell, Mrs. Etta Fountain, Miss Fannie E. Stuart, Mrs. Harry C. Hughes, Mrs. Fred G. Usilton, Mrs. Harry Graham.

NOTICE.

All persons having bills against this county must present them properly vouched for before June 5th or they will be paid by certificate without interest, due Jan. 31st, 1923. The law is positive that no interest may be paid. We will treat all alike. It is your duty to see that your bill is in this office by June 5th. By order of the Commissioners.
JOHN MEDDERS, Clerk. m6

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION

Diocese of Easton at Chestertown—Bishop Davenport Presides—Elegant Addresses And Beautiful Singing—Noon Hour of Social Pleasure.

The convention Tuesday postponed for a year, at least, granting of the right to women to vote in church councils. The question came up when Frank Wright, of Denton, offered a petition from St. Mary's White Chapel parish asking for the right of women to hold offices now held by men under existing laws and to vote for church officials, as authorized by recent act of Legislature.

William G. Kerbin, of Snow Hill, opposed the request on the ground that the act passed by the Legislature did not take effect until June 1, 1922, and that this convention had no authority to act. Dudley G. Roe, of Sudlersville, championed the women's right to all privileges held by men and stated that in his opinion the convention could take the proper steps authorizing any parish which complied with the act to enjoy its privileges on and after June 1.

Bishop Davenport closed the discussion by reading an opinion from Judge Packard and stating that the chancellor says the law does not become effective until June 1.

A large assemblage listened to an address by Bishop Davenport in which he stated that in a certain town of this peninsula only 70 per cent attend church and only 50 per cent of the children go to any Sunday school. He advocated trying new methods to win the people if old methods fail, and laid especial emphasis on religious education in schools. He recommended that the churches at Rehoboth and St. John's on Miles river be torn down and the stone used in the memorial building at Easton. That the church kept before the world by advertising, that its services be published in county papers and on billboards, in view of autos which through the highways. He urged the great need of a place for records. He also referred to the contemplated Adams Memorial Diocese House for administration purposes and heartily commended the worthy undertaking. He stated that it was wrong to blame all lawlessness on prohibition, but so long as the moral nature of man was evil wrong would be in the world.

E. Thomas Massey presented a report showing that all accounts of the various treasurers had been audited and found correct. Philip K. Wright was named as auditor of all diocesan accounts. A new constitution for the Children's Home was passed and the name changed. A conference for women was held in the afternoon, led by Mrs. John Keas, of Berlin.

The following committees and delegates were elected Wednesday.
Standing committee—Rev. Geo. C. Sutton, Rev. S. S. Hepburn, Rev. Sidney Potter, Hon. W. H. Adkins, Wm. Dashiell.

Executive council—Rev. William C. Marshall, Rev. C. L. Atwater, Rev. Franklin J. Bohannon, Rev. William D. Gould, Dudley G. Roe, John S. McDaniel, E. Thos. Massey, Sidney Webb.

Delegates to the General Convention which meets in Portland in September—Bishop Davenport, Rev. Franklin J. Bohannon, Rev. William D. Gould, Rev. S. S. Hepburn, Rev. Wm. C. Marshall, Dudley G. Roe, Thomas W. Perkins, T. L. Ruark.

The convention appropriated $1250 to pay expenses of Bishop Davenport and four clerical delegates, but laymen must pay their own way. G. Warfield Hobbs, of Baltimore, addressed a large meeting of men Wednesday afternoon, while Mrs. Julius Freeman spoke to the ladies. It is expected that a meeting will be held later at Ocean City, at which time the franchise for women will be availed of. The Conference closed at night with a young people's service, at which Rev. William Page Deme, of Baltimore, and Rev. Fred W. Clayton, of Princess Anne spoke. The next convention will meet in Easton.
