The Primaries To-day.

The Democratic primaries this afternoon place Mr. Atwell is a native. should be well attended. Delegates are to be chosen from each district to represent the people in making a ticket next Tuesday. It is not a matter for a few people to The Democratic masses will should prevail. There is no justification for animosity. Settle all differences in the spirit of fairness and good fellowship, never forgetting that we are all one political family. Nothing can please our enemies more than to see our ranks divided by personal feuds and bitter antagonisms. Let us disappoint them and do the best thing for ourselves by encouraging harmony and acting from higher motives than individual preference. Let us regard our grand old party first, individuals second, and all will be well
