GALENA ITEMS

Mrs. Eva McCauley who has been spending a week at the home of Romie McCauley, in Baltimore, returned home on Wednesday.

The "Ivercomers" and some friends had a weenie roast on Wednesday afternoon which started in Dr. E. A. Scott's meadow in a beautiful spot under the trees by the brook, and ended up at the home of their teacher Miss C. M. Dempsey. The supper was picnic style just the same, even if the storm did make it necessary to serve it in doors.

The Willing Workers held their annual weenie roast at the home of Miss Gladys Culley on Tuesday evening. The threatening weather kept them from going to the store but they also had a very enjoyable house picnic.

Miss Elizabeth Jarman is spending some time in Philadelphia.

Miss Fanny Bramble who has been visiting in town has returned to her home at Kennedysville.

Don't forget the entertainment at the play ground July 1.

Rev. G. E. Sterling and family visited relatives at Port Penn this week.

Miss Margaret Everett returned home Tuesday after spending some time with relatives in Wilmington.

John Paul Rosin, of Wilmington, spent the week-end as guest of Mr. Johnson.

Services at St. Clements Church will be as usual.

SWARTHMORE CHAUTAUQUA ENTERTAINMENT

The Swarthmore Chautauqua Association will present their entertainment at Chestertown on September 2nd, Miss Frances Ingram, Artist.

Miss Ingram is prima donna of both the Metropolitan and Chicago Opera Companies, is making the entire tour in a Lincoln car.

This deluxe method of transportation was chosen for Miss Ingram because the management felt that in keeping with Miss Ingram's artistry she should enjoy the highest quality in her mode of traveling. So she enjoys the unique distinction of being one of the few stars in the profession who makes all her concert engagements in a Lincoln.

Coming with the prima donna are Miss Joy Babcock, a violinist who is rapidly nearing the heights in her chosen profession; and Miss Margaret Ringgold, pianist and accompanist extraordinary, whose wonderful gifts lend enchantment to the vocal numbers of Miss Ingram.

Dr. Martin D. Hardin, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Ithaca, N. Y., also is a member of the party, and is traveling with the others in the Lincoln Sedan. The doctor, who is regarded as one of the most eminent public orators in the country will give his address during the afternoon, while the Ingram recital will take place in the evening.

Leading critics are unanimous that Miss Ingram possesses all the requisites of a great vocal genius. In addition to a natural voice which has been termed by many as the most genuine contralto of a decade, she has an extraordinary personality.

SERVICE THAT COUNTS

The one superior thing we have for sale is OUR SERVICE. Any one who takes out a license can sell any casket, from a State Bronze down; but to guarantee perfect preservation in all cases and under all weather conditions requires scientific preparation for the business. Our qualification is attested by a diploma from the Oriental School of Embalming and a post-graduate certificate from the Clark School of Anatomy and Sanitary Science. With our many years of study and experience and our full auto equipment, we are surely in a position to do the very best work to the satisfaction of our patrons.
