WOMAN'S CLUBS HOLD MEETING

The sixteenth semi-annual meeting of the Eastern Shore District Maryland Federation of Woman's Clubs was held at Berlin, Md., in the Buckingham Presbyterian Church, Thursday, October 17th. The church was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and leaves and presented a most pleasing aspect.

The Berlin Woman's Club, of Berlin, Md., entertained the District and the "Welcome Address" was given by Miss Clara Dirksen, its president. Mrs. Alfonso Boley, President of the District, responded. Twenty-one clubs out of twenty-five responded to the roll call with two-hundred and fifty members present.

John L. Alcock, State President, was present and gave a talk in which she touched a number of subjects vitally important in club work. Reports from the various district chairmen outlining this year's work were both profitable and interesting. The Presbyterian Circle served a most delicious luncheon in the Social Hall adjoining the church.

The afternoon session was turned over to the hostess club and the following program was rendered:

A most interesting paper, "History of Berlin," was given by Mrs. Harry Purnell. The narration was full of humor and wit and was much enjoyed.

A poem by Dr. L. P. Bowen written especially for the occasion was read by Mrs. Willard Springer. Dr. Bowen written especially for the occasion was read by Mrs. Willard Springer. Dr. Bowen was present for a part of the session.

A splendid program of music under the direction of Mrs. Marshall Post was presented as follows:

A group of two songs, "The Sleepy Hollow Time," and "Mammy's Little Honey," by Mrs. George Vincent, of Snow Hill, Md.

Piano Solo, Mr. Merwyn Hastings, of Berlin, Md.

A group of two songs, "My Castle of Dreams," and "Because of You," by Mrs. John L. Ribley, of Snow Hill, Maryland.

Little Miss Virginia Ayres, of Berlin, aged eight, also sang two songs. "Prelude" from Cycle of Life, and "Mother of Mine," sung by Herman Merrill, of Salisbury, Md.

"My Heart at Your Door," sung by Mrs. Marshall Post, of Berlin, Md.

Quartette, "Come Where the Lilies Bloom."

Rev. Robert A. Boyle, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Salisbury, talked on "The Progress of Woman." He defined progress as the parallel advance of our spiritual, physical and mental advance. He asked this question, "Are we better today than our pilgrim fathers of three centuries ago? He further states that woman is the inspiration of man's greatness. He concluded his talk by quoting the poem "The Woman Who Understands."

The District will meet again in May 1930 at Cambridge, Md.

THE CHESAPEAKE BAY BRIDGE

To the Editor of The Sun—Industrial magazines tell us that the county in which Jacksonville, Fla., is located is shortly to vote on a bond issue of $7,000,000 for construction of a toll bridge across the river at Jacksonville. I have heard it stated that Governor Ritchie has expressed himself as favorable to Mayor Broening's plan for the State of Maryland to join with Baltimore in a plan to bridge the Chesapeake Bay, but, like the politician, he points out the fact that the far-western counties of Maryland do not want to share responsibility for an enterprise of this character which may be considered as of benefit only to the eastern sections.

I shall not undertake to answer such an argument, but I would call attention to the fact that not only Florida and Louisiana are "out gunning" for the big game that is to be bagged by such enterprises as this but that similar industry is being displayed in the Far West where communities are spending vast sums for bridges and tunnels to overcome geographical barriers to progress, while Baltimore and Maryland are "sitting tight," playing politics and allowing a stronger band, year after year, to be welded around that great Eastern Shore region by the Northern cities.

Some one has said that the benefit to be derived by the city of Baltimore alone would more than justify this enterprise as strictly a municipal undertaking. Just as the great piers at the harbor are to pay for themselves by the people who use them, so this bridge would pay for itself through toll charges for the traffic that moves over it.

Mayor Broening has made a good start in his proposal. Governor Ritchie seems still "uninterested," or "ag'in" it. If the enterprise must get into the meshes of the political net, who will get it out? The Eastern Shore is for the bridge, so they tell me as I meet the people over there.

Mr. and Mrs. Mildred Joiner are parents of a fine son who arrived at their home Saturday, Oct. 19th.

Miss Margaret Adams, of Baltimore, spent last week-end with her cousin, Mrs. S. Elwood Burgess, and Mr. Burgess. Miss Adams, with her brother, sister-in-law and another friend has just returned from a three-months tour through France, where they landed at Cherbourg, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Holland and England. This trip was planned and presented by the steamship company.

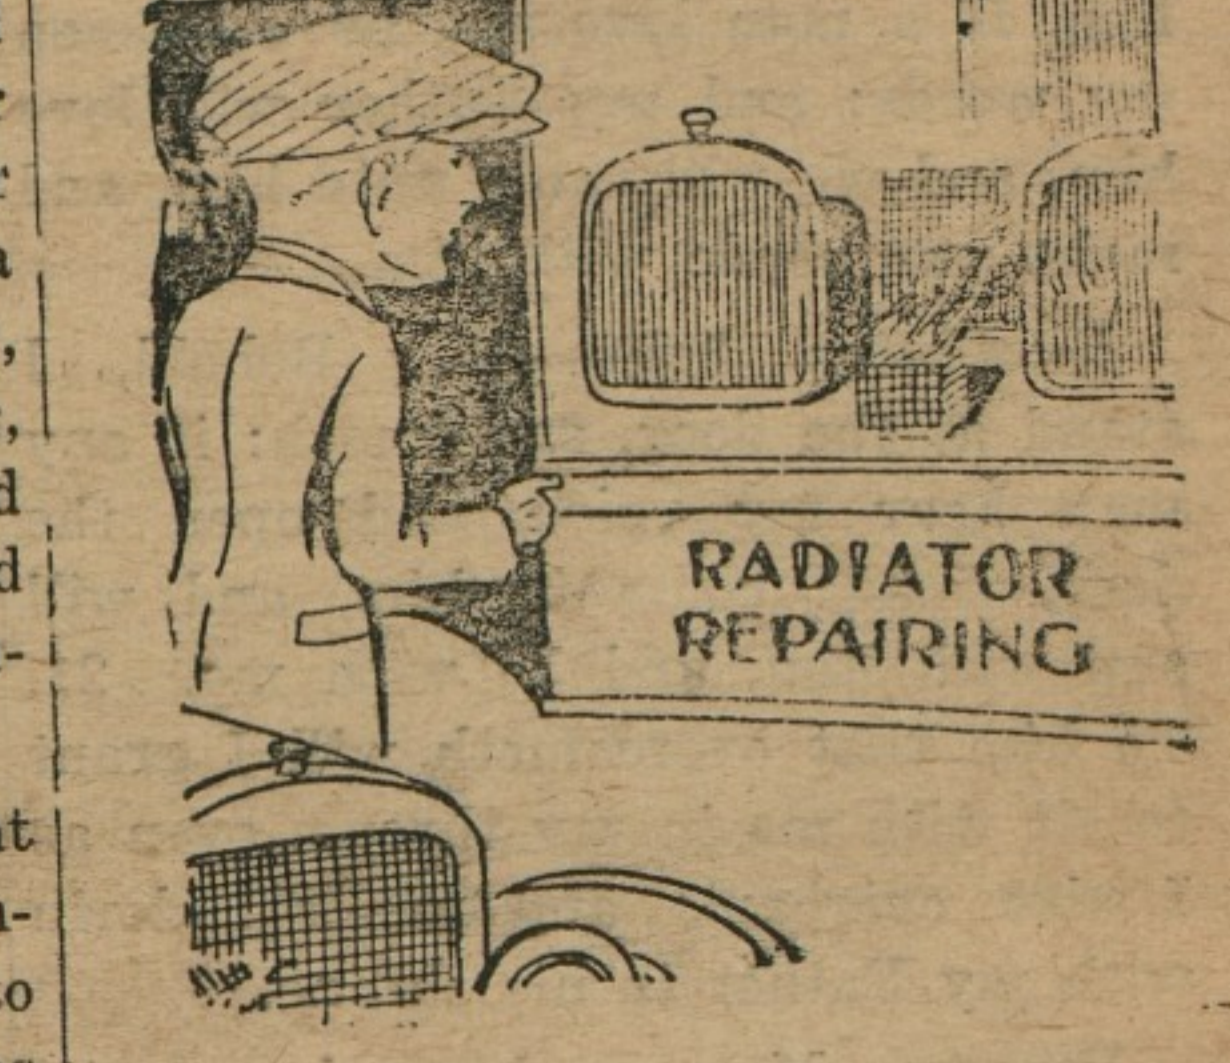

Col. J. Leonard was brought home from a sanatorium at Scranton, Pa., last Wednesday, coming to Philadelphia by train where he was met by the Kent county ambulance and conveyed to his home near here.
