THE Delaware Legislature met Wednesday, but the only work done was to elect the officers who had been nominated at the caucusses on the night before, listen to the governor's message and adjourn until next Monday morning. Senator Higgins' friends were successful in preliminary cau cus, but Addicks is said to be yet hopefu by the free use of his money to win the Senatorship. A funny story is told of the house members. It is said that every member of the dominant party was a candidate for Speaker! By a singular coincidence the clerk of the House is named Hastings, and so is the clerk of the Senate Both were dark horses and both are from Sussex county.

NEXT TUE:DAY is the date fixed by the County Commissioners as the time limit for awarding contracts to work the public roads of the county. This is a matter o vital concern to the tax-payers of the county and they will criticise the action of the most faithful officials as never before because of the urgent need for economy in the public expenditures.
