

OF CHURCHES

Dr. Perry, vice president of Washington College, occupied the pulpit of Christ M. P. Church Sunday morning and gave an interesting sermon on "Good Roads." The Christian road of course was the essence of the discourse.

A countywide meeting of all the churches in the county in the interest of Sabbath Observance was held Sunday afternoon in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Dr. W. W. Davis, State Superintendent, presided, and the principal address was delivered by Dr. Howard A. Kelley, noted physician and surgeon, of Baltimore. It was a most helpful and enthusiastic meeting.

Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, N. O. Gibson, minister, Sunday, June 27th. Sunday school at 10 a. m., divine worship and sermon at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Wednesday prayer and bible study at 7:30 p. m., study theme "Christ In Leviticus."

Kennedyville M. P. Church. 10 a. m. Sunday school, 11 a. m. sermon by Dr. J. W. Trout, 7:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor, topic "What May Japan and Korea Expect from Christianity," led by Mrs. Harry Johnston, followed with sermon by pastor. On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Rollison entertained the Ladies Aid Society, after the business meeting a very interesting program was given, after which refreshments were served. Miss Ruth Newton had charge of the program.

The annual Children's Day service of Christ M. P. Church was held Sunday evening, and a splendid program of recitations and music, with an impressive symbolism entitled, "God's Love" was rendered. The collection amounted to $197. The committee in charge of the program was Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Bowers, Mrs. G. Harry Cannon, Misses Clara Usilton, Dorothy Woodall, Maud Dwyer and Laura Nicholson. The banner was won by J. Frank Wheatley's class of men with over $34. It was awarded by Willard Culp in a very appropriate speech. Allan Robinson presided with Miss Ida Hawkins as secretary. The program follows:

Singing, school; scripture reading, leader, Allan Robinson; Lord's prayer; singing, school; welcome address, Mary Emma Chaires; solo, Charles Clift; primary class song; recitation, Eleanor Jones; singing, school; exercises, Junior Missionaries; singing, school; recitation, The Use of Life; eight girls; symbolism, God's Love; singing, school; progress of The Word, Wm. B. Usilton, 3rd; closing song and benediction.

Dr. S. S. Hepburn is visiting in Berlin and Ocean City, Md. He preached in Berlin last Sunday.

The M. E. and M. P. Churches are having summer schedules. Services beginning at 7 p. m. and holding one hour.

The Rev. Robert E. Green, of Wilmington, Del., has been appointed pastor of Pomona Charge. Mr. Green has attended Beacom's Business College, Wilmington, Wesley Collegiate Institute, Dover, Del., and Brown Institute, Philadelphia. He was graduated from Brown Institute in June of this year, and expects to enter Washington College in September.

Mowbray Chapel
Sunday school 2:30 p. m.
Every person of the community is invited to be present at the service and help to make it one of the best Sunday schools in the conference.

Preaching 7:30 p. m. by Rev. Robt. E. Green.
Let us go into the house of the Lord and return thanks for the blessings the Lord has bestowed upon us.

Bond Chapel
Sunday school 10 a. m., Alfred C. Loud, superintendent.
There is a class for every person of the community and all urged to be present.

Divine worship 11 a. m. by Rev. Robert E. Green. "I was glad when they said unto me let us go into the house of the Lord."
Epworth League 7:30 p. m. The leagues services are proving to be very interesting and inspirational to all that attend.

Chestertown M. E. Church
A very special program is arranged for tomorrow as follows:
9:45 a. m. Sunday school. All are looking forward to the jolly picnic in July.

11 a. m. The Town Fire Company dressed in their new uniforms will be present in a body and occupy reserved seats. The pastor will preach on the lessons taught by a fire company. Every member of the company should be present and help the preacher to preach, and all the people who are protected in life and property by the company should show their appreciation by being present.

7 p. m. The Epworth League of Asbury Church, Crisfield, Md., with their orchestra will be present in large numbers and put on a miscellaneous Epworth League program that will interest everybody. I am jealous of the reputation of Chestertown and its institutions and especially of its young people and I hope we shall all have on our best clothes in the presence of this visiting bunch of young people.

Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee, 10 a. m. Sunday school, Walter Barnes, superintendent, preaching at 11 a. m. by the pastor, subject Certainty and Joy; Junior League 6:45 p. m., Epworth League at 7:30, leader, Miss Eva Moore, topic, Untried Recreation, preaching by the pastor. Everybody welcome.

Union M. E. Church, Worton. Sunday school at 2 p. m., B. F. Rash, superintendent, preaching by the pastor at 3 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Rock Hall Notes

Capt. and Mrs. Hilroy Akers are parents of a fine little son who arrived Friday.

A colored man, Raymond Warren, employed by Smith Bros. at their farm near Rees Corner, was run down Saturday night by a car in the eastern end of Rock Hall. He was picked up by someone who placed him inside of the Smith's road gate where he lay in the cold with a broken thigh and other painful bruises until found in the morning by Mr. Adam Smith who heard his groans and calls. The man does not know who ran over him nor who left him in such inhuman manner.

Henry Taylor is ill at his home in Piney Neck.

Mrs. Alice Hadaway has been the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Thompson.
