IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving memory of my husband who left us two weeks ago to day.

A wonderful sweet heart husband and aid;

One who was better God never made; A wonderful pal, so loyal and true; One in a million that sweetheart was you.

Just in your judgment always upright;

Loved by his friends and all whom you knew;

My wonderful sweetheart and that sweetheart was you.

When evening shades are falling and we are all alone,

There comes, a sad and loving feeling, Daddy if you only could come home.

Always so cheerful, loving and kind; The sweetheart memories you left behind.

May God have mercy on his soul. No one knows my longing,

But few have seen me weep; I shed my tears with an aching heart,

When others are fast asleep; I often sit and think of you when I'm all alone.

For memory is the only friend that grief can call its own.

Nothing can ever take away. The love a heart holds dear;

Fond memories linger every way, remembrance keep you near.

Your smiling face and pleasant ways Are a pleasure to recall;

You had a kind word for each, And died beloved by all.

Some day we hope to meet you, Some day we know not when.

To clasp your hand in a better land, never to part again.

Although we cannot hear your voice, Your face we can not see,

But let this little token show, We still remember thee.

Always thinking of you Harry, thinking of the past,

Picturing you in memory just as we saw you last.

You left behind all aching hearts, Who loved you more sincere,

Who never did, and never will, forget you Harry, dear.

Sadly missed and beloved by your wife and son,

Winnie and Clarence O'Neal.

In sad and loving memory of my darling baby and brother, Edward O'Neal, who left us two years ago to day.

Our lips cannot tell how we miss him, Our hearts cannot tell what to say,

God alone knows how we miss him; In a home that is loneliness today.

Sadly missed by your mother and brother, Mrs. Winnie O'Neal and Clarence.
