Miss Catherine Wheeler, of Havre de Grace, was a week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wheeler.

When McCosh Walls, of Millington, went to open his chicken house last Monday morning, he found a practically empty house. Upon investigation, he discovered feathers and tracks all about the chicken house and yard. He also found where a team had been stopped along the road, the previous night. He immediately notified Sheriff Hadaway who started on the way to Millington, on his way he happened to see Wm. Gardner who had created so much excitement in Chestertown last winter by his breaking into houses. However Mr. Hadaway was unsuccessful in catching him, and the man, who has just escaped from Cambridge, is still at large.

Sheriff Hadaway was successful in following the team tracks, but as yet the actual chicken thief is at large. Part of Mr. Walls' poultry has been located and returned to him, and the sheriff has made some arrests that may lead to capturing the thief.

Leonard C. Treherne, representing E. A. Strout Realty Agency, Inc., Chestertown, Md., has sold the "Comella Farm Sonny Brook," near Chestertown, to Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lutz, of Philadelphia, Pa. Mrs. Lutz is an artist, will devote one of the many beautifully bright rooms to a studio, the one selected having exceptionally fine northern light. Mr. Lutz will bring his fine yacht along, and in due course, will likely join the fleet of like craft of the Chester River Yacht and Country Club. We will see that these people are shown our pretty golf course. Mr. Lutz will join us sometime next month, just as soon as the owners can let them move in this beautiful home, with about all modern improvements. Mr. Lutz is an expert on fire-arms, especially antiques, to which he will doubtless devote his spare time. These people have been seeking a home on the Eastern Shore for sometime, en route here, they stopped over at Elkton, and when they arrived told them of the advantages of our part of the Eastern Shore, and did not convince them until took them to Old St. Paul's Church and told them of the Yacht and Country Club, then they decided to come down and live among us. The price is said to have been $8,400.

At a show, concert or lecture, if your chair seems uncomfortable it's a sign that the entertainment is below standard.
