1921. The Democratic President had less than 14 months in which to test out an administrative machine erected to deal with a brand-new problem. Bootlegging was an infant industry under Democratic rule. It has grown to its present proportions in seven years and three months of "observance and vigorous enforcement under" Republican auspices.

Now, nobody who believes in American institutions can challenge the validity of the Republican proposition that the Eighteenth Amendment, being a part of the Constitution of the United States, should be observed and vigorously enforced. That is sound doctrine. But the difficulty is that the Republican party doesn't mean it. In seven years and three months of "observance" and "vigorous enforcement" we have witnessed the most scandalous orgy of lawlessness, corruption and official laxity that ever took place in any civilized land. It matters not whether one believes in or opposes prohibition, the administration of the law can have given satisfaction only to those who have profited by its violation. When the Republican platform professes respect for the Constitution it means, according to its own record, verbal respect. It means that under a new Republican lease of power the people may expect a continuance of present conditions. And present conditions constitute a frightful scandal.

The Democratic party deals with this difficult problem frankly and honorably. It pledges itself to loyalty to the Constitution, and for the improvement of the conditions which shame and alarm thoughtful citizens.

The question before the country is not whether it shall be wet or dry, but whether it shall be honest and law-abiding or hypocritical and contemptuous of authority. On that basis the issue should be met. Any other course will be as deserving of contempt as professions of respect for law by those under whose rule law is flagrantly flouted on every hand.

PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT

The platform of the Republican party is a lengthy document, some of which has an uncertain sound, but it does declare for a vigorous enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment, which is to laugh. The Republican party has had over seven years in which to vigorously enforce the Eighteenth Amendment, and the fact that the party has made a woeful effort to suppress the illicit traffic in intoxicants, is an evidence of what may be expected in the future if the Republicans are successful this fall. The Philadelphia Record of Saturday commented on this phase of the Republican platform as follows:

It should be noted in the interest of truth and justice that there is practically no Democratic record on prohibition enforcement. The Eighteenth Amendment became operative on January 16, 1920. President Wilson's second term ended March 4,

The Why of Telephone Progress

"It is fundamental in our plan of organization to have at headquarters and in our laboratories several thousand people whose sole job it is to work for improvement."

WALTER S. GIFFORD, President of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company (Bell System)

Research, invention, development—this sequence in unvarying order has been responsible for every advance in the art of telephony.

Fifty-two years ago there were only two telephones in the world—the crude but entirely practicable models of the inventor. Today, the world has over 29,000,000 telephones, more than 18,000,000 of which are in or connected with the Bell Telephone System in this country.

Every step in the development of this giant industry has presented its problems—problems that can only be solved through exhaustive research and experimentation. Since the day of its invention a constantly growing organization of scientists have been devoting their entire time toward perfecting the telephone art.

Today, this organization, known as the Bell Telephone Laboratories has grown until it numbers 3700 people. Hardly a month goes by but the world is astounded by some new and marvelous result of their labors—some new and important advance in the art of communication.

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore City—which serves you—is one of the associate companies of the Bell System, and as such is entitled to, and has at its disposal the results of these scientists' labors as soon as they are perfected. Thus, we are enabled to make continuous progress toward the realization of our aim to give the most telephone service and the best at the least cost to the public.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Frank Adams vs. Ruth L. (Hall) Adams
In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Equity, No. 2521.

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a decree for Divorce a vinculo matrimonii.

The Bill states:
1. That on the 21st day of June, 1907, he, Frank Adams, was married to his wife, Ruth L. (Hall) Adams, by a Justice of the Peace, at Nodestha, Wagoner County, State of Oklahoma, and resided with her in Tulsa, Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, until some time in the month of October, 1924.

2. That though the conduct of your Orator towards his wife, the said Ruth L. (Hall) Adams, has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Ruth L. (Hall) Adams, has without any just cause or reason abandoned him, and has declared her intention to live with him no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterrupted for at least three years, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

3. That your Orator and the said Defendant, Ruth L. (Hall) Adams, had two children born to them as a result of said marriage, to wit: Roland Hall Adams, who at the time of the filing of this Bill of Complaint is 17 years of age, and Morris M. Adams, 13 years of age, all residing with their mother, Ruth L. (Hall) Adams, somewhere within the State of Oklahoma.

4. That the Defendant, Ruth L. (Hall) Adams, is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, whose exact whereabouts is unknown to your Orator.

5. That your Orator is a resident of the State of Maryland, where he has lived for two years previous to the filing of this Bill of Complaint, and is now residing at No. 195 Cross Street, Chestertown, Kent County, Maryland.

It is therefore, this 13th day of June, 1928, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 15th day of July next, give notice to said Ruth L. (Hall) Adams, non-resident defendant, warning her to appear in said Court in person or by Solicitor, on or before the 5th day of July next, to show cause, if any she has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
