CAPT. CHARLES KERR. The new commander of the State police sloop Helen M. Baughman has signaled his first day's service by an exploit which places him side by side with the gallant Howard. His victory was against heavy odds and clearly demonstrates the wisdom

Point and Chester river. navigator he has had large experience and three houses. The advertiser says: has been on the water since he was thir-States navy two years, in the revenue ser- ments they are paying 6 to 10 per cent. clear; price, vice three and a-half years, and for six years commanded George R. Gaither's yacht, Clytic. He is a man of family and lives at Rock Hall.

The Right Man Shot!

It was the captain of the oyster dredger The captains take care to keep out of harm's way. If it was the captain every time who suffered they would not be so anxious to tackle the police boats.

For the Inauguration.

poses to attend President-elect Harrison's to be constantly increasing. sary who is expecting a fat office!

FELIX AGNUS, the brilliant little Frenchman who now controls the Baltimore American, is booming himself pretty lively for a cabinet portfolio. Agnus has the advantage over other distinguished Maryland Republicans. The American must be heard, and it says Agnus all the time!

were present. The parade was over an hour in passing and embraced Democrats this snug sum would have been saved to long and serious illness of typhoid fever in a brown Henrietta cloth trimmed in veland Republicans alike. In his message him by the renewal of his policy. Governor Hill deplores the corrupt use of money in elections, saying that the recent Presidential election was the most corrupt ever known and that a change in the election laws is imperative.

----"Mr. Wanamaker jumped to his feet, and Times of last Monday: ence joined him, and for several moments there was the wildest commotion." A singular scene in a church!

nesday after a holiday recess of ten days.

The Senate at once proceeded with the consideration of the tariff bill, on which debate by agreement is to cease on the 21st of the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house personage, the house looked as if the parson was about to change business and set up a first-class provision stips had been broken and that she had sustained various wounds of the body."

NOTICE TO TAX-PAYERS I will be formed to the porch, pantry and dining the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house of the parson was about to change business and set up a first-class provision store. Rev. T. O. Crouse, of Centreville, and the house in time to see the man administering and the house of the parson was about to change business and set up a first-class provision store. Rev. T. O. Crouse, of Centreville, and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in time to see the man administering and the house in termined to reject all amendments from ration. Can anything be worse? the Democratic side it would seem just as well to dispense with further debate. In fact, the question was so exhaustively discussed before the House passed its tariff bill should be it will simply illume the pathway of the blind. The House has the regular appropiation bills well advanced, and under the pathway of the blind. The House has the regular appropiation bills well advanced, and under the pathway of the blind. The House has the regular appropiation bills well advanced, and under the pathway of the bride's parents near Locust Grove. The parties, in which Clark replevies hay is the bride's parents near Locust Grove. The contracting parties were Mr. Harry Coverfor Aldridge; H. H. Barroll, Esq., for Clark. Willis, Mathew Williams and Contributed generously to its support.

Senate majority is concerned, and it there is the residence of the bride's parents near Locust Grove. The contracting parties were Mr. Harry Coverdale, of Wilmington, Del., and Miss Maggie Shallcross, second daughter of William O.

Shallcross, second daughter of William O. hours of the Fiftieth Congress.

ary 1, says: After listening to all the evi- each and costs. dence in the cases of the five boats arrested in the Fishing Bay by Captain Howard, on the charge of having cancelled numbers, Justice Hooper this morning ordered the Justice Hooper this morning ordered the purchase. Judgment for plaintiff and the purchase. Judgment for plaintiff and the purchase. Judgment for plaintiff and the purchase arrested Cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of a sulkey, $60. The defendant claimed the possibility of another party for the purchase. Judgment for plaintiff and the purchase arrested Cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of a sulkey, $60. The defendant claimed the lowing officers for the ensuing year: L. C. Justis, W. Master; John Barwick, overwhow will make their future home.

No 11, at Kennedyville, has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: L. C. Justis, W. Master; John Barwick, overwhow will make their future home.

No 11, at Kennedyville, has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: L. C. Justis, W. Master; John Barwick, overwhow will make their future home.

No 11, at Kennedyville, has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: L. C. Was enjoyed, and Mr. and Mrs. Coverdale the cooper than the control of the cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of a sulkey, $60. The defendant claimed the lowing officers for the ensuing year: L. C. Was enjoyed, and Mr. and Mrs. Coverdale the cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of the cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of the cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of the cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of the cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of the cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of the cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of the cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of the cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of the cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of the cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of the cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the price of the cooper against T. E. W. Crew, for the pric of the boats are still held in jail here. All dispose of the oysters aboard of the confis- the fire was distinctly seen in Chestertown.

of the Sun says that there are quite a num- Judges Walker, Fisher and Moffett, not attract the latter's attention by a whistle | turned an additional account of sales of the is considered behind the times. There are personal property of his decedent, whistler, with great interest.

93 over the losses of 1887.

FIRES CONTINUE.

in city and country, continue to increase, better reason has been given, and public opinion seems drifting to the same conclusions-that is, that the companies are to blame for the increased number of fires. The evil continues to grow. The sharp competition between rival companies, the Last Sunday morning at half-past seven Capt. Charles Kerr is a brave man, and natural anxiety of agents to make the o'clock, Samuel A. J. Wickes breathed his if his crew, which behaved so nobly in this commissions, and the careless manner of last at his residence near Grey's Inn Creek instance, stand by him hereafter, greater making surveys upon the part of some, wharf. He was in his 74th year, and leaves achievements surely await them. The often induce over-insurance. The owner one son and two daughters. He had been spirit and prowess so clearly shown in the is left to take no risk whatever. On the sick about three weeks. first battle of the New Year by this gal- contrary he is often the gainer by fire. No citizen was better known in the lower Stam's Hall last Saturday evening. The lant Kent countian, will be of inesti- The consequence is a lack of care for the section of the county than Jackson Wickes, audience was not large but the play was mable value in their future onslaughts up- protection of property, and sometimes the or "Uncle Jack," as he was familiarly called very good. on the oyster pirates, who have such a direct application of the torch to get the by everybody. Especially familiar was his The "Silver Lake Quartette" sang to a Capt. Kerr is a handsome man, about fore us. Here is a newspaper published in Wesley Chapel and figured conspicuously ciated at prohibition meetings than in an thirty-five years of age, with frankness and a prominent town in Maryland, in which in most public occasions where the public entertainment where they are the only atcourage depicted in every feature. As a appears an advertisement for the sale of good was sought to be advanced. He was traction—and that at fifty cents a head.

> advertising, lawyer's fees, &c., and get $25 held with honor and profit to the county indulged in, in which Mr. Dick Deal was more than he asks for each house, besides the for eight or ten years.

ground, by starting a fire!

who was shot in the last fight. He was the to take such over-risks. If they were the residence last Wednesday attest the esteem per at the college to quite a number on very man to catch the ball, if any. He only losers it would make little difference. in which he was held. Rev. B. F. Benson New Year's night; after which the young directs the piracy and is responsible for the We should be silent. But they are not conducted the funeral services and Dr. D. and old enjoyed themselves in various resistance to law. The most painful thing alone concerned. The fires started in the W. Bates delivered a short address, making ways. One of the games was to fool some about this shooting business in enforcing well protected factory or store destroys feeling reference to the high character of of the gentlemen present by allowing Mr. the State's authority is that the innocent also the unprotected dwelling, and some- his old friend. The pall-bearers were R. Snowden Thomas to kiss them while the hands on the boats are most likely to suffer. times whole towns are swept away and W. Jones, Wm. Stevens, W. H. Coleman, gentleman thought he was being kissed by family, are guests of Dr. S. Beck. human life is sacrificed.

Stringent laws should prohibit over-insurance. It is a species of gambling worse | Changed Hands.—Casper G. Woodall, tion at Miss Gertie Lusby's on High street | Miss Emily Yoder, of Mahaony, Pa., is require more care for the public weal we Charles Cox Hopper, of Queen Anne's duck, salads, etc., after which the folding tertown. The Chestertown Republican Club promay expect the number of conflagrations county. These gentlemen are said to be doors were thrown open and the double Miss Sue Griffin, of Middletown, Del., ANUAL MEETING.

this a meeting is called to be held in Stam's seem to lose sight of property after once now before us, gives evidence of editorial B. Turner, Mr. Harry Willis, Mr. James Rev. R. L. Lewis, of Salisbury, is visit-Hall next Wednesday evening. They placing their risk. Chimneys decay and ability and typographical taste. We wel- Crouch, Miss Ethel Stewart and Miss Linda ing friends on his late charge, Chesapeake should go in style—that is, in shiny plug tumble down, leaving the roofs in con- come them to Chestertown and as members watson were remarkably active in playing circuit. He has been in bad health since hats and natty canes—and with a commis- stant danger of fire. There are numbers of the newspaper fraternity, and hope their GIVE US A REST!-It is given out by the are slapped up against dwellings, and stove- ted by his editorial brethren, especially papers that the 3,000 associated Democratic pipes run barely through the side or roof, those who have his personal acquaintance clubs of the country are to retain their or- periling all surrounding property. Num- as members of the Peninsula Press Associaganization for 1892. Which is all well bers of these may also be found in Ches- tion. He united the qualities of a highenough, but for mercy's sake don't agitate tertown. Is it not the duty of insurance toned gentleman with those of a ready 1892 vet awhile. Give us a little political companies to make an examination now writer, and while the patrons of the Tran-

Legitimate insurance is an honorable with regret. business. It is of great importance to the Delaware Senatorial fight. Detective his goods; no less careless is the farmer him. Dr. Perkins, who was in the church, Tuesday evening and showed much ease move from the Merritt farm, near Locust Hutchins has been arresting persons for who fails to provide against lightning and was called and the patient was taken in a and grace in their movements over the Grove, to Chestertown. violating the muskrat law, and he is charg- fire by insuring his buildings and stock. carriage to the residence of his broth- slippery floor. ed with being partial to certain factional Some insure and stop after a few years er-in-law, Mr. Wm. S. Culp, near Washingpoliticians in these arrests. It appears, because they met with no accident. Only ton College, where he was visiting. He from the reports, that Delawareans have a recently the folly of such a course was pain- grew worse until Monday night, when he GOVERNOR HILL, of New York, was in- years to one of our Chestertown agencies fully regain consciousness until Wednes- M. E. Church, in Chestertown, Thursday augurated for a third term at Albany on on buildings and stock. He refused to re- day. He is now much improved, with night, the contracting parties being Mr. Tuesday. Many thousands of strangers new, and within thirty days thereafter he indications of speedy recovery. Mr. Wm. J. Sappington and Miss Susie Bram-

Can it be True?

Many persons, after reading the story headed "An Old Man's Lecture," on the first page of the News, will at once declare WANAMAKER'S CHURCH.-A grand Christ- the startling incidents narrated untrue. mas jubilee was attended by two thousand It is hard for the human mind to grasp people in Bethany Sunday School Hall, the reality of such horrible revelations, Philadelphia, last week where Prof. Wilson and some will even question the propriety was throwing upon canvas scenes in Pal- of publishing such exaggerations. But estine. The final picture was that of Pres- sad to say, there is reason to believe that ident-elect Harrison. Mr. John Wana- the story is true. The proof of it is found maker was present in his glory, and when in occurrences of to-day. The following this picture appeared, the report states paragraph is clipped from the Philadelphia by the Rev. Dr. H. C. McCook on Christla coloring both eyes. He then pushed his wife to the floor and jumped on her prostrate form. The poor woman screamed "Murder!" and her cries were houses of Congress reassembled on Wedhouses of Congress reassembled on Wedhouses of Congress reassembled on Wedhouses of the house in time to see the man administering anthe house in time to see the man administering anthe house in time to see the man administering antime of the floor and jumped on her prostrate form. The poor woman screamed "Murder!" and her cries were houses of Congress reassembled on Wedhouses in time to see the man administering antime of the floor and jumped on her prostrate form. The poor woman screamed "Murder!" and her cries were houses of Congress reassembled on Wedhouses in time to see the man administering antime of the floor and jumped on her prostrate form. The poor

woman screamed "Murder!" and her cries were houses of Congress reassembled on Wedhouses in time to see the man administering antime of the floor and jumped on her prostrate form. The poor
woman screamed "Murder!" and her cries were houses of Congress reassembled on Wedhouses in time to shally discoloring both eyes. He then pushed his wife to the floor and jumped on her prostrate form. The poor
woman screamed "Murder!" and her cries were house of Congress reassembled on Wedhouse in time to see the man administering antime of the floor and jumped on her prostrate form. The poor woman screamed "Murder!" and her cries were day morning by the rector, shows that groomsman. Among those present were the house in time to the dudition to the district.

The officer entered to the floor and jumped on her prostrate form. The poor was bridged and Mr. Harry Paullin was groomsman. Among those present were the house in time to the floor and jumped on her prostrate form.

The poor and jumped on her prostrate form. The poor was bridged and Mr. Harry Paullin was groomsman. Among those prostrate form. instant, but as the Republican side has de- No one will doubt the truth of this nar> and the second s THE MAGISTRATES' COURT.—The following cases have been disposed of recently: Before Justice Johnson: S. W. Aldridge, near McFeely's corner. The row was near required for the new company. midnight and most disgraceful. Fined $1

Messrs. James N. Dennis and money promptly paid. Urie for defendant, seer; Tilghman Shafer, chaplain; W. A. where they will make their future home. leased on five hundred-dollars bond, having ed to have been sold deceased. Judg- Dewees, secretary; Miss Lula Vandyke,

FIRE IN QUEEN ANNE'S,-The frame dwel- keeper, steamer, but the men thinking that they Emory, at Barrisville, Queen Anne's county, steamer, but the men thinking that they would not get pay without coming to Cam- was burned on Christmas Eve. It caught a colored boy, aged adout 16, living married at the M. E. Church in Centreville Wheatley, widow of the late Justice A. B. bridge, to-day put in an apearance, having walked from Deal's Island to Seaford, and having stolen a ride on a freight car from the chimney. The loss on the with a serious accident on Monday after the bride wore a mahogany Henrietta cloth travelling dress. jail. Sheriff Mace has been directed to which was not insured. The light from

WHISTLING GIRLS.—The correspondent ORPHANS' COURT, Jan. 31st. - Present ber of expert whistlers among the young E. W. Gaylord, executor of W. G. Phelps, society ladies of Washington. Some of returned inventory of the personal estate

SAMUEL COURSEY, of Queen Anne's coun ty, accidentally shot himself in the head with a duck gun while on board a sloop in Chester river. The load took effect in the INSPECTOR Holloway reports that the right side of the head, cutting the flesh off losses by fire in Baltimore in 1888 amount- a portion of his cheek and tearing off a and he is improving.

Delegates to Baltimore.

Fires, great and small, on land and sea, represent Kent, county in the State Farmginning at 101 A.M., on Wednesday next "Commercial Fertilizers; their purchase and "Taxation from the Farmers' Standpoint ----- fondness for the reservations of Swan over cash value. face and form on Grey's Inn Wharf. He fair audience in Stam's Hall on Wednesday An instance of over-insurance is now be- was regular in his church attendance at evening. Its music is more highly appregenerous to a fault and a better neighbor could not be found in Kent county.

JACKSON WICKES.

five rooms, all nicely finished, with kitchen, 10x12 feet, coal shed, etc., and insured at $700. As invest-Jackson Wickes, though an old man, was very active, and will be greatly missed. He If this house-owner were a scoundrel— never held a political office. At the time ed last Friday night by the sudden arrival and there are lots of scoundrels in the of his death he was one of the trustees of of about forty of her friends at her home world—he would save himself the cost of the county almshouse—a position he had near Melitota. Games of amusement were

The great throng of neighbors and friends | very enjoyable evening was spent. The insurance companies have no right attending the funeral services at his late Mrs. Evan Thomas gave a bountiful sup-Thos. D. Glenn, J. V. Crosby, C. C. Wood. | the lady asked for.

hand of the law, backed by public senti- the Chestertown Transcript, has sold out the ment, shall take hold of the companies and paper to Messrs. T. Harrison Collins and of such buildings in Chestertown. Tinder- venture may prove pleasant and profitable. boxes, in the shape of summer kitchens, Mr. Woodall's retirement will be regretand then of the properties they are car- script may not lose by the change, they will no doubt part company with Mr. Woodall the many sound companies that do busi- seized with nervous prostration and would danced in. fully illustrated. A farmer in Queen was supposed to be dying. He rallied Anne's had been paying insurance for six again, however, on Tuesday, but did not met with a loss of $3,000 by fire! All of Melvin had but recently recovered from a BLE. The bride was very tastefully dressed first venture out at night. scholars of the M. E. Sunday school on Sun- Messrs. Wm. H. Greenwood, Chas. S. Smith, Mr. John Emory, 2112 N. Calvert St., Balday afternoon presented their superinten- dent, Prof. T. N. Williams, with a beauti- walter T. Pippin and Frank H. Hodgkin, timore. He is suffering from some disease of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands, which is very superintental to the sweet of the throat and glands. ful cut-glass berry dish mounted on a sil- strains of Mendlesshon's Wedding March, painful. ver stand, with spoon to match. The pre- performed by Miss Belle Pippin, and were Hon. Henry Vanderford, ex-State Senator, sentation was made by the pastor and the joined in holy wedlock by the pastor, Rev. and senior of the Westminster Advocate, nile temperance organization; presented its in the future. The presents were very greetings are extended our old friend. president, Mrs. Todd, wife of the pastor, handsome. with a large and handsomely bound photowith the greatest animation gave three cheers and a tiger for Harrison. The audi-

> the church; from July 2, 1882, to Dec. 29, 1888, the receipts of the society were $1265.
> Darker and Mr. J. Dillin, all of Phila.; Miss store. Rev. T. O. Crouse, of Centreville, Melissa B. Vannort, of Palmyra, N. J.; Mr. was also the recipient of a handsome do-93, of which amount $735 were used in se- Sallie B. Horner, Marlton, N. J.; Misses nation on Monday night. curing the present entrance to the church, Bell and Emma Shallcross, Frankford. The Denton Journal states that "Rev.

FIRE COMPANY AT MILLINGTON.—A meet- two years. will be thrown on the subject, so far as the Clark for taking hay. Dismissed for fail- ing was held at Millington on Wednesday A pretty home wedding was celebrated Senate majority is concerned, and if there ure to appear. Another case between same of last week for the purpose of organizing a on Thursday, Dec. 27, at the residence of worked in wood, gravel, moss, evergreen, matters are in such a condition as to render | Edw. Willis, three colored boys, were ar- | The following officers were elected: C. B. | Shallcross, Esq. Just at the hour of 12. | The following officers were elected: C. B. | Shallcross, Esq. Just at the hour of 12. | The following officers were elected: C. B. | Shallcross, Esq. Just at the hour of 12. | The following officers were elected: C. B. | Shallcross, Esq. Just at the hour of 12. | The following officers were elected: C. B. | Shallcross, Esq. Just at the hour of 12. | The following officers were elected: C. B. | Shallcross, Esq. Just at the hour of 12. | The following officers were elected: C. B. | Shallcross, Esq. Just at the hour of 12. | The following officers were elected: C. B. | Shallcross, Esq. Just at the hour of 12. | The following officers were elected: C. B. | Shallcross, Esq. Just at the hour of 12. | The following officers were elected: C. B. | Shallcross, Esq. Just at the hour of 12. | The following officers were elected: C. B. | Shallcross, Esq. Just at the hour of 12. | The following officers were elected: C. B. | Shallcross, Esq. Just at the hour of 12. | The following officers were elected: C. B. | Shallcross, Esq. Just at the hour of 12. | The following officers were elected: C. B. | T rested by Constable Henly and given a Peacock, president; Thomas Britton, sec'y, o'clock the bride, leaning upon the arm of people have called to see it." The rever- receive their taxes for the year 1888. The levies will be due on the first day of January, 1889, and the hearing last Monday by Justice Johnson, on the charge of disturbing the peace and assaulting Wm, Johnson and Chas.

Feacock, president; Thomas Britton, sec y, and the bridegroom, entered the tastefully the bridegroom, entered the tastefully and assaulting Wm, Johnson and Chas.

Feacock, president; Thomas Britton, sec y, and the bridegroom, entered the tastefully the bridegroom, entered the bridegroom that all the bridegroom that the bridegroom the bridegroom that the bridegroom the bridegroom that the Satchel last Saturday on the public street, ing the number and length of the ladders The bride wore a handsome suit of brown of this county; went from here to Caroline Wheatley, adjoining the Chestertown National each and costs.

Before Justice T. S. Dodd: Wm. H. Election of Officers.—Eureka Grange er, George W. Shallcross, of New York. Conference. J. D. Urie, assignee of Dr. J. B. Merritt, against B. Trew, executor of Jonathan Wilson, for the value of peach trees claimWilson, for the value of peac

> PAINFUL ACCIDENT. - George Colton, The state of the s

B. F. Fleming continues to ship large quantities of corn by rail. He is shipping trade was the largest he has ever known, blessed with favorable weather. to remote points and is paying more for partly the fruit of judicious advertising. corn on the cob than for shelled. The He is now clearing his counters of winter prices paid by him, he says, have averaged stock by putting down prices to cost marks. at least from 4 to 6 cents per bushel more Read his new advertisement headed "New than realized in Baltimore. All persons Year Greeting." having grain to sell will do well to see him before disposing of their crops.

Religious Notes. Rev. J. France, P. E. will preach at

Bond Chapel to-morrow morning and in the evening at Chestertown. The Rev. J. D. Reese reports as the result of the recent revival at Salem Church 35 conversions, 28 of whom were received by him on probation and the other seven went

Rev. J. D. Kemp and wife, of Georgetown, traps"-especially on High street. Del., spent the Christmas holidays with A better grade for the pavement from their son-in-law, Capt. T. S. Bordley. Mr. | Cahall's corner to the wharf. Kemp preached at the M. E. Church on A good garbage and street-cleaning Sunday evening. He has recently closed and drainage system. a protracted meeting at an appointment Less brass horn "practice" after four miles from Georgetown which resulted hours; up town, at least. in fifty-one conversions.

> ----Entertainments.

Jule Keen, with a well supported company, appeared in "Only a German" in

Mrs. Jesse Morris was agreeably surprisone of the most prominent figures, and than raffling or lottery, and until the strong Esq., who has for ten years past published New Year's evening. About twenty-five the guest of Miss Dell Baker, Chestertown. sat down to a most sumptuous and ele- Miss Glascock, of Baltimore, is visiting gantly prepared supper of oysters, turkey, her aunt, Mrs T. W. Eliason, Jr., in Chesinauguration in a body. To arrange for Another thing. Insurance companies and the first issue under their management, and voices of the happy company. Dr. W. Wm. Parr, of Still Pond. French blind man's bluff.

> most pleasant time was spent by the whole of Elkton, in the Elkton M. E. Church Miss Willie Smyth, daughter of R. L. Job Wharton, who for nearly ten years good time in general enjoyed.

are wise to insure their property—and lives last Sunday evening, Rev. A. T. Melvin, were both laughable and tasty, and the son of Mr. Thos. W. Skirven. too—and we have no word of censure for who was seated in the congregation, was old year was danced out and the new year Mr. Wm. A. Sappington has taken Fair-

MATRIMONIAL.

SAPPINGTON - BRAMBLE. A pretty wedding was solemnized at the and had probably overtaxed his physical vet, with hat to match, and wore a beautistrength by too much exercise. It was his ful set of jewelry, the gift of the groom. city The latter were the conventional black. We regret to learn from the Easton Star Rappains The bride and groom entered the church that Hon. Charles H. Gibson is seriously NEW YEAR PRESENTS.—The teachers and at 8 o'clock, preceded by the ushers, ill at the residence of his brother-in-law,

Miss IDA M. JONES, daughter of Jacob Jones of West Philadelphia, was married at the home of her parents, 112 South 33d street, to Dr. J. A. VANNORT, of Palmyra, N. J., formerly of Hanesville, Kent county, by the Rev. Dr. H. C. McCook on Christ-The presents were numerous and elegant. James H. Rich, a devout and much beloved ville Every Saturday Morning, and Still Pond Every ment for plaintiff. R. D. Hynson, Esq., Flora; Miss Carrie Bennett, Pomona; Mrs. Crumpton Dec. 24, the parties being Dr Emma Shafer, Ceres; Miss M. L. Dewees, | Charles T. Cahoon and Miss Mattie Gl lady asst. steward; George Bolton, gate ding, principal of the Crumpton publi school. Rev. G. T. Smith officiated.

Mr. Thos. J. MARK, of Baltimore, and with Mr. Jas. L. Beck, near Caulk's field, at 7 o'clock on Wednesday morning, Dec. Wheatley. ternoon. While attempting to hammer a mahogany Henrietta cloth travelling dress, through the middle of the left hand. Dr. ception was tendered them in the evening Betterton, for handsome purses. Whaland dressed the wound on Tuesday at the residence of the groom's mother.

The bride was the recipient of numerous handsome and costly presents. handsome and costly presents.

Mr. A. FRIEDMAN states that his holiday

THE financial statement of the Harford HARFORD COUNTY IS booming Wm, M. Marine for a share of Federal patronage under the new administration,

County Agricultural Society shows receipts from last fair $5,476,15, and the disburse-week, except Saturday, companies and added many new evening next week, except Saturday, companies, and the M. E. Church. Services every under the new administration,

County Agricultural Society shows receipts from last fair $5,476,15, and the disburse-week, except Saturday, companies, and the M. E. Church. Services every least than a pleasant village in this from last fair $5,476,15, and the disburse-week, except Saturday, companies, and the M. E. Church. Services every least the M. E. County Agricultural Soceity shows receipts

The electric light for Chestertown. Fewer cats and dogs, for ditto.

Not so many pig-styes. Utilization of the old armory or ground upon which it stands. New buildings in place of the old "rat-

A good peach crop for the county. And good prices.

Shorter terms of the Circuit Court. Less local option or its better enforce Lower taxes. Good roads and bridges. A free bridge over Chester river. A peach basket factory.

Several peach basket factories if there Various other factories. More students for Washington College. A good Agricultural Fair. And not simply a horse race substitu More Capt. Kerr's for Swan Point.

Some Things We Hope to Escape. The Hungry Joes. Politics—(at least until October.) All $10 wheat swindlers. The peach yellows. Some of the loafers. Other loafers. ALL loafers!

PERSONAL MENTION.

One of the most enjoyable occasions du- been in Chestertown several days this week d29-3t.

leaving Kent but is now well again.

The Misses Willis, daughters of Thos. J. | Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. Willis, Esq., gave a supper to a number of Thomas Shallcross, of Kent, to Miss Mary their friends on Tuesday evening and a Miller, daughter of Mr. Samuel J. Miller,

Smyth, of near Fairlee, entertained a large drove the stage between Galena; Kent ompany at her home Thursday night at county, and Elkton, died in Wilmington which refreshments were served and a on Friday of last week aged over 80 years. of payment. Mr. T. A. Hulme, one of Kent's promi-A most delightful evening was spent at nent citizens, has purchased a residence on A Miss Sue Wilkins' at her beautiful residence | St. Paul street, Baltimore, and moved over every community. It has grown to an Attacked in Church.—Soon after the in Quaker Neck, on New Year's night, by with his family. His farm near Fairlee ness upon a legitimate basis. He is a very probably have fallen to the floor but for A company of young gents and girls held up his residence in Chestertown. Mrs. lee Mill, and Mr. Chas. T. Stratton takes CHESTERTOWN NATIONAL BANK. RATS!—Muskrats are playing a part in reckless business man who does not insure the timely assistance of a gentleman near a very pleasant dance in Stam's Hall on John W. Ireland and the Misses Ireland

Mr. L. G. Vandegrift, has discontinued farming, near Kennedyville, and now re- FOR SALE: sides in Chestertown. Mr. J. Le win Crew

Dr. John A. Guion, father of Mrs. C. T. Westcott, and her brother and sister-Benj. S. and Fettie E. Guion-of New Berne North Carolina, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. 1888. Owing to a change made in my business, Westcott. Dr. Guion is one of New Berne's | that date. most valued citizens. He was for years the cashier of the National Bank of that

May the veteran publisher, pure statesman if they want bargains. and Christian gentleman see many happy returns of the day. ford county, who is well known and pop- see them. They will go low. ular in Chestertown, was the recipient of a handsome surprise on Friday evening of the next two weeks. last week. The Ægis says, when the contents of the numerous vehicles were trans- Dec. 22, 1888. ferred to the porch, pantry and dining leaving a balance of $530.93 to be approThe bride and groom left on the 10.30 P. M. priated for furniture for the chancel.

The presents were numerous and elegant.
The bride and groom left on the 10.30 P. M.
Christian minister, of Denton, has recently train for their future home in Palmyra

Christian minister, of the You are hereby positively requested and positively and its environments. These scenes are Dec. 1, 1888-2m. G. OLIVER ROBBING. Collector 2d District. broadcloth and carried in her hand a bou- and ever since has been an efficient local Bank, from 10 o'clock A. M. until 3 o'clock P. M. on quet of magnificent roses and hyacinths in minister of the Wilmington Meth. Epis.

A DWELLING HOUSE SOLD.—R. Hynson, Esq., as trustee, sold last Monday the Conyer house on High street in Chestertown for $1,155. Purchased by Mrs. Mary A.

----Sport,—Some fine sport may be expected next Wednesday at the contest between A BEAUTIFUL DAY ushered in the New like unto it. Movers were never more WATCH-MEETING. - A watch-meetin commencing at ten o'clock, was held on New Year's Eve in the M. E. Church. The Rev. R. W. Todd delivered an appropriate sermon. The congregation was small.

Year, and the days following have been

December 26, 1888, at Wesley Chapel M. P. Church by Rev. B. F. Benson, CHARLES LEWIS WHEA' Dec. 30, 1889, at the ParSonage, by the Rev. B. F. Benson, JAMES A. DOWNEY and Miss SUSIE At Holden's M. E. Church, Dec. 26, by Rev. R. I leaves two children-son and daughter. The funeral will take place this Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the M. E. Church. On Sunday, Dec. 23, 1889, HESTON MILBORN, infant son of Samuel and Josie Hicks, aged 4 days. at 71% o'clock A. M. S. A. J. WICKES, in his 74th year

MOTICE. in a body, and also other business of importance WILBUR ELIASON, PRES'T. WM. H. LAMBERT, JR., Sec'y.

MARRIED.

and Miss KATIE CONNELLY.

TOR SALE: ROCK CHICKENS. Roosters, $1: Pullets, 75 cts.

All persons indebted to the estate of JOSEPH H said debts are paid within fifteen days, I will be compelled to collect the same according to law. JOSEPH B. HOSSINGER, Dec. 29, 1888-3t.* adm'r of Jos. H. Hossinge TOR RENT: STABLE and CARRIAGE-HOUSE Apply to THOS. G. WROTH,

Philip H. Tuck, Esq., of Baltimore, has Mortgage at 6 per cent. HOPE H. BARROLL

CHESTER BRIDGE NOTICE.

professor feelingly responded. On the R. W. Todd. The couple retired to the celebrated his 77th birthday last Sunday. still, Two Hundred Gallons of Paint, at least Four same afternoon the Loyal Legion, a juve- home of the bride where they will reside Our hearty congratulations and New Year's Thousand Picces of Wall Paper, and a line of Chil- SAMUEL HICKS, near the Court House, one wanting any of the above had better call early Rev. S. A. Hoblitzell, of Bel Air, Har- Shoo Flys, Sleds, Chairs, &c. You will do well to Remember, THESE GOODS MUST BE SOLD in

Friday Morning, from 10 to 12 o'clock; Kennedy-

TAX NOTICE.

the most interesting yet held, and there will be a full attendance no doubt. The F. J. CARTER In the barn. The value of two bushels of wheat will be a full attendance no doubt. The has just received a large stock of and I am adding to this stock weekly, ALSO, A LARGE STOCK OF WINDOW SHADES of all the latest styles.

Customers can have their Paper trimmed while they wait. No extra charge for trimming Under the "Voshell House. FOR SALE. containing Seven Acres, Nice Cottage Dwelling, 350 | Office Hours, 8:30 to 12 A. M., and 1 to 4 P. M.

SHOOTING MATCH at CLAY PIGEONS FINAL NOTICE of the Fifth District Collector A FTER having ridden my district for 18 months. J. FRANK WHEATLEY, TOR RENT FOR 1889. A BRICK DWELLING HOUSE, J. H. SIMPERS, Chestertown. n store. Possession at once, or on March 1st, next, in Liber S. B., No. 2, Folio 475, &c.

The STOREROOM under the "Kent TOR RENT or LEASE : The STOREHOUSE at FAIRLEE, TOR SALE:

A NICE LOT OF STOCK EWES,

Horse-Shoeing. well qualified to conduct a county paper, parlor was filled with the merry laughter spent her Christmas vacation with Mr.

The Annual Meeting of the Kent County Agri-cultural Association for the election of officers will have a spent of the Christmas of the Kent County Agri-cultural Association for the election of officers will have a spent of the Catholic Church and the county Agri-cultural Association for the election of officers will be a spent of the Catholic Church and the county Agri-cultural Association for the election of officers will be a spent of the catholic Church and the county Agri-cultural Association for the election of officers will be a spent of the catholic Church and the county Agri-cultural Association for the election of officers will be a spent of the catholic Church and the county Agri-cultural Association for the election of officers will be a spent of the catholic Church and the county Agri-cultural Association for the election of officers will be a spent of the catholic Church and the county Agri-cultural Association for the election of officers will be a spent of the catholic Church and the county Agri-cultural Association for the election of officers will be a spent of the catholic Church and the catholic must be attended to and a full attendance is earn-estly requested. WM. J. VANNORT, PRES'T. HORSE-SHOEING and BLACKSMITHING IN THE VERY BEST MANNER. I will be pleased to see all my old friends and any guaranteed in every case.

immense magnitude, and still grows. Men beginning of service at the M. E. Church a party of masqueraders. The costumes will be conducted by Arthur Skirven, a years will be given on Store House, or it will be sold

W. E. JARRELL, AT PRIVATE SALE, FOUR ACRE TRACT OF LAND. northeast prong of Lankford's Bay, directly oppos For terms, apply to MRS. S. H. THOMAS.

half-bushel of Bran given for sixty pounds of first-Urieville Roller Mills

> Headquarters! Gives his Exclusive Attention to HORSE - SHOEING! My prices I guarantee to be as low as the lowest. Horsemen! Come and see me, and I will save

SAM. HICKS, H-O-R-S-E-S-H-O-E-R,

WM. H. MCFEELY'S 7 ACRES, More or Less, AGENCY.

INSURE YOUR LIVESTOCK

Milk Wanted! THE EXCELSIOR CREAMERY is now in successful operation. WE earnestly solicit the patronage of all farmers of this county. They will find it to their in-DR. C. P. GILPIN, COM

CHESTERTOWN, MD., MAIN ST., ADJ. CAHALL'S STORI

UNDER and by virtue of a power contained in a mortgage from Samuel H. Crawford and wife to day of December, 1888, the undersigned will offer at On TUESDAY, 29th of Jan. 1889, at the Voshell House, in Chestertown, Maryland at eleven o'clock A. M., all that Farm," containing about One Acre of Land

SMALL DWELLING, and all are well located and desirable for residences note of the purchaser with security approved by the RICHARD HYNSON. PUBLIC SALE OF from $2.50 to VALUADII DIUM, WU. On SATURDAY, 5th of January, 1889, > among which are some Valuable Mares and 2 Percheron Colts and 1 Smuggler Mare Colt; 30 Head of Shoats:

Family Carriage and Tongue, 1 Buckeye Mower, 1 Grain Fan. 1 Whipple Harrow, 1 Wheat Drill.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF IN CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Wednesday, 23d day of January, 1889, AT ELEVEN O'CLOCK A. M., At the Court House door in Chestertown,

-ONE TEN-HORSE-

Also, One 32-inch Springfield Separator with Patent Stacker. Also, ONE CANTON MONITOR PORTABLE TEN-HORSE ENGINE and 32-INCH SWEEPSTAKE THRESHER.

-ALL THATwhere the doctor has been located for about two years.

COVERDALE — SHALLCROSS.

COVERDALE — SHALLCROSS. is known as TRAVILLA. And I hereby give notice that on SATURDAY, 12th day of January, 1889,

LARGE VARIETY ANY FURNISHED AT SHORT NOTICE.

The VERY BEST, and EVERYTHING that is kept in a well furnished Drug Store.