

Greater Egg Yield Only One of Good Effects Of Yeast

In all the experiments in poultry feeding there has been the search for something that would benefit the fowl throughout its life—something that would lower mortality and promote growth in young chicks, bring growing birds into early laying, keep laying, keep egg production constantly high, make molting a short period and invigorate the birds so that their eggs would be fertile and hatchable. Now, according to me who have been experimenting with it, yeast—preferably dry yeast, which keeps indefinitely and is convenient to use—supplies that needed something. Poultrymen who have been adding yeast to their mash (and the practice is widespread today) report most amazing results, not only in one, but in every department of poultry husbandry. Fertility of eggs is increased, says one. Quick growth is promoted, says another. Egg production is boosted, says another. And so on. Take, for instance, Rodney de Lisle of Langley Prairie, B. C. He compared the egg production of a yeast-fed lot with a lot on an ordinary good ration and observed a remarkable difference in egg production in favor of the yeast-fed birds. And he found other benefits besides. "By feeding yeast," he says, "I was unable to cut down the protein content of other rations—I cut down the protein content of the mash by 25 per cent—used more bran and reduced the cost of my feed, the protein content of which is, of course, the most expensive. The yeast-fed birds are unquestionably better developed and have more vitality, apart from their increased egg production." Results like these are encouraging poultrymen more and more to add yeast to their feed. Many already look upon yeast-feeding as the most valuable contribution to poultry husbandry in fifty years.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving memory of our dear son, Earle Smith, who left us to join the angels one year ago July 30, 1923. How sad today our troubled hearts, How dim our eyes with tears, For death has robbed us of the one We thought was ours for years. Sleep on, dear son, and take your rest God took you home, He thought it best, He saw your sufferings here were great, And opened wide the Golden Gate. Dearly loved and sadly missed by His Parents, Upright and faithful in all of his ways, Beautiful character to the end of his days, Our loving uncle, gentle and kind, What a wonderful memory you left behind. Nieces, Irene and Lillian.

In remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. Bessie Gooding Latham, daughter of Vincent T. and Emily C. Cohee. Dearest mother thou hast left us, Gone to rest in peaceful slumber, No more pain will you endure, For life victory secured. Oh, what saving fills our hearts, When your voice I hear on earth no more. Indeed, a mother's love and care departs us, As you cross the heavenly shore; Farewell, then dearest mother, We will meet you by and by. My days to are numbered. We will be with you dearest mother, Where we will never part no more. By her loving son and daughter, Sam and Mrs. Atlee Latham. Then there was joy in heaven, harps were strung, And melody swelled like the waves of the sea, As sweetly in chorus the angels sang welcome. Dearest sister, there is room for thee, Welcome, dearest sister, we have been waiting long, For you to join our heavenly throng. Farewell, dearest sister, I will meet you in that beautiful home above where there is no more parting. Your loving sister, Katie E. Batchelor

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

We, the members of the Ladies Aid Society of Lynch M. P. Church wish to pay tribute of respect to a dear member, Mrs. Ida Bowers, who fell asleep in Jesus Sunday afternoon, July 6, 1924. Resolved, First, that in the death of this sister we have lost a faithful member so far as her health would permit. While she did not have the privilege of attending the meetings her heart and interest were there, and we can well say, she hath done what she could, may our loss be her gain. Resolved, Second, That we express our sympathy to her dear husband and loved ones, and commend them to the comfort of our heavenly Father. We pray that they may live a Christian life so that at last they may form an unbroken circle in the land beyond the sunset. Resolved, Third, That these resolutions be recorded in the minutes of the Ladies' Aid Society, a copy be sent to her husband and family, also published in the county papers. Respectfully submitted, MRS. FLORENCE SIMMS, MRS. ALICE CORNELIUS, MRS. KATIE COLLINS, Committee.

Vance, Banker, Valley Park, Mo., says: "Two days before using Sorbol-Quadruple, I had a bad hemorrhage in my throat caused by tightening which produced severe coughing. Twenty-four hours from first application of Sorbol-Quadruple I felt relief, and in forty-eight hours noticed it was retreating. In three weeks, one side has vanished and the relief is beyond expression. You make use of this and I will gladly answer all questions." Manufactured by Sorbol Company, Wheeling, O.
