SHREWSBURY TO LOSE PASTOR?

Rev. Robert W. Lewis, of Shrews- bury Parish is considering The Change—Impressed With St. Michaels.

The vestrymen of the Episcopal Church at St. Michaels have extended a call to the Rev. Robert W. Lewis, of Shrewsbury Parish, Kent County, a delegation from the St. Michaels Church recently visited Shrewsbury Parish, and were so impressed with Mr. Lewis that they then and there extended a call to him.

Mr. Lewis later went to St. Mich- aels and after looking over the church and its rectory became favorably im- pressed. He had to confer with Bishop Davenport and talk it over with his family before deciding.

Mr. Lewis is considered one of the leading ministers of the diocese. His present charge is one of rare beauty, according to the vestrymen of the St. Michaels Church. It is an old church founded in 1692, and has many his- torical connections. Its marble altar is one of the attractions and the step to the church is the tombstone of one of its earlier members.

The church has a large tract of land from which an income is derived. In St. Michaels the finances are in splendid shape, the rectory has re- cently been remodeled and the church is in new physical condition. This ap- pealed to Mr. Lewis, who looked with favor on the call.

PENINSULA SUMMER SCHOOL OPENS

The Peninsula Summer School which sponsored by the Episcopal Churches of the Diocese of Eastern and Delaware opened last Monday at Ocean City, Md. This school is held for one week every year either at Ocean City or Rehoboth. Instruction in all branches of Sunday School work is given and all denominations represented. Attendance at the school is open to all.

Emmanuel Church Sunday School has sent as its delegates, Theodosia Chapman, Janet Atwater and Nancy Jean Usilton. The Woman's Auxiliary of Emmanuel Church has sent as its delegate Mrs. Wm. Walter Chapman. Others attending from Kent are Mrs. E. Thomas Massey, of Massey; Miss Ida Crow and Walter Chapman, Jr., and Rev. Charles L. Atwater is busi- ness manager.

Among the marriage licenses is- sued here this week are these: John Wilson 21, and Margaret Jackson 19, both colored, of Kent county. Edgar C. Faulkner 32, and Sue Bennett Krusen 24, of Philadelphia.

Bernard Baker 35, and Emma Bartz 20, of Kent county. Irvin L. Crouch 29, and Lillian M. Orr 25, of Kent county. Noble L. Moffett 55, and Mollie G. Miller 54, of Kent County.

Kitchenkook has set a new High Mark in Cooking Speed

Comparative tests show that the Kitchenkook is faster than any other type of cook stove faster even than city gas, the usual standard for comparison.

Kitchenkook makes its own gas from gasoline, bringing to homes located beyond the reach of gas all the convenience, cleanliness and comfort of city gas service. It's economical even when you have gas used. No wicks or chimneys, no smoke, soot or kerosene odor. Master burner lights in less than one minute; then all burners turn on or off as wanted, just like gas. No waiting, no delay; fire regulated instantly just as you want it. Kitchenkook is so simple children can use it in perfect safety.

Don't fail to ask us for a demonstration of the wonder stove that is revolutionizing the whole industry, the most talked of stove today. Made in 16 attractive popular priced models, including white porcelain enamel ranges, with oven and broiler.
