Our friends from day to day,
But never shall the one we loved,

Our memory fade away.
Two years have passed,
Oh, how we miss her.

More than our hearts can tell,
God knows we never will forget

As long as our memory dwells,
Sadly missed by her son,

"DANGEROUS MONEY" IS BEBE'S LATEST

Miss Daniels Due In First Starring Production For Paramount.

Her millions brought fine clothes, travel, adventure, excitement, but they played a sorry trick on love.

Thus Bebe Daniels finds herself as Adele Clark in her new Paramount picture, "Dangerous Money," coming to the Lyceum Theatre next Thursday to remain one day only, with everything money can buy, everything, that is, except love, for Tim Sullivan is only a hard working contracting engineer and—well, remember how you used to say to yourself,

"Gee, but I wish someone would only leave me a million dollars, then I'd be the happiest person going!" But you wouldn't. Anyway, Bebe Daniels wasn't and a trip down to the Lyceum Theatre will show you why—when the old bankroll comes in the front door love goes out the back.

"Dangerous Money" is Bebe Daniels' first Paramount starring production. Tom Moore, as Tim Sullivan, has the leading man's role opposite the star. William Powell is the scheming Prince Arnolfo da Pescaia who weds the beautiful Bebe through trickery. Mary Foy is Bebe's aunt, keeper of a boarding house where Adele (Bebe), before she falls into the million that is, toils daily in the kitchen. Dolores Cassinelli, Charles Slattery, Peter Lang and Edward O'Connor complete the cast.

Frank Tuttle directed the picture which was adapted to the screen by Julie Herne from the story by John Russell, which is based on Robert Hebrick's novel, "Clark's Field."

GETTING UP NIGHTS

Tells you there is danger ahead. A Healthy bladder does not act at night.

J. H. Dorton, W. Graham, Va., says: "I had to get up seven or eight times at night for forty years. I thought it was my age. After taking Lithiated Buchu a short time, I am alright." Lithiated Buchu cleanses the bladder as Epsom Salts do the bowels, thereby relieving irritation, driving out foreign matter and neutralizing excessive acids. These are the causes of unnatural action of the bladder at night. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) is not a cheap medicine. The tablets cost 2 cents each. Sold at all leading drug stores Kellar Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Advt
