ST. JAMES AND LYNCH M. P. CHURCHES

L. Colvin Randall, Pastor
A splendid reception was given Rev. Colvin Randall and wife at the St. James parsonage Monday by about a hundred members and friends under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Miss Louise Travers, president. H. S. Startt made the address of welcome which was replied to by Rev. Randall. Mrs. Eva Hatcherson rendered several vocal and piano solos. Gertrude and Edith Reese played piano duets, Harry Williams and Henry Anderson recited. Refreshments were served and all enjoyed a social evening. Donations were put in the pantry and Mrs. Randall also received presents.

St. James Sabbath School had 110 in attendance last Sunday, and have set a goal of 125 for this coming Sunday. Its Christian Endeavor has reorganized and the attendance warrants the belief that the past records are to be eclipsed this year, the newly elected officers are: H. S. Startt, president; Rodney Ford, vice president; Miss Ursula Moffet, recording secretary; Miss Gertrude Reese, corresponding secretary; Franklin Moffet, treasurer; Miss Annie Parsons, pianist. St. James Christian Endeavor has enrolled fifteen new members and Lynch five new members since conference, or in the last two weeks.

Lynch held its April business meeting and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Cornelius on Tuesday evening. The play, "Aaron Slick from Pumpkin Creek," which was presented by the young people of St. James, at Fairlee Schoolhouse, on Tuesday evening, the 19th, was highly successful, both in attendance and comedy.
