Helen Baker's Turkey Mashes

May be purchased from Jones and Satterfield, who have the exclusive selling agency in Chestertown, Md. The Haenn Milling Co., of Cheyney, Pa. (near Wilmington) is the only mill authorized by me to mix my formulas under my name. I am in no way connected with either of the two mashes put out by Metcalfe Brothers of Chestertown, and contrary to Metcalfe Brothers' circular letter I have not sold my name to any mill.

The Haenn Milling Co. will put up three strengths of HELEN BAKER TURKEY MASHES, with the bone meal and sulphur added in the proper proportions for the different ages. Therefore it will not be necessary to add anything to the mashes but grit and shell, and cod liver oil if desired. Most good is gotten from cod liver oil when it is mixed fresh with each feeding as it loses some of its strength when exposed to the air.

Feed Starting Mash the first month. Feed half Starting Mash and half Growning Mash at the beginning of the second month, gradually getting the poults on to all Growing Mash at the end of a week or two. In the same manner change to the HELEN BAKER FATTENING MASH in September.

The above feeding will G R O W MORE AND BETTER TURKEYS for early November markets when prices are highest.

ATTENTION, ASSOCIATE FIREMEN!

An appeal is made to all members of the Associate Organization of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company who have not yet renewed their membership in the association to forward their check or pay the money direct to Mr. J. S. Kreeger, treasurer, at once in order that the books of the organization may be closed for the year 1929. The Fire Company is in need of funds with which to meet current expenses, and the payment of $3.00 annual dues will greatly assist in this regard. It is hoped that associate members who have not yet paid will attend to the matter at once in order to avoid the necessity for a personal canvas.

TWO "BOULEVARDS" IN KENT

Under the act of the General Assembly passed at the recent session, which requires the State Roads Commission to designate certain State roads as "boulevards," the commission has selected two roads in this county which hereafter will be known by that designation.

One is the State road leading from Elkton to Chestertown and known to autoists as Route 213, while the other is the Chestertown-Rock Hall road, known as Route 20.

These roads will be marked with reflecting signs, which will be visible both day and night. The signs will bear the Maryland colors, yellow and black, and will be placed at all intersecting highways requiring motorists to stop before entering the boulevards from intersecting highways.

FELL IN 21-FOOT WELL

Mrs. Wm. L. Spry had a narrow escape from being seriously injured Thursday morning, when she fell to the botton of a 21-foot well in the yard at her home on West Main St., Middletown. She was walking over the well, when one of the planks covering it suddenly gave away and the unfortunate woman fell to the bottom of the excavation. Fortunately her husband was standing nearby and instantly summoned help. They secured a ladder and a neighbor descended the well and brought Mrs.Spry from her perilous plight. A physician was immediately summoned and after an examination found his patient had not broken any bones, but was badly bruised and scratched, and her back was injured.

WASHINGTON MAKES BRILLIANT ATTACK

In one of the hardest fought lacrosse battles of the season the University of Baltimore required a 10-minute extra period to defeat Washington College stickmen here Saturday by the score of 7 to 6.

In the first period the Eastern Shoremen drove the visiting stick wielders back to their own goal time after time and ran up a succession of scores in the first few minutes of play. But toward the close of the period the Baltimore defense stiffened and stopped the Shoremen's attack.

In the second frame, the visitors with their backs to the sun, bored into the Maroon and Black defense and tied up the score in the last few minutes of play with a series of hard, fast shots Stewart, goalie fo rthe locals.

In the extra period, Baltimore tallied the needed point. The running and passing of Dean was a feature of the contest.

The Washington team comprised: Stewart, Phillips, Veach, Hope, Marth, Willson, Warthen, Dean, Burchette, Stevens, Shergey, Bunting.

Lacrosse next Wednesday, May 8, at Washington College, with the University of Pennsylvania, Jr. Varsity at 3.00 p. m.

Base ball next Thursday at Washington College with the University of W. Virginia, team at 3.00 p. m.

Business men of the community, together with representatives of civic bodies met with the officials of the Kent County Public Health Association thisweek for the purpose of discussing plans to secure financial assistance for the newly organized Kent County Hospital.

Crabbers in the county are encouraged to believe that the season for catching crabs which will open the middle of the coming month will be one of the most successful for many years. Crabs are already beginning to make their appearance in the upper waters of the bay and rivers, an unusual circumstance for so early in the season. It is believed that 5,000 men from the tidewater counties will be engaged in the industry during the season.

C. W. Kibler and Sons, who recently purchased the Cannon street wharf property from Marion deK. Smith, Jr., have torn down the old wharf house that has stood for many years. The condition of the house made it dangerous and it was thought wise to remove it.

The Kibler firm will use the wharf for their several boats that ply between Chestertown and Baltimore during the grain and tomato seasons.

Stavely & Bowers have been awarded the contract to build for Wm. H. McKee and family a new home on the Barroll lot on Campus avenue.

AGREE ON ROADS TO BE IMPROVED

On Tuesday, April 30th, 1929, the citizens committee, appointed at the first general road meeting, compesed of Messrs. H. C. Willis, Chairman, Leonard Wilson, Jesse D. Maxwell, G. E. Leary, W. T. Brown, Harry Hill and M. deK. Smith, Jr., met with the County Commissioners, Messrs. Johnson, Jones and Wood, in the court house to decide on what roads should be improved in the county as outlined in the two Bond bills to be voted on next Saturday. The agreement with the State Road Commission, as well as their instructions, was fully discussed and the merits of each district carefully studied.

The Commissioners concerned with the suggestion to use concrete on the secondary roads and slag on the branches or tertiary roads. The concrete roads will be immediately taken over by the State for construction and maintenance. The slag roads will be maintained by the county. It is proposed to advertise for bids and construct the slag roads by contract.

The completion of this program is claimed to improve every section of the county and relieve the intolerable conditions that exist during the winter months on our present dirt roads in the county, every community While it is impossible to pave all roads in the county, every comunity has been helped and brought that much nearer some hard surface road where you can go in all directions.

The Commission feels that the two roads started last year at Millington and Massey should be completed. By distributing the mileage evenly, both concrete and slag, in the other Districts, ample provision is made to improve all the important roads, so that the plan when completed is claimed to give Kent county a system of good roads second to nose in the State. It will require twelve to eighteen months to do the work.

If the two bond issues are approved by the people, the County Commissioners will recommend the following roads to be paved. Both plans, concrete and slag, go together one is incomplete without the other.

"PINAFORE" SPLENDID SHOW

The comic opera "Pinafore" which was the delight of music lovers fifty years ago, as well as those to today, and which is being presented under the direction of the Wheeler Producing Company with a cast of local singers and dancers, is rapidly whipping into shape for its public presentation at the old Lyric Theatre Monday and Tuesday nights, May 13th and 14th.

When Gilbert and Sullivan's light operas were the rage, many will remember well the days when the Aborn Opera Company delighted Baltimore theatre-goers. To-day, as then, when "Pinafore" is presented to Chestertown audiences with the picked company of singers, all the attractives chorsuses, solos, trios and duets which assist in unfolding the love story of the Captains daughter and the lowly sailor, will be the same as of old.

You will hear Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B. with all his pomp and dignity, sung by Norman Sutton and Hebe, Royal cousin of Sir Joseph charmingly portrayed by Mrs. Leo King. Dick Deakyne, that ever popular character, will be sung by Roy Schmidt, and Josephine, the Captain's daughter, will be in the capable hands of Mrs. G. H. Dana.

The many admirers of Stanley Giraitis, well-known Washington College man, will be delighted to hear him sing the role of Captain Corocran, as will also the many friends of Wilbur Ross Hubbard, who sings Ralph Rakestraw, the sailor. Little Buttercup, the nurse who caused all the trouble by mixing the babies in their cradles, will be played by Mrs. Raymond Kilpatrick, and the parts of the Boatswain and the Boatswain's mate will be sung by Messrs. Raymond Moffett anr R. D. Moore.

Mrs. H. J. Wheeler, who has been conductress for the Kent County Musical Association for the past year, and who is personally directing the opera, was a member of the Aborn Company, and sang in the opera. Her actual experience affords opportunity of giving to the cast of local singers a professional finish unusually found in amateur production.

The Wheeler Company need no introduition to this locality, as their plays, given in past seasons for the Volunteer Fire Company, speak for themselves.

A large chorus of male and femole voices, a dancing group of "midshipmen," a feature entre act by a large group of children, special scenery, costuming and electrical effect, altogether combine to make one of the greatest affairs of its kind that Chestertown has had for several seasons.

"Pinafore" as all Wheeler productions, is no ordinary amateur play. Don't miss it, it will be a rare treat. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the cast, and may be exchanged for a reserved seat, without extra charge at Stam Drug Co., Phone 30, on and after Thursday, May 9th.

The Musical Society of Kent County which is staging the opera Pinafore at a meeting Thursday night decided to give a portion of the net proceeds to the proposed hospital.

The Orphans' Court admitted to probate during the past week the last wills of several of the county's prominent former residents, each of which distributed valuable properties among relatives. Wills probated were Mrs. Mary A. Pennington, Mrs.Mary R. Bowers, Walter S. Trew and Albert S. Turner, Sr. Letters of administration were also granted upon the estates of Jonathan D. Maxwell and John J. McGugan.

Walter T. Pippin & son have been awarded the contract for building a new home for Mr. and Mrs. Ringgold Strong on Queen street, near the cozy residence of Walter B. Strong.

Julian Loller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Loller, Southampton, Pa., formerly from Kent county, has sold his home "Lindy" to Wm. G. Merion for $500.

STORM DAMAGE AT TOLCHESTER

The wind and rain storm of Thursday night did considerable damage at Tolchester. Stein's amusements were badly damaged, trees in the park blown down and limbs scatered all over the place. Wires were down and all communication cut off. Supt. Wheatley was compelled to drive to Fairlee to get in touch with Baltimore.

The wharf was covered by the high tide so that the damage to the wharf could not be ascertained.

Tolchester seemed to be the most damaged place on the bay.

THE MASSEY-CHESTERTOWN SERVICE

Contrary to expectations, train service over the Massey and Chestertown and Massey and Centreville branch roads of the Pennsylvania railroad was not withdrawn Monday morning as had been announced previously by the railroad officials.

It was learned that Public Service Commission, to which the matter was referred by protestants from the Chestertown Chamber of Commerce and the Centreville Rotary Club, has ordered the railroad company to explain their action in announcing the withdrawal of morning northbound and evening incoming mail trains, leaving the territory served with only one train a day each way, and the company has been ordered to continue the service pending the results of an investigation to be made by the Public Service Commission.

Meanwhile Postmaster William G. Smyth, here and Postmaster Hayden at Centreville, had completed arrangements for installing new mail routes to serve the territory, which will be held in abeyance pending the outcome of the controversy between the civic bodies and the railroad company.

HOSPITAL DRIVE FOR SHORE AREA

At a meeting of representatives of the Kent County Public Hospital, the Kent County Chamber of Commerce County Public Health Association and other civic and community organizations here Tuesday night, decision was made to inaugurate a drive for $30,000 for a new hospital for Kent and Queen Anne's Counties to be located in this town.

S. M. Bard, of New York, who will be in charge of the drive, addressed the gathering. A dinner will be held at the Health Center here when the campaign will be formally launched. The interest of business men of both counties will be solicited at that time.

An attempt will be made, it was stated, to found a permanent hospital to take the place of the temporary institution now in operation.

Mrs. J. D. Maxwell president of the county health body presided and many physicians, from both counties were present.

MOTHER'S DAY CELEBRATED SUNDAY, MAY 12

Sunday, May 12th, Mother's Day, will be observed in the churches of this county, with appropriate exercises. This day was founded by a daughter who desired that grateful and deserved recognition should be given to mother. As has been said "Each nation has its heroes and great personages whom they honor; each nation has its holidays celebrating the birthday of some famous person or individual of eminence but few of these are known or recognized beyond the confines of the particular nation concerned. There is one day, however regardless of creed or nationality, which can be universally observed, and which is gradually spreading throughout the entire civilized world, this is Mother's Day." It is a day of growing importance gradually spreading from city to city, from state to state, from nation to nation. In recognition of mother's love, mother's patience, mother's faith let us unite and observe it in a fitting manner.

James H. Marvel, of Rock Hall, had his foot crushed last Saturday while working on the county road. A truck passed over his foot. Dr. Hines placed his foot in a cast and he is doing as well as can be expected.

Chestertown officers raided a big game of crap shooters on Wednesday last and arrested eleven of the participants. All colored.

The tulip beds at Wahsington College are greatly admired.
