SENATOR GIBSON, according to the Baltimore Sun's Washington letter, is delighted ability and the practical knowledge essenwith the ticket. He is pleased at the nomination of Cleveland and even more so with Stephenson, who is his particular personal friend. The Senator will be in the front of the battle.

If the nauseous basin nuisance in Baltimore is not corrected it will not be the fault of the newspapers. They are doing their best to save the city from the terrible Whitney, or any other proper man in pestilence which seems imminent. There is certainly some remedy and it should be promptly applied.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has appointed Hon. John W. Foster, of Indiana, Secretary of State, to succeed Mr. Blaine, and the Senate promptly confirmed it. The appointment is received with general satisfaction. It is expected to strengthen the President's chances in his own State in the coming
