FOR CONGRESS

T. ALAN GOLDSBOROUGH

HIS RECORD ENDORSED BY

HON. CLAUDE KITCHEN, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives during the Wilson Administration, now Democratic leader of the House.

HON. JOHN WALTER SMITH, former United States Senator from Maryland, and the Democratic leader of the State. Statement made by former Senator Smith in the Baltimore Sun, Aug. 17, 1922.

Office of Minority Leader House of Representatives August 4, 1922. My Dear Goldsborough: I thank you for sending me your excellent speech which I read with unusual interest. It was admirably conceived and was logically and clearly put. I congratulate you. I made no mistake when I championed your candidacy for membership on the Banking and Currency Committee and am glad I withdrew in your favor our North Carolina Candidate. I want you to be as watchful and diligent as possible on that committee. On every measure from the committee I suggest that you make a speech, however short, explaining and analyzing the bill. When the Democrats get control of the House we will have much important legislation before that committee. I want you to go right to the front with respect to the bills before it. Your power of analysis and clearness of expression, together with your practical experience, will justify your taking a leading part and becoming a most valuable and useful member.

Trust you have had a most restful and pleasant vacation and that no opposition in the primaries has or will arise. Your splendid record in Congress, together with the esteem and confidence of the membership of the House in you, should certainly prevent any such opposition.

With warm esteem, Your friend, CLAUDE KITCHEN.

P. S.—Am thankful to say that I will soon be back to my "old self" in good shape. C. K. primary contest!"

HON. THOS. R. MARSHALL, ex-Vice-President of the United States: Frankfort, Indiana, Aug. 9, 1922.

Hon. T. Alan Goldsborough, Washington, D. C. My Dear Mr. Goldsborough, I am so glad that you have introduced a bill to stabilize the purchasing power of money. I wish I could be present at the hearing but it will be impossible for me to do so. Don't let this matter drop or stop with a perfunctory hearing because this is a thing that is going to come to pass and you will be a very proud man to know that you had the honor of taking the initial step in the House of Representatives.

Cordially yours, (Signe) THOS. R. MARSHALL. (Political Advertisement)

ROCK HALL

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Crew, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hague and children, of Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Ryan and daughter, Quaker Neck, John Hickory, Baltimore, were Sunday visitors among relatives and friends in this section.

Another snake story with less excitement than the one at Mr. Mastin's home some days ago, is reported from the same neighborhood. A snake was killed by S. B. Colyer and upon being dissected 57 young snakes were found. Were it not for the fact that we are all (?) Volsteadites down this way there would be suspicious thoughts on this later story.

The road men are getting the road below town in pretty good condition. Now, if automobile and horse vehicle drivers could be made to appreciate the good work of the road menders by keeping the proper distance from the water runs and ditches the road would keep in fair condition for the winter.

The store building of Mrs. Dickinson is being treated to a new coat of paint.

In anticipation of the final approval of the sugar schedule in the tariff bill recently passed by the Senate, or is it because our housewives are in the midst of preserving season? Sugar advanced half a cent the pound from Saturday to Monday by the local merchants. They believe in taking time by the forelock, while anticipating.

Rock Hall was somewhat stirred this week by the report that a woman connected with the Norris murder in Baltimore was in our midst. She was reported to have had the $7,000. It proved a hoax.

WEDDING NOTES

The devotional service of the Epworth League will be led on Sunday evening by Mrs. Carson Greenwood. James Watson, of Newark, Del., is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Rasin.

Miss Alice Lavinia Allcutt, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allcutt, and Charles Percy Jewell, both of Chestertown, were married Saturday, August 19th, at Elkton, by the Rev. D. F. Lockerbin. After the ceremony they left for a short stay to Philadelphia and Atlantic City. On their return they will reside for the present at the home of the bride's parents on College avenue.

A wedding of unusual interest and beauty took place Tuesday, August 15th, at the home of R. F. Hamme, 106 North Fourth street, Wilmington, N. C., when his daughter, Miss Nellie Harvey became the bride of Albert Raymond Reinhart, of Charlotte, the Rev. William H. Milton, rector of St. James Church officiating.

Just before the ceremony, Mrs. Joe Mitchell rendered selections on the violin, accompanied by Mrs. Lucy King. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding, march the bridal party descended the stairs. Mrs. Frederick Hamme preceded the bride. The bride entered with her father. She wore a gown of white satin, trimmed in Spanish lace. Her tulle veil was becomingly arranged in coronet style, caught with a crown of orange blossoms, and fastened with a pin, which had been in the family for 300 years; an heirloom descended from Sir John Harvey. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The groom was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Albert Baker.

Immediately after the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hamme entertained the numerous friends and relatives at a reception, a delicious ice course being served.

The bride is an unusually talented and charming daughter of Wilmington, who has a host of friends. The groom is well known in the city, having spent some time there connected with the Bon Marche. He is now with the same company in Charlotte, where the couple will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinhart left on the evening train for an extended bridal tour which will be spent motoring through the mountains of North Carolina.

The groom is a brother to the late Carey Reinhart, of near Fairlee.
