

FOR PRESIDENT: GROVER CLEVELAND, Of New York.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT: ADLAI E. STEVENSON, Of Illinois. FOR THE 52D CONGRESS :

FOR THE 53D CONGRESS; ROBERT F. BRATTAN, Of Somerset.

JOHN B. BROWN,

Of Queen Anne's.

This is the result of the First District

Democratic Congressional Convention: JOHN B. Brown, of Queen Anne's, for the unexpired term. ROBERT F. BRATTAN, of Somerset, for the full term in the 53d Congress. This ticket will be invincible. It is a credit to the Democracy of this district. Both men have every requisite for the high stations they will be certainly called to fill. They have experience and character in public life, excelled only by the purity of their private life; they have ability of the highest standard, and are fully in touch with the Democracy on all the great questions before the people. They are energetic and fearless, and added to all this are popular with all classes of the people because of their rare qualities of head, heart and hand. We group the two nominees together in this way because of their similar excellences of character. We have known them both long and well and speak from personal familiarty with them, and not from report. John B. Brown is all that could be desired by the Democracy or the people at large, to take the place vacated by the distinguished PAGE, and ROBERT F. BRATTAN will adorn the seat in the ensuing

The ticket is now complete—with CLEVE-LAND and STEVENSON, BROWN and BRATTAN the Democracy of this Congressional district will roll up an unprecedented majority.

Elsewhere we give proceedings of the congressional convention at Easton. It was one of the most exciting and interesting ever held on the Shore, yet the very best feeling prevailed.
