ing ready for that September day battle, I was inside of his lines at least half dozen times, playing the spy in broad daylight and not seeming to be suspected by any one. Five days before the battle General Early had close figures on every branch of Sheridan's army. I got the total strength of the army within three hundred men, and every piece of artillery was correctly named and reported. Many of the Federal soldier's General Commission Merchants, particularly Ohio and Michigan troops, may call to mind the old Quaker who wandered about their camps for a week Fruit, Grain, Hay, Poultry, Eggs, Etc., inveighing against war, but hoping the blue-coats would win if a battle must be and your humble servant were one and the same and I hereby return my thanks for the kind treatment they extended me. We beg to present to the public both facilities for the care and handling of their fruit with promptness and dispatch. With extra wharf room in Baltimore and the receiving and protection of fruit received on the river, Large Covered Freight Seows will be placed at the landings where ample wharf room is made and an agent to receive same. Buyers have made arrangements to be upon each route to purchase fruit, and arrangements have been made with the railroads in Baltimore for reshipments of fruit to the different markets.
