

ANYWHERE TO ANYWHERE BY TELEPHONE

There is a way to SAVE on your LONG DISTANCE CALLS

ISN'T this about the way you make most of your long distance calls?

When the operator answers you tell her "I want to speak to John Y. Evans, the Ajax Manufacturing Company, 234 Pearl Street, New York City." She must then connect you with Mr. Evans and no one else.

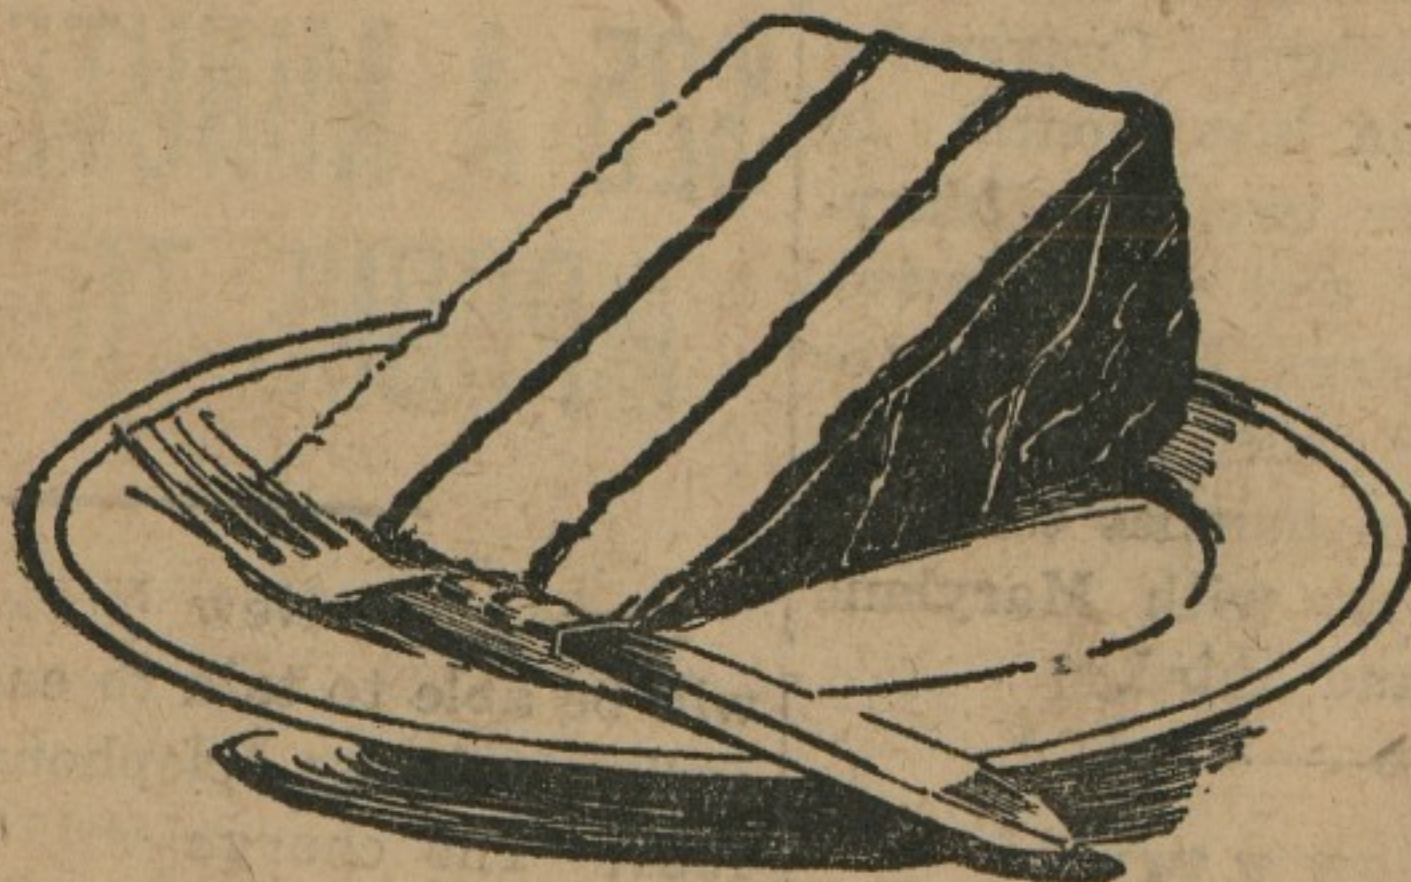

Here is a way you can do much of your long distance telephoning for less money and with greater speed. Mr. Evans is probably in his office when you make your call and if not, someone else can talk for him. Then why not tell the operator "I want anyone at the Ajax Manufacturing Company," or simply give her their telephone number if you know it. On a call of say 150 miles to a particular person, the charge is $1.20; the rate when we simply connect you to the out-of-town telephone is 95c.

The first way of calling is termed person-to-person service; the other and simpler way is station-to-station service. The latter makes less work for our operators with less use of our lines and we pass the savings along to you.

Think of this when you are making long distance calls, either business or social. Telephone users are turning more and more to station-to-station service as a speedier and cheaper way of doing their long distance telephoning. Over half the messages we now handle are on this basis.

They ate up the proof

MILLIONS of fine cakes have been baked with Snow King. Mostly by Southern women, who are the finest cake-bakers in the whole world.

We wish we had those cakes here to show you. There couldn't be any better proof of Snow King quality than that.

But we can't do it. That sort of evidence disappears mighty fast. Snow King cakes don't stay around long.

But more Snow King is used in a day now than in a whole year when we first started making it.

When you try a can of Snow King you've got more than 50 years of baking history behind you. That's not "experimenting."

The Snow King Cook Book has 44 pages of real Southern recipes. You will want to try every one of them. Send for a Free Copy today. Enclose 10 cents to cover cost packing and mailing.
