Shrewsbury Parish, 1692-1925, annual Old Friends Day, Aug. 30th. 11 a. m. Holy Communion, 12:30 lunch under the oaks, 2:30 evening prayer and historical address. Crumpton M. P. Church. Divine services at Double Creek M. P. Church at 11 a. m. Come and bring your friends and you will not be disappointed. The services in Crumpton M. P. Church last Sunday evening were of an unusual order and attended by a large crowd. The music was very attractive and soul-stirring and the sermon by the pastor will be long remembered by all who heard it. Tomorrow (Sunday) an excellent program is arranged and the sermon by the pastor will be on the subject "The Three Crosses." The Crumpton M. P. Church has solved the problem of small church attendance in the summer by putting on a program each Sunday evening that attracts the people. If you wish to know how this is done come tomorrow evening at 8 p. m. and you will see for yourself and be wonderfully profited by what you will hear. Come early and get a good seat. Prof. Hart At St. James. This coming Sabbath will carry the members and friends of the St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches back over a period of several pastorates to that of Rev. H. B. Jester, a former and beloved pastor, for at 11 a. m. he will preach at the St. James Church, and at Lynch at 7:30 p. m. His St. James theme will be "Dangers Confronting America." That at Lynch, "The Future Church." You are all invited to join in the services above, and also in the Sabbath School at St. James at 10 a. m., the Christian Endeavor at 7:30 p. m., and the Lynch Sunday school at 6:45 p. m. The above changes are those taking place in the exchange of pulpits by the pastor, Rev. L. Colvin Randall, and Bro. Jester. It will be a great treat for the St. James folks to hear, perhaps for their last time, Prof. Freeman H. Hart, who recently resigned from the faculty of the Washington College. All former students, alumni and friends of the college, and Prof. Hart are invited to join with us. Special quartette will sing "Faith of Our Fathers," a favorite number with Professor, and all will join in making it a real farewell that he will not soon forget, and for which he will often yearn. An electric motor connected with the pipe organ in Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, is being installed this week. Both the Methodist Churches find motors satisfactory.
