Cows Poisoned by Road Oil.

Four fine cows were poisoned this week by oil from the State road. They belonged to W. E. Story, on the White House farm, near Kennedyville. The big rains of Wednesday night washed the oil and tar from the State road into Mr. Story's field and the cows pasturing in the field ate it and died from the effects. Drs. Jarman, of Chestertown, and Gillilan, of Galena, examined the dead animals and found a quantity of the oil in the stomach of the animals. The cows were all fine animals and valued at $500.
