MOTHER AND SON DIE OF PNEUMONIA

The Daily Reporter of White Plains, N. Y., Saturday, January 24th, gives the following account of the sad demise of a grand-son of the late Dr. Wm. H. Jacobs, of Millington, and Mrs. Mary E. Jacobs:

William Henry Jacobs, Jr., three and a half years old, only son of William Henry Jacobs, prominent attorney and a director of the Chamber of Commerce, died of pneumonia at Mr. Jacobs' home, 95 Overbrook road, at 7:50 o'clock this morning, 32 hours after his mother, Mrs. Adelaide Heath Jacobs, died of the same illness, contracted while nursing him.

With the child's death, Mr. Jacobs' entire family has been taken in the present epidemic. Mother and son will be buried together following funeral services from the home of Mrs. Jacobs' mother, Mrs. Eleanor Heath Moran at 32 Hamilton Avenue, Ossining, at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Walter H. Gilpatrick, president of the Chamber of Commerce, has asked all directors of the Chamber to be present at the funeral services. The Rev. Benjamin Everitt, assistant pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Ossining, will officiate. Burial will be in the Dale Cemetery, Ossining.

Mrs. Moran has been confined to her bed with a broken leg, suffered when she fell on an icy walk a little more than a week ago, but she will attempt to attend the funeral of her daughter, and grandson. Mrs. Jacobs' mother, Mrs. Mary E. Jacobs, has been ill with heart trouble during the past month, but it was said today that she has recovered sufficiently to attend the services.

Mrs. Jacobs' son contracted grippe a week ago Wednesday. Mrs. Jacobs nursed him for the first few days and a week ago Friday, she was taken ill. Both cases developed into double lobar pneumonia but the disease developed more quickly with Mrs. Jacobs. Just before she lapsed into unconsciousness she asked about the condition of her son and was told that he was much better and that he was out of danger.

She died shortly before midnight on Thursday and her son followed her a little before 8 o'clock this morning. The boy was born at the White Plains Hospital, where his mother died, on June 27, 1927.

COLLEGE FLAPPER LOCAL PEOPLE

On next Monday and Tuesday nights the modern comedy, "The College Flapper" will be staged at Old Lyceum Theatre under the auspices of Triangle Club. It promises to be one of the biggest events ever staged in this community, and includes a cast of over 150 local people. It is a modern, up-to-date college comedy with a thrilling football story. Everyone who has seen the show claims no one can afford to miss it.

Another big feature of the show is the "Curtain Raisers" entitled "The Baby Pageant" in which over 100 children between the ages of five and seven will take part. The special dramatic reader is Lorraine Williams. She gives the reading and the children furnish a very effective background by providing some of the lines and playing parts in pantomime. The Baby Pageant is something new in entertainment and exceptionally good.

In addition to this there is the girls' chorus of 30 high school girls, all costumed in special costumes to make the show very pretty and effective. The Milkmaid Chorus in special bright colored costumes, the Collegiate Chorus, and the Sailor Breezing Along Chorus are some of the features by the girls, all specially costumed.

A full list of all the characters will be found in an adv. in this issue of this paper. Look them over. Tickets for reserved seats will be for sale at Stam's on Saturday, January 31.

Miss Louise B. Russell is to be the pianist at the Big College Flapper show next week.

CARD OF APPRECIATION

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Needles hereby desire to give public expression of their grateful appreciation of the many manifestations of sympathy and kindness they have received in the hour of their great bereavement in the death of their beloved son, Walter. It has helped to bear the sorrows.

TOO MUCH MILK BRINGS PRICES DOWN

Another cut in price of milk is on the list for farmers of this Peninsula. This is caused by the great slump in use of milk in cities and big amount being carried to cooling stations by farmers.

The impression prevails that farmers will be asked to cut out one day per week in their shipments.

Under the new agreement, each producer will be paid for 95 per cent of his established basic quantity. The remainder of his milk will be paid for at surplus price.

MRS. HUBBARD SPEAKS

At a meeting of the Woman's National Democratic Club in Washington Colonel Arthur Woods, chairman of the National Unemployment Commission was the speaker at a forum luncheon of the club. Colonel Woods spoke on the unemployment situation throughout the country.

Following Colonel Woods' address Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, president of the club called on Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard, of Chestertown, a member of the club, to read a paper which she had prepared on the national unemployment situation. Senator Thomas J. Walsh, of Montana, who was a guest at the luncheon, was so impressed with the paper that he had it read in the United States Senate and the paper was published in the Congressional Record in the issue of Saturday, January 17.

The feature of Mrs. Hubbard's paper was a plea that the Government and its agencies shall pool their efforts and provide employment for the five millions of men now out of work by planting trees throughout the country roadsides under Government supervision, which will provide the farmers of the country as well as all other unemployed an opportunity to earn a living during the period of depression. Mrs. Hubbard also suggested that the Government purchase twenty million bushels of wheat now held by the National Farm Board to be converted into food for the vast army of the unemployed while the campaign of tree planting is in progress, as a means of consuming a part of the grain surplus in the country.

McVeann, County Agent, who is Secretary of the Kent County Drought Relief Committee. More details will be published next week.

Attention, Associate Members

The response to statements sent to associate members of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company by the secretary of the organization, Clarence Newcomb, during the past week regarding annual dues has been gratifying. It is the desire of the officials of the association that all renewals of dues from the one hundred and thirty members of the association shall be in the hands of the treasurer, J. Samuel Kreeger, before the annual banquet of the Fire Company which will be held April 7th. We shall therefore be very grateful if those who have not yet paid their dues will remit same to Mr. Kreeger at your earliest convenience. If there are others who would like to become members during 1931, and there should be many, application blanks may be secured from either the secretary of the Fire Company, Lawrence G. Brown, or Mr. Newcomb, or Mr. Kreeger. Annual dues are $3.00 which will assist materially in aiding the Fire Company to meet its current obligations.

T. D. BOWERS, President.

SYNDICATE PLANS SUMMER RESORT

Chestertown lawyers are completing negotiations for a real estate transaction in Berteton, Kent's upper Chesapeake Bay Summer resort, which will involve the outlay of more than a million and a half dollars. During the week representatives of a syndicate of Baltimore and Philadelphia capitalists have been in consultation with attorneys of Berteton property owners involved in the transaction and the necessary incorporation papers have been secured in Delaware by the syndicate which will purchase and improve the properties.

According to a prospectus of the corporation properties in the resort included in the deal are, the Chesapeake House, owned by John S. Owens, Howard Turner's amusement pier, and 225 acres of the Royal Swan Club property bordering on the Sassafras river.

According to the plans of corporation officials the Chesapeake House will be razed to provide room for an attractive beach promenade and amusement building. Turner's pier and lumber yard and the Tolchester pier will give way to a beautiful bathing beach and waterfront. Commodious hotels will be erected both in Berteton and on the Royal Swan Club property, and one of the largest yacht basins on the Atlantic seaboard which was in operation last Summer and which is included in the deal, will be greatly enlarged if plans, as outlined by the new corporation, are realized. Berteton will become one of the most prominent Summer resorts in the East within the next year.

The officers of the corporation who are negotiating the transfer with Chestertown attorneys are: William H. Sharp, of Philadelphia, president and general manager, John J. Ellis Philadelphia, vice-president and assistant business manager, C. Pierce Taylor, Bryn Mawr, Pa., secretary and Horace K. Read, Baltimore treasurer.

It is said that the entire holdings of the Royal Swan Club, which was organized seven years ago by Howard Van Sciver, retired Philadelphia capitalist and a number of wealthy residents of Wilmington, Philadelphia and Baltimore, will be absorbed by the new concern.

Local members of the Old Kent Chapter, D. A. R., and of the recently organized Millington Chapter, are preparing to take an active part in the proceedings of the annual conference of the State Chapter to be held in Baltimore in March, where the president-general and her staff will be entertained.

A smoker was given by members of the Chester River Yacht and Country Club in the club house on Chester river Friday. A feature of the program was the showing of motion pictures which depicted scenes taken during the club's annual regatta held on Chester river last August. The pictures were shown through the courtesy of Mrs. W. Dorsey Hines and Mrs. Robert D. Wilson, members of the club.

COMING TO NEW LYCEUM

"Tolable David," the all-talking version of Joseph Hergesheimer's famous novel, is scheduled to come to the New Lyceum on Monday and Tuesday, February 2 and 3.

An imposing cast of screen celebrities was assembled by Columbia Pictures, the producers, to interpret the familiar characters of the novel. The title role is handled by Richard Cromwell. Others in the cast are Joan Peers, Noah Geery, Henry B. Wallthall and George Duryea. John G. Blystone, famous director, handled the production.

There is only one celebrity of screenland who has never appeared in talking pictures. He is Charlie Chaplin, and he has said that he never will appear in a talking movie. But the same can't be said for a young man who got his first chance in films with the great comedian of the suit-case size shoes.

Jackie Coogan, the kid of "The Kid," after appearances in 15 silent films, is to be heard for the first time on the talking screen.

Jackie plays the title role of "Tom Sawyer" at the New Lyceum Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, February 4 and 5. In addition to the regular evening shows there will be a special School Matinee on Thursday, February 5th at 3:30 P. M.

It is his first appearance in films talking or silent, for three years.

The new dramatic dialogue picture, "Her Man," which comes to the New Lyceum Theatre on Friday and Saturday, February 6 and 7, is said to be a thriller of the finest grade. The scenes are laid in a dance hall in Havana and the central character is a girl who is exploited by a scoundrel who terrorizes her. Helen Twelve trees is the girl and Ricardo Cortez, the menace.

R. Barnett has completed a modern home on Mt. Vernon avenue. It is completely built and wisely laid out. Walter Rawleigh was the builder.

He graduated at Washington College in 1924 and has many friends in Chestertown where his boyhood days were spent. The Philadelphia Chapter is one of the most active in the Washington alumni group.

NEW SITES FOR POST OFFICE

Postmaster Wm. G. Smyth has been commissioned by the Federal Public Buildings Commission to secure options on available locations for the erection of a new postoffice building in Chestertown. It is said that Postmaster Smyth has secured options on at least two of the most prominent locations in the center of the town. Because of the activity of the Government in asking for options on locations, it is believed that a new building may become a reality in Chestertown in the near future.

TO GIVE CONCERT

The Harvard Double Quartette has been obtained by Dr. Paul E. Titsworth to give its second recital in the Auditorium of William Smith Hall on Thursday evening February 12th, due to the many requests made by the lovers of good music in this vicinity. The quartette is recognized as the best of its kind in the country. The program given here by the organization two years ago was without the slightest reproach. The numbers varied to such a degree that all types of songs were included in the program. This diversity greatly enhanced the entertainment and every offering was met with great applause from the packed auditorium.

The performance is another of a series of feature musical entertainments that are being fostered by the College for the enjoyment of the lovers of good music.

The Washington College Glee Club, Prof. Raymond Kilpatrick, director, will entertain the double quartet of Harvard University here, February 12, when the visiting university singers will give a concert in Smith Hall.
