She is survived by her daughter with whom she lived; Mrs. Harry H. Hyland of Wilmington; her son, John W. Naylor, Galena, Md.; and two brothers, John T. Heather, Philadelphia, and Charles T. Heather, Delaware City. The funeral services were conducted with Rev. Charles Spry and Rev. T. J. Sard, former pastor of Scott M. E. Church, but now at Chestertown, Md., officiating at 8 o'clock Monday night.

HOME DEMONSTRATION NOTES

The Executive Board of the County Council of Rural Women met at Chestertown on Monday last to discuss ways and means of carrying on the work of the Women's Clubs for 1925. Plans were made for the annual spring meeting of the Council to be held on May 4th. Miss Venia M. Kellar, State Home Demonstration Agent, and Miss Bertha Knight, State Clothing Specialist, are expected to be present. An important part of the program will be re-election of officers. A committee was appointed to arrange a program for the day.

The clubs were well represented and from reports made by the various officers, they are expecting to get good results this year. Women's Club meetings for the month of April will be held according to the schedule below:

April 2nd, Flatland, Mrs. William Dixon's.

April 7th, Fairlee, School.

April 8th, Quaker Neck, Mrs. Milton Faulkner's.

April 9th, The Chestertown High school.

April 13th, Kennedysville, Miss Ruth Newton's.

April 14th, Rock Hall High School.

April 15th, Worton, Grange Hall.

April 16th, Flatland.

April 23rd, Chestertown, High School.

A special clothing meeting with the Home Demonstration Agent is being planned for Tuesday afternoon, March 21st. This meeting is planned for the local leader and two other women from each club.

The Kennedysville Girls' Club will meet this afternoon at the home of Francis Hill. A demonstration will be given in the use of sewing machine.

The Massey Girls' Club will meet on Saturday, March 18th.

The Worton Girls' Club held the monthly meeting for March at the home of Hilda Hurd. A very fine meeting was held. Watch for the program in a later issue.

The Fairlee Club is making plans for the year. This Club has secured Miss Louisa Travers as the local leader. A meeting will be held at an early date.

Miss Ann Matthews and Julia Williams, of Worton, visited club friends at College Park last week.
