WE are glad to learn of the rapid recovery of Mrs. Governor Brown, who suffered seriously from sunstroke in Baltimore last week. She had just returned from a trip with the Governor over some land on Buck Neck lane in the third of the oyster grounds and no doubt found the contrast between the waters of the Chesapeake and the streets of the city too much for her.

THE New York World of last Wednesday savs: "The Democracy of the nation may well contemplate this list of names of the men selected by Chairman Harrity to manage the Democatic National canvass: Calvin S.
