WILMINGTON CONFERENCE IN SESSION

The conference session is expected to be the most unusual held for some years. About 15 churches in the Wilmington district are booked for a change, according to advance rumors, with a proportionate number from the lower districts.

Three ministers are almost sure to be ousted, while two others may be put on trial. The five are from churches of importance. Several ministers, including Rev. J. A. Croft, of Asbury Church, Salisbury; Rev. B. W. Gilbert, of Delaware City, and one or two others, are seeking transfers from the Wilmington to other conferences.

The Older Boys' Conference will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Most of the sessions of this conference will be held in the Methodist Protestant Church, with Richard Horner, president of the Older Boys' Conference, presiding.

J. Samuel Krueger has been elected lay delegate and A. H. Covey, alternate to represent the Methodist Episcopal Church at the annual session of the Wilmington Conference which assembled in Salisbury this week.

Rev. Dr. Wilbur F. Corkran, the pastor, will return for the second year.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC Upon the urgent request of many citizens I hereby announce myself a candidate for Town Commissioner of Chestertown, subject to the result of the election in April.
