Washington, D. C. has a clever girl aviator. Washington women can do everything that anybody else does—except vote.

In several lands it has been decided that a dictator, once regarded with apprehension, is more to be welcomed than feared.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF

Its an old saying that "history repeats itself" but nevertheless it is a true one. Dr. Sewell S. Hepburn calls our attention to the summer of 1808 as reported in "Emerson's History of the 19th Century." It says, "Every ship was withdrawn from the sea and merchants closed their doors. American products sank in value. Wheat dropped from $2 to 75 cents a bushel. Other produce became unsalable, such as cotton, tobacco, rice and timber. Artisans ceased working, laborers dropped their tools and wages stopped. Every imported article rose in price. Thousands of sailors being idle around the wharves. A British traveler, Lambert, visiting New York in 1808, sent home this description: "The port, indeed, was full of shipping, but they were dismantled and laid up. Their decks were cleared, their hatches fastened down, and scarcely a sailor was to be found on board. Not a box, bale, cask, barrel or package was to be seen upon the wharves. Many of the country houses were shut up or advertised to be let, and the few solitary merchants, clerks, porters, and laborers that were to be seen were walking about with their hands in their pockets. The coffee houses were almost empty. The streets near the waterside were all but deserted. The grass had begun to grow upon the wharves." In the South the effects of the embargo were felt the worst. Tobacco, rice and cotton were almost worthless, yet 400,000 negro slaves had to be supported. Jefferson's our State, Virginia, sunk into stagnation. The President's private family fortune was involved in the general sum."

Major Broening, party standard bearer; John W. Garrett, United States Ambassador at Rome, and John T. Donohue, City Collector and manager of the Bureau of Receipts, each contributed $2,500 to the Republican cause. John L. Robertson gave $2,000. Most of the money for the Democrats was expended by the Maryland Democratic advisory campaign committee. According to a report made by William J. Casey, treasurer, the group collected $106,052.40 and has spent $113,056.72. The Democratic State Central Committee spent the other sums. Philander B. Briscoe, treasurer, reported that the group collected $40,534.20 including $23,380 donated by the advisory committee and paid out $39,487.12, leaving a surplus of $1,047.08 in the treasury. John Reardon, political agent for Governor Ritchie, filed a report showing he had not collected any contributions or expended any money. He explained later that all personal donations for the Governor were turned over to the major campaign unit.

ELECTION COSTS DEM. $129,163

The general expenses of the Democratic party in the gubernatorial election amounted to $129,163.84, exceeding the sum of expended for the same purpose by the Republican party by $48,781.12, reports filed in Circuit Court Monday revealed. The Republican expenditure totaled $80,382.72. The Democrats received contributions of $123,206.60, and face a deficit of $7,004.32 and outstanding debts amounting to $5,600. Republican contributions totaled $80,463.09, and exceeded the sum expended by $80.37. With the exception of money spent exclusively for the standard bearers of the respective parties, the figures do not include funds expended on behalf of an individual candidate.

The largest contributions to the Democrats were made by John M. Dennis, State Treasurer, $5,000; the State-wide candidates, each of whom gave $2,700, the maximum under the election laws, and Graham Boyce, J. Enos Ray, Howard Bruce, Frank A. Furst and E. Brooke Lee, each of whom donated $2,500.

Mayor Broening, party standard bearer; John W. Garrett, United States Ambassador at Rome, and John T. Donohue, City Collector and manager of the Bureau of Receipts, each contributed $2,500 to the Republican cause.

Washington College Scores on St. Mary's

Out-playing Washington College football team, Mount St. Mary's defeated the Eastern Shoremen in Emmitsburg Saturday afternoon by a 45-to-6 score. Sweeping end runs and long forward passes were the principal assets in Mount St. Mary's attack, the visitors offering a very weak defense to check these two styles of play.

The Mountaineers started scoring in the first session on a brilliant end run by Fattia, Connell failed to make the extra point. The local collegians put over three touchdowns in the second period by a series of long end runs coupled with some very clever forward passing.

While there were several thrilling plays during the game, especially by the aerial route, it was left to Hopkins, a wing man for the Fountain team, to bring the crowd to its feet. The Washington College score came in the middle of the fourth period with a well-executed forward pass. Reinhold to Robinson, who after snatching the ball from the air got away for a 25-yard run for a touchdown.

The first man to make a nonstop flight round the world probably will be killed by the crowd that greets him when he lands.

C. W. KIBLER & SONS

Chestertown, Md.

S. Scott Beck, Solicitor. ORDER OF PUBLICATION

S. Scott Beck, Assessor, Herman B. Massey et al In the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity, No. 2582.

The object of the Petition filed in the above entitled case is for a construction of Item 5 of the Will of C. H. B. Massey deceased.

The Petition states: 1. That an examination of the title to the property conveyed by the said mortgage and attempted to be sold by said S. Scott Beck, Assessor, disclosed the fact that said property was devised to the said Herman B. Massey by the last Will and Testament of his late father, C. H. B. Massey, said Will being dated December 15, 1889, duly admitted to probate by the Orphans' Court for Kent County and recorded in the Office of the Register of Wills for Kent County in Wills Liberated, S. No. 1, folio 103, etc. a certified copy of which Will is filed herewith and prayed to be taken as a part hereof and marked "Petitioner's Exhibit No. 1," and the devise of said farm being in the following language:

"Item 5. I give and devise to my son, Herman B. Massey and his heirs, not to farm, and the woods to the left of the woods road, leading from the said farm to the public road that runs from Massey to Galena, and to the right of the last mentioned road, extending in the direction of Galena."

Your Petition shows that exceptions were heretofore filed by the said Herman B. Massey and Maria F. Massey, his wife, to the said last Will and Testament of the said C. H. B. Massey, namely: whether the devise thereunder was an absolute, unconditional one or whether said devise was in reality one for life only, could not, in that particular proceeding, be properly passed upon by the Court for the reason that the said exceptions were estopped from denying the title to the property by the mortgages conveyed.

Your Petitioner avers that the said Herman B. Massey and Maria F. Massey, his wife, have one child, namely: A. Herman Massey, who is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and who resides in the State of California, and in order to properly determine in this proceeding the nature of the devise under the said last Will and Testament of the said C. H. B. Massey, it will be necessary to make the said A. Herman Massey a party to this proceeding and notify him of the nature of the same by Order of Publication.

Your Petitioner alleges that he is perfectly willing to comply with the terms of said last Will and Testament, and pay the purchase money therefor provided he is assured that he will receive a fee simple title to the property, otherwise, he objects to the said last Will and Testament.

It is thereupon, this 21st day of November, 1930, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Petitioner, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 22nd day of December next, give notice to the said A. Herman Massey, non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor on or before the 5th day of January next to show cause, if any he has, why an order ought not to be passed as prayed.

MERRY CHRISTMAS 1930 HEALTH TO ALL 1930 CHRISTMAS SEAL

This is the 1930 Christmas seal. Santa Claus has given it his official approval by uplifting his head to emphasize the holiday greeting, "Merry Christmas—Health to All."

Everybody buys Christmas seals which raise the money to fight tuberculosis, but few know that the original seal designed by Howard Pyle in 1907 is now treasured by stamp collectors and has a value of $5.00—5000 per cent. of the original cost of one cent.

This is the twenty-fourth seal sale. Practically all the returns are used in the community where the money is raised. Some of it goes for national purposes, such, for example, as the work of the national committee on medical research, which is conducting extensive laboratory experiments on the nature of the disease process known as tuberculosis.

Tourist business in some resort centers is said to be off, with thousands of blankets not being slept under every night.

Touzalini—I hear that Dr. Cheatem isn't going to take any more vacations.

Fozzello—No, after he got back from his vacation this summer almost all his patients were well.

Tularemia occurs principally among wild rabbits. It has not been found in rabbits raised in rabbitries. Thorough cooking of the meat destroys the germ. Thoroughly cooked rabbit is accordingly harmless.

Wilbert E. Downes, aged 32, of "Oglethorpe Farm, near Roseville, is in Emergency Hospital, Easton, where he was rushed after having been accidentally shot through the calf of the right leg while gunning near his home. The load from a fellow hunter's gun so badly mangled the limb that it was found necessary on reaching the hospital to have it amputated.

Downes was the first gunning victim of the rabbit season in Queen Anne's county. He resides on the "Oglethorpe Farm" owned by Dr. Laura E. Reading, of Tampa, Fla.
