PLANET OF THRILLS IN "THE SCARLET LADY"

There are plenty of thrills in Columbia's Deluxe Special, "The Scarlet Lady" which shows on Tuesday, January 8th at the New Lyceum. It is a vivid and colorful drama of Russia just previous to and following the revolution. The theme is developed from a human interest angle relating the adventures of a prince who loves a girl of the lower classes. The fortunes of the revolution make these two change places and when the girl gets the upper hand she makes life miserable for the prince, who she believes has wronged her.

Lya de Pitti has the role of the revolutionist and in it she rises to great heights. Her love scenes with Don Alvarado as the prince are exceptionally well handled. Alvarado is every inch a prince and a perfect lover. Warner Oland has the character of a revolutionist in love with Lya and suspicious of the prince.

The picture had been made on a stupendous scale with many luxurious and massive sets and hundreds of extra players. Alan Crossland is responsible for the direction. He has brought to the screen a production that will go down in history as one of the outstanding pictures of the year.
