Mr. and Mrs. Granville McCauley and little son, Dennis, of Price visited in town on Sunday.

The "Over Comers" held their monthly meeting at the home of their teacher, Miss C. M. Dempsey, on Valentine night and had a jolly time.

ROCK HALL
Good for ardent angler's article in last week's News.

Good also for Bro. Hepbron's article on the farmer and his wife, and his lot in life, it takes a number of our oldsters, back in a reminiscent mood of the 50s, 60s and 70s and makes us realize that we were happier in those good old days than we are in our present day and time, with all the show we are making in table, dress and automobile.

Wm. Starr is visiting his little daughter, Margery, at Dagsboro, Md.

Mrs. Josephine Cannon, who has been spending some time at the home of her son, Edward, of Camden, N. J., has returned to her home in town.

Miss Gladys Cully and Miss Thelma D. Jones spent the week-end with friends in Baltimore.

Alephus Wilson, of Newark, Del., has been on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Harry Lake. He brought word of the serious burning of little four-year-old Doris Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Grant, formerly of Piney Neck.

Mrs. John Hubbard and children, Charlotte and Henry, have returned from a few days visit in Baltimore.

Gilmore Bryden is quite sick at his home in Piney Neck.

That alarmists crowd are like the oyster bar alarmists. They want the workers for a living to be held down from independence, don't you think?

BETTERTON NOTES
Not only in summer does the delightful fascination of Betterton express itself.

The Betterton Epworth League will be favored with the co-operation of the Fairlee Glee Club.

The Patron's Club of Betterton school postponed their meeting last Tuesday evening on account of the weather.

CURTIS WOODWORK
Homes that Mould Character
The refinement of the home is a day-by-day influence on the development of child character. The interior, particularly, is important in this respect, therefore Curtis Woodwork, which is the product of America's foremost architects, and refined to the highest degree, should be your selection for your new home, or when you make the old home new.
Standardized production in great quantities makes the cost of Curtis Woodwork no higher than that of the ordinary type. You will know genuine Curtis Woodwork by the Curtis trademark on every piece.
Ask us for copies of beautifully illustrated booklets that will be helpful to you in preparing your plans. Also we are in position to offer you, without cost, the services of a staff of some of the best architects and designers in America.
Let us help you to build a home that will satisfy you when it is finished, and that will be readily salable should you ever wish to sell or rent it.
