

"For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life."

Your Moral Wages

THEY are paid whether you want to receive them or not. And you determine the rate of pay. You can't strike because the conditions under which the wages are paid are likewise determined by you and you alone.

The Bible verse above is worth reading every day. You have already found it true if you stop to think a minute.

If we sin, we suffer somehow, somewhere; usually soon. But if we repent and follow the teachings of Christ we have the promise of eternal life.

Let the church help you fight temptation. Attend services regularly. Read your Bible and "fight the good fight."

Rev. Chester I. Marsh, who was assigned to the Fairlee charge near Chestertown at the last session of the Wilmington Conference, has asked to be relieved of the duties on account of the condition of his wife's health, and will leave the county as soon as his successor can be appointed by the bishop. He is quite popular at Fairlee and Worton and leaves a host of friends who hope a change of climate will help his wife.

Monday was the fourth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Davenport as Bishop of Easton. In his four years of labor, Bishop Davenport has brought the Diocese to an active and aggressive realization of what it can do. It has grown greatly in spiritual strength and in financial matters it has trebled its gifts. New buildings have been added and the financial support of the clergy brought to a point in favorable comparison with other Dioceses. In fact, while a rural diocese, Easton is taking its place among those in the country that are steadily forging ahead.

The Centerville papers last week state that "For the first time, probably in the history of the Good Will Fire Company, the volunteer membership failed to respond to an alarm on Thursday afternoon, when the siren sounded in response to a call for aid from Chestertown. Only a few firemen answered, and a few moments later another message came to the effect that Chestertown firemen had the blaze at the elementary school under control."

ROCK HALL NOTES

A couple from our town went to Elkton Tuesday and procured a marriage license.

Married at Grace M. E. parsonage, Piney Neck, Saturday evening, Sept. 20th, Ollie T. Needles, of Chestertown, and Miss Myrtle May Collyer, of Rock Hall, by Rev. T. S. Barrett, pastor.

Miss Ella Hadaway is domestic science teacher in the high schools of Garrett county.

Mrs. John Lewis, after a visit to Baltimore relatives, was guest last week of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. S. Elwood Burgess, who on Saturday entertained Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lewis and Mrs. Mary Louise Spaulding, of Baltimore.

Ridgeway Joiner, after spending the summer in employment at Tolchester, is visiting his brother, Edgar R. Joiner, at his home here. Ridgeway is a part of Tolchester having been there for many years.

Among changes in residence to be made soon are William Witt to his remodeled dwelling on Maple avenue, Edward Hassenpflug will be in the cottage vacated by Mr. Witt; Mrs. John Lewis will have rooms with Miss Marvel Ashley; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parsons with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dowling until he can build; G. Price Orr to the house of Capt. J. E. Apsey's; Merritt Price has moved into James Dobb's house on The Haven. Simon Moffett has raised the back building and otherwise improved his home. Merritt Thompson is remodeling a garage to include a slaughter house. Leary's garage will soon be ready to house the new car. It is understood that Thomas Joiner will have a cement abutment built around his wharf.

Miss Grace Taylor and Miss Eunice Taylor have returned to their home in Baltimore after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Harry Lake in Piney Neck, the former having spent six weeks and the latter two here. These young ladies are granddaughters of Romie Crouch.

Smith Brothers grew over 9 tons per acre off their tomato field. They sold on the market and realized about $250 per acre.

Roland Warner, who has passed the time of his convalescence from typhoid fever at the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles Jaquette, will return home in a few days and resume his employment on the ferry.

Mrs. Benjamin Coleman slipped and fell at the canning house Thursday. The blow on the head rendered her unconscious for a time and she is still much bruised.

Orin Downey, who was transferred by the Star Insurance Company to Denton a few months ago has been called to take charge of the Washington, D. C., office and will assume the duties at the first of next month.

The M. E. Church and Wesley Chapel will miss Henry Dietz who has played the violinello in the orchestras for several years. Mr. Dietz left Sunday morning for Milwaukee where he will remain for some time, perhaps permanently.

Nelson Rodney has moved into an apartment at John Hubbard's. William Smith takes the vacated house on Sharp street. George Wooley will move shortly into a dwelling on Gratitude road.

Well, well, another steamboat line is to start! The name of the boat is "Lincoln." She will likely use the old Chester river wharf.
