DIVORCES GRANTED

An absolute divorce from Howard Gwynn Byrd on statutory grounds was granted Monday to Mrs. Margaret S. Byrd. She also was authorized to resume her maiden name of Shure.

Mrs. Byrd testified that she lived at the Allston Apartments, Charles and Thirty-second streets, and that she was married December 31, 1925. Her husband, she said, lived at Worton, near Chestertown, and she felt obliged to leave him in May, 1927.

Mrs. Lillian Octavia Titter, of 5801 Belair Road, Baltimore, was granted an absolute divorce from George Houston Titter, 1518 Rutaw Place, in Circuit Court No. 2, that city, Judge Ulman presiding, on Thursday of last week. In her testimony before an examiner, Mrs. Titter charged her husband with desertion and unfaithfulness. Mrs. Titter was also granted the custody of their two minor children, Clifton Lisle 7, and George Houston, Jr., 6, with permanent alimony. Mr. and Mrs. Titter were residents of Chestertown several years prior to their moving to Baltimore about a year ago.

DELAWARE NO MATCH FOR W. C.

Washington College's speedy basketballers ran rings around the visiting University of Delaware quint here on Tuesday night to win by the score of 49 to 25.

Delaware never had a chance and was quickly left far in the ruck as Giraitis, Cavanaugh and Carrington rang up double-decker after double-decker, in the opening minutes of the contest. Then Coach Kibler removed three of his regulars and sent in substitutes, Alexander going in at forward, Usilton at center and Norris at guard.

The Silverbrook, Wilmington, basketball team scored an easy 48 to 20 victory over the St. James Club, of Chestertown, on Saturday night in the home hall. In the preliminary game the Silverbrook girls trounced St. James' sextet to the tune of 53 to 14.
