THE newly appointed Federal officials are expected to take their places on or about the 15th instant.

Col. C. Ridgeley Goodwin, the surveyor of the Port, called on Surveyor Burchinal on Tuesday at the Custom-house for a his visitor kindly and they talked over matters for some time. Mr. Goodwin's visit was, it is understood, in response to an invitation from Captain Burchinal.

Dr. Shaw, as Collector of the Port, succeeding Mr. Wm. M. Marine, will be expected to give offices to all "the faithful. Kent will have about fifty applicants for places under the Collector alone, and the L. Lewis, Misses Lilly Willis, Clara Usil-Lord only knows how many for other departments!

Kent is certainly entitled to consideration in the division of the good things which seems near at hand. She has received nothing whatever yet as a fruit of the change of the national administration, outside a few local postoffices, and one internal revenue place.

Ex-Senator Wm. T. Hepbron went to Washington this week to look after the D. J. Nowland, Esq., of Kent, and otherwise strongly backed for the place. The indications are, however, that the marshalship will go to the Western Shore, and that Col. Buchanan Schley will get it.
