Rent Mews.

Is marriage a failure? the bachelor cried And the youth who is courting a girl replied "I've never been married and cannot guess But courtship I know is a big success."

----"In court," said the card on the lawyer's door 'Back in ten minutes," on many more; "Gone to the hospital," on the doctor's slate On another, "Sit down and wait;" "Gone to the bank," on the notary's sign "Arbitration," that young clerk of mine; "Back soon," on the broker's book:

"Collecting rents," on my agent's book. They were all too busy, a matter quite new. Very sorry was I, I had nothing to do; Then I hied me hence to the base ball ground. And every man on the grand stand found.

LETTER FROM WILMINGTON.

DEAR NEWS: - Though we have neneglected us, but regularly you make your vent mustiness. weekly visits, and of the many like visitors none are more highly appreciated, or looked for with greater interest.

Dailies gather up all that is new or start- health, and who do not wish to resort to ling and before we can get pen in hand to bitter, nauseous liver medicines and catharwrite, they have it going with the wings of tics, is the concentrated California liquid the wind to the ends of the earth. STAM, Chestertown some special theme or else rehash stale matter, which is embarrassing. Then also we have our hands and hearts full, yes, chuck full all the time.

Our city is rapidly growing in all directions but more especially on the western and northern borders. In this latter direction a new town is springing up called East Lake, extending from the Philadelphia pike to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, and will be an extension of the town of Brandywine.

New business enterprises are also under consideration. The Morocco firms of the city are seriously considering the importance and feasibility of establishing a glue factory, in which they can use their surplus material at home, instead of selling and shipping to other cities to be by them manufactured into that commodity. Should they determine to establish such a business it will furnish employment to a number of hands. Several other factories for various purposes are talked of, but have taken no definite shape as yet, but we hope soon will. The remarkably mild winter has been specially favorable to the poor and dependent upon city hospitality and charity, so that there has been less demand upon the liberality of the people this writer than usual, while at the same time we have had a great deal of sickness, which is usually the case in mild winters. Deep colds and sore throats have been prevalent, some diphtheria and scarlet fever also. Business is generally active. Some of the firms and yards are slack but only temporarily so. Under the pressure of a high tariff it is expected that business will boom as never before. I hope the expectations will be realized.

Our city council has made a change in the chief engineer of the water department, solely on political grounds; bad policy I think. Municipal affairs should not governed by politics, but for honest and efficient government.

We are making some advancement on the lines of temperance, in the preventing of the licensing of any new places and the suppression of the most objectionable of the old. We have an abundance yet and to spare. We hope to see the day when there will not be a house in the land allowed to sell intoxicants as a beverage. Good way off I hear you say, but it will come. The liquor traffic of this country is doomed. An unusual religious interest is manifested in the churches of the city. Revivals are in progress in the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist churches. In the latter denomination very gracious and extensive revivals are now in progress in many of the churches, and in some of them with increasing interest though they have been in operation since the beginning of

We feel a very deep interest in all that contributes to the prosperity, happiness and well-being of your county, materially, socially, financially and religiously. We were truly sorry to hear of the sad deaths of Mr. Medford Armstrong and sister, at Galena. He was a very fine Christian gentleman. Kind, gentle, retiring in disposition, attended to his own business and let other people's alone.

A FINE CAPITOL.—Georgia's new capitol at Atlanta is nearly ready for occupancy, and the Legislature, which meets July 1, will hold its sessions in it. The cost of the building was about one million dollars, and it is conceded to be one of the handsomest and most commodious State capitols in the country. GATESVILLE, N. C., July 31, 1888. GENTLEMEN—I have been having chills for about three (3) years, and have tried several remedies but to no avail. About three months ago, I was prevailed upon to try Celore. I used one package of that never-failing remedy for chills and to-day I feel no symptoms of their return. Yours respectfully, WILLIS HOFLER.
WHITE MARSH, MD., August 1, 1888. Sirs—I have had rather a hard time to introduce Celore, as the people here thought that nothing would stop the chills but quinine. But since they have tried Celore they say it not only stops the chills but diately. Yours truly, J. L. ROBINSON.
