ROAD MEETING

Messrs. Editors: As an outcome of the good roads meeting held at the Court House on Tuesday, October 24th, the committee representing the 6th district held a meeting at Fairlee on Wednesday evening in reference to the gravel stone road movement. The object of this meeting was to find out the general sentiment of the people residing in this particular district.

The feeling was unanimous in favor of the passing of the Bond Issue in the coming election. Every one present agreed that the plan as outlined under the law was both practical and necessary for the present and future improvement of roads in Kent county.

It was agreed that every effort would be made to have every voter of this district support this good cause at the polls.

SECRETARY.

APPLES. Stamen Winesap, Lanford, York Imperial. Will begin picking October 1st. Call at farm or will be delivered. SPENCER BIDDLE.

SCHOOL NOTES

The Rock Hall Elementary and Betterton Elementary Schools being among those which have made an attendance large enough to justify the teacher being replaced. The School Board has appointed Mrs. Arthur Brice as teacher for primary grades at Betterton, and Mrs. Jesse Ashley teacher at Rock Hall.

Miss Myrtle Thompson has been transferred from Turner's Creek to place in Piney Neck left vacant by Mrs. Ashley.

Prof. T. L. Gibson, supervisor of Music of Maryland, will be present for the concert to be given by the pupils of the elementary school and will direct the community singing. Local talent and the Chestertown orchestra will assist. All parents and friends of the school are most cordially invited to be present. The new chairs for assembly hall will be in place: Friday, November 3rd, is the day, 7.30 the hour.

Easton is about to buy a gas plant for $11,000. It must be a cheap affair as compared to Chestertown's. Some years ago the owners of the plant here were asking $50,000 for it.
