The suit of Mrs. Mabel S. Baker, of Baltimore, against the Board of Town Commissioners for Chestertown for $25,000 damages for the death of her daughter, Miss May Apple, of Baltimore, that occurred on July 20, 1928, went to trial before a jury in the Cecil County Court on Tuesday.

PLANT HOPES TO LOCATE IN CHESTERTOWN

Elburn Brothers of Rock Hall, owners and operators of the Rock Hall Manufacturing Company, makers of fine dress shirts for men and boys, are considering opening a branch of their factory in Chestertown if enough labor is available.

The work is piece work and industrious women are able to earn a worthwhile amount each week. The plant runs throughout the year and affords clean, pleasant and profitable occupation.

The Chestertown Mercantile Section of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce is making a survey of available labor. When enough women have signified their desire to work, a meeting of the labor and Mr. Purnell Elburn will be held in Chestertown for the purpose of going over the type of work and making the necessary arrangements.

On another page in this issue will be found application blanks. Any one interested in filing an application for work is invited to fill out the blank and mail to the Kent County Chamber of Commerce, Chestertown, Md.

MERCHANTS TO OFFER PRIZE FOR CHRISTMAS PLAN

At a special meeting of the Chestertown Mercantile Section of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce, held October 1, the plan for the annual Christmas treat to the children of Kent county was discussed. After consideration it was decided to offer a ten dollar gold piece as a prize for the best letter received by the Chamber before October 19 suggesting a form of Christmas entertainment suitable to Chestertown's population of about 3,000 persons. The plan would emphasize the spirit of Christmas in a novel and practical manner.

This contest is open to anyone residing in the United States and a good response is expected.

The president of the Section appointed the following committee to act as judges of the letters and to complete the accepted Christmas plan. Carl N. Bowdley, chairman; A. Sydney Turner, Jr., Jos. W. Lewis, Ben L. Bonnett and E. Scott Thompson.

TOMATOES GALORE

The News predicts that this season in Kent has been the best in the history of tomatoes, both in yield and price. Many farmers will have 8 and 10 tons to the acre. Thursday and Friday were the big days in Chestertown, the market being 25 and 30 cents per basket.

The Campbell Soup Company discontinued buying here after Wednesday. Through their agent, Mr. King, they bought 300,000 baskets at the five shipping points.

MORGNEC ROAD STARTS

The Board of County Commissioners has succeeded in securing the necessary rights of way over the Morgnec road which had been held up for sometime because of the refusal of one or more property owners to grant the rights of way and the State Road Commission have awarded the contract for building a concrete road from beyond Morgnec bridge to the Chestertown boulevard to Phillips and Co. Mr. Phillips was here this week and made contracts for material and says he will start at once on this road.

Two new residences are being erected in the town of Worton one by Mowbray Hadaway and another by Sewell Lee.

BRIDGE BIDS ARE OPENED

Although considerable agitation is under way in Kent county to change the site of the proposed $500,000 bridge over the Chester river, the State Roads Commission Tuesday opened bids for the construction of the span from the foot of Maple ave., Chestertown.

The low was bid for $247,745 and was offered by the Spencer, White & Prentice Company, of New York. This bid does not include the lift in the draw. But for the draw will be advertised later, according to Harry Willier, Jr., chief engineer of the commission.

In Chestertown a petition has been circulated asking that the structure be built from the foot of High street instead of Maple avenue, but no petition was made of this Tuesday at the meeting of the commission.

The new structure is to be a reinforced concrete pile-girder bridge, 1,460 feet long, with a roadway 20 feet wide and one 5-foot sidewalk. It is planned to equip the bridge with a 60-foot draw, which can be lifted in one minute and which is to be 14-feet above water level at low tide and about 12 feet at high tide. One of the bids was as high as $400,000.

Another project for which the commission received bids was the construction of the final stretch of the Eastern Shore Boulevard, this section being that from the shore line at Kent Island Bay to Queen Anne's, a distance of three and one-tenth miles. The low bidder was the Field, Baker and Underwood Co., of Philadelphia, with an estimate of $61,695.

Under the general Eastern Shore project this section will connect with a pier of the Calabrone-Amnapolis Ferry Corporation on the bay shore opposite Annapolis. It was said that ferry service between this Kent Island terminus and Annapolis is to be inaugurated as soon as the new concrete road is completed.

WASHINGTON SCORES ON MD.

Washington College football eleven went to College Park Saturday and scored 7 points on this fast aggregation, the score being 35 to 7.

Maryland opened with its second string players and they continued until the last quarter, when the regulars replaced them. The second string had the visitors trailing at 25 to 7 when the regulars came into the affair. The latter scored a touchdown and two points on a safety.

Washington did very well. The team was considerably smaller than the Terrapins and there were not nearly so many replacements called on hand. Especially in the first half did Washington play good football. They were the first to score and held the Terrapins even at the end of the period.

Washington put the following team with a number of substitutes, in the game: Burke, Dwyer, Hope, Sherman, Stewart, Phillips, Plummer, Alexander, Dopsin, Robinson and Clemenpe.

Mr. Wingeat, the sports writer for the Sun says: "Washington College, looking better than at any other time in the last three years, was nevertheless completely overmarched, both by the Terrapin sophomore second team and the senior first-string eleven. The Shoreman's touchdown, said to be the first since they first started on the road to distinction on and off the gridiron."

AUTO CENTRE FOUND

What is believed to be a centre for stolen automobiles has been unearthed at Millington, this county, by Sheriff J. Thomas Hadaway and Magistrate Olin B. Stafford. Pennsylvania State Police have been notified to find a former Millington baseball player, who lives in Pennsylvania, and who has frequently been seen here lately at the wheel of automobiles of different makes.

Over the week-end two Ford coupes were discovered and the owners traced. They are Perry Yeaton, 297 Eighth street, Chester, Pa., and Chas. Dougherty, 2542 South Seventy-fourth street, Philadelphia. A third small car found has the machine number chiseled off. Several more stolen automobiles are believed to be in that vicinity.

The Chestertown officers are now searching for other cars, reported stolen. It is believed the Pennsylvania man is bringing the cars to this county and selling them.

LIVED TO RIPE AGES

Kent county is proud of its native born as well as others who make their homes among us. In the former group the Nicholson "boys" are the subjects of this reference. They are high in age, pure in integrity and ripe in character and we do not wait until their passing on to lay our tributes of respect to their splendid lives in our midst. These men's ages total 316 years. All are in full possession of their mental faculties and able to attend to the duties of farm and home.

John P. Nicholson lives at Fairlee with his daughter, Mrs. Christopher. He will be 85 years of age this month. He has served in the Maryland Legislature and as a judge of the Orphans' Court for Kent county.

William T. Nicholson is one of Kent's successful and progressive farmers as well as wielding a large influence in the politics of his district. He will be 76 in November. He is active as president of the Fairlee Co-operative Canneries looking after his farm.

Dr. Albert Nicholson is a physician in Brooklyn, N. Y., and the youngest. He will celebrate his 73rd birthday in November.

Robert G. Nicholson will be 82 in November. He is one of Kent's youngest old men. Besides looking after his fine farm he owns and manages the Chestertown Ice Plant and gives excellent service.

May the last days of these reputable citizens be their best.

FALL WEDDINGS ABOUT KENT

Mr. and Mrs. C. Harry Hudson announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Emma, to Lawrence Wilder, Ward on Tuesday Sept. 24th, 1929, at Rock Hall, Md.

Wedding of interest to Kent and Cecil countians was solemnized Saturday afternoon at the parsonage of Cheery Hill M. E. Church, when Miss Lida Leaverton, of Chestertown, daughter of E. C. Leaverton and the late Mrs. Frank Blake, assistant secretary and treasurer of the Elkton Banking and Trust Company. The Rev. Charles E. Davis, pastor of the Cecil County Church, officiated.

Mr. Blak was for several years assistant bookkeeper of the People's Bank of Chestertown. They are both graduates of Washington College in the class of 1926. They will make their home in Elkton after their honeymoon trip to Canada and New England.

Miss Pearl Virginia Pippin and Harold Freisch were married by the Rev. B. H. Stuart, Monday, September 19th, at Elliott City. The happy couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reeder and Mrs. Lloyd Stevens, all of Baltimore. Mrs. Freisch is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kendall and of Mrs. Thomas Wheat, living at Rock Hall, and with her mother, Mrs. John Pinder, of Centreville, visited them overnight last Friday. The New Lyceum Theatre has been showing some fine pictures and programs for the future will run the best in talkie and movie. Watch the Kent News for the program at the New Lyceum.

FLOODS FOLLOW SOUTHERN GALE

Kent county and the Eastern Shore in common with most of the Atlantic Seaboard suffered considerable damage Wednesday from heavy gales and driving rains, evidently the tail-end of the hurricane which broke in the South earlier in the week.

Highways, particularly roads in the lowlands in the county, were inundated and cellars in many houses on Water street and across the river were flooded. Dr. H. C. Hughes and Eben F. Perkins in hip boots visited the flooded districts and relieved conditions in kitchens, etc. It was the highest tide since 1893. Another high tide will be in 1876.

Along the water front it was a scene of anxiety and fear, but taking it all together the damage was not as great as was feared.

One hundred passengers bound for various points on the Peninsula were marooned aboard the steamer Northumberland plying between Baltimore and Love Point all night. The high tide prevented landing so Captain Woodall anchored off Love Point.

The high tide not only made it impossible for the holding of the daily show at Adams' Floating Theatre, which is docked at Centreville Landing, but it happened that troupe, who make their home aboard the strange craft happened to be in Centreville when the tide began to rise. Finally, enough boats were mustered to take the players to their craft. However, there was no performance.

Ten or twelve men from the State Roads Office at Chestertown helped 765 tons thru the water on the Queen Anne's side of the bridge.

CATTLE RAISING IN KENT

Kent is fast coming into its own in that our farmers are becoming convinced that dairying is the most lucrative industry for this section. Notwithstanding the great blow received by dairying in the recent tuberculosis test the district of Kennedyville is producing more milk today than before the test and from fewer cattle. Of course as the great number of cows are being bought the output will increase.

Charles L. Dodd and C. Frank Crow have embarked in the dairy business with a fine herd of cattle. A new cow barn has also been constructed.

G. Morris Clothier has bought more than 40 cows for his farms and in the spring will erect barns in keeping with the business.

Harry Nichols and son have bought a large herd and is one of the big producers in this section.

Scores of other farmers have bought cattle and are increasing their milk check each month.

BISHOP MURRAY DIES SUDDENLY

Bishop John Gardner Murray, head of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, died at 1.35 p. m. Thursday, from a stroke of apoplexy during a meeting of the House of Bishops at Atlantic City.

WOMEN OF GALENA AND COMMUNITY

gave a reception and supper Friday night to the victorious Galena baseball club of the Chesapeake Bay League. The affair was held in Galena Town Hall. The Rev. William Barrett, president of the league, presided. It was a fine affair and the boys deserved all the good things said about them. The effort to get a game with winner of Western Md. has not yet been successful.

JIMMY FOX'S PAPA OF SON

Jimmy Foxx, young hard hitting first baseman of the Athletics, can go into that world series next week with a renewed vigor, for his chest, no doubt, will have swelled to an abnormal size. Jimmy became a proud papa Thursday, and it's a boy. Mrs. Jimmy Foxx, the former Miss Helen Heite, of Dover, gave birth to the new son of the A's first sacker at the Kent General Hospital, in Dover. He weighed in at 9 pounds. This adds to the general celebration of Eastern Shore fans for they have been whooping it up for Jimmy right along, as he hails from Sudlersville, Md., and played under Frank Baker at Easton in the old Sho' loop.

The appointment of Mr. Russell as assistant Postmaster makes a vacancy in rural carriers. Spencer Smith has been made substitute clerk but there will likely be a readjustment in rural carriers and no additional men will be needed. At present they have about 25 miles territory whereas under new schedule a 40 mile trip will be provided.
