Rev. J. W. Easley, of Wilmington, has been appointed successor to Pastor Rev. E. Reed, at Mt. Pleasant M. E. Church, near Coloma, who resigned on account of ill health.

Seldom is one privileged to attend a more interesting meeting of any kind than the missionary meeting held last Thursday evening at Lynch, at the home of Mrs. Hossenger and Miss Edna Wroth, the latter of whom is a member of the Still Pond W. P. M. S. From the time the meeting was opened by the organization president, Mrs. L. B. Harper, through the business, literary and social phases, the interest was at "top notch" all the while. Chief among the business interests considered was the "Christmas Box" to be gotten off to Mexico.

All members present know they must see Mrs. Dittman with reference to this, and those not present should know. Time and space will not permit telling of the interesting literary program. Ask any of the thirty members or friends present and they will tell you, or better still get a "bid" either from the President or Mrs. F. B. Harper for the August meeting and know of this interesting work.

The best field of wheat in Kent reported up to this writing was on the Harry Cacy farm, near Lynch, tenanted by Mr. Price. The yield was 28 bushels per acre.

A WORTHWHILE EVENING

The Flatland Women's Club entertained the Boys' Clubs of Kent County at the home of Mrs. Linwood Sutton, Wednesday evening, July 16th.

The boys and girls furnished an interesting program. They sang some of their favorite club songs and were each introduced by Miss Hill who gave a brief sketch of our life in Club Work. Miss Hill gave an interesting and instructive talk.

Anne Matthews then gave a report of her trip to Camp Vail. Laura Rees gave a salad demonstration, which was helpful to all. We were then served with refreshments. The rest of the evening was spent in club songs and yells.

Leadership and the spirit of the four-fold life was stressed during the whole evening. One might call it a Four H reunion, for the boys and girls, who had been to College Park previous years, were there. They told of the different projects they are carrying on in their own communities. All went home with inspirations and ideas.

is a continuous harbor from any kind of a storm. Philadelphians know this better than the people of Maryland, and the long string of yachts that weekly come through the Chesapeake and Delaware canal make the Sassafras river their first stop. As many as 65 pleasure boats have been counted at anchor at one time near Turner's Creek.
