MODERN GOLD BRICKS A man in this day who would buy a "gold brick" would be counted incapable of managing his own affairs. There was a day when the "gold brick" was the favorite implement of the financial crook who prepared his "victim" for the "sale" with stories of high finance.

There are no "gold bricks" being sold today, but the business of marketing securities that are worth little or nothing is growing annually, the American Bankers' association convention at Houston, Texas, was told, Americans pay a billion dollars a year for worthless securities, according to this authority.

Crooks continue to prey on the human desire to grow rich quick. They promise impossible returns on investments. The majority of the people who are victimized realize afterwards that with a little careful analysis of the proposition, they could have seen its weak points. But they do not take time for sober thinking, being lured on by greed.

The question now arises—will we all love the weather man as much a month hence as we do now?

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

"Public utility companies will spend $28,000,000 for advertising this year." Here, in this news item, is food for thought. It makes one wonder if there are still reactionaries who insist that advertising is useless and a waste of investors' money.

Statistics on the strides that advertising expenditure is making, advertising and publicity have grown to proportions where they are among the greatest forces known for furthering progress and forwardness. The recent unprecedented growth of the public utilities are directly traceable, in a large degree, to the effect of wide and intelligent advertising.

Far from being a waste of investors' money it is a safeguard in that if the company or product advertised is honest and worth-while, that company's business or sales will increase in direct proportion to the amount of advertising.

Progressive business is learning that the only thing better for business than extensive advertising, is more extensive advertising plus a good product or service.

It matters little how hard the hit and run motorist steps on the gas, he can't get away from his own conscience.

WHERE FIRES START

It may astonish the housekeepers of this country to learn that most fires start in kitchens. The loss and damage to homes in insured city dwellings amount to about $65,000,000 a year, a very large percentage being preventable. About 15,000 persons are burned to death each year in the United States, a majority of the victims being women and children.

An educational leaflet issued by the National Board of Fire Underwriters observes that the numerous fatalities due to carelessness in handling of matches, gas, kerosene, gasoline, electrical attachments and numerous other articles, make it astonishing that any sensible woman would use kerosene or gasoline to accelerate a sluggish fire.

Mayor Thompson of Chicago, is making a campaign against British influence in American histories used in the schools, but hasn't arranged any Lake Michigan tea party yet.

GOVERNMENT BY LAW

The Constitution of the United States was drawn and perfected by the ablest body of men ever assembled to launch and establish a Government to be ruled by law.

Three departments were created—one makes the laws, another carries out the laws, and a third interprets the laws. Officials are chosen to enforce the laws.

The first article in the constitution creates the Legislation department—much the longest article, occupying more than one-third of the entire document.

Every department acts upon laws, administers laws and is governed and controlled by laws. Very few individual rights or property values have any existence outside of laws creating them.

Our government is essentially created to obviate and nullify the practice and effects of Communism, Bolshevism and anarchy in its operation.

A Berlin man says he has invented a talking machine with the volume of a regimental band. Doubtless they will be very popular with neighbors when played early on Sunday mornings.

The fellow who refuses to take no for an answer may be greatly admired, but he is a terrible pest to have around.

"Lives Of Great Men" At last, after years of work, the Perfect Politician has been produced in the person of Big Bill Thompson, of Chicago.

Of those who haven't a newspaper training it might be well to define a Perfect Politician. A Perfect Politician is one who looks every issue fairly and squarely in the face—and then turns resolutely away. Of course Big Bill had rivals for this high honor. Our own Governor Ritchie, with eyes glued upon the White House, is trying to make the voters forget which side of the Prohibition fence he is on; Al Smith is right on his heels with the same idea in mind; even President Coolidge is sometimes irrelevant.

But Bill Bill has them all blotted. According to one of his former political cronies his qualifications may be described as follows: "If you ask him to state his position on the alliance between crime and politics, you may expect to hear him say, 'I am for America First.' Ask him about his abandonment of people's ownership of the traction lines and the five cent fare and he will answer, if at all, by crying, 'Down with the League of Nations.' Ask Thompson why he turned his back on the small land owners and has lined up with the millionaire tax dodger, whom he at one time denounced, his only answer will be, 'I refuse to sing God Save the King.'"

Perfect—why Bill is years ahead of any of the others.

Imagine being chosen as America's "Average Man." That was the fate of Roy L. Gray, of Fort Madison, Iowa, and he was named such by the American Magazine after a careful survey.

Gray was chosen because he earns an average income; conducts a one man tailor shop and clothing store in the average small town; belongs to Church and the Rotary Club; has an average education and an average family.

But what a fate to be singled out as the "Average Man" in a country of average men.

Disregarding the scientific data proving that no such thing as an average exists, let's see what it means to be the "average." In the first place the average man must have some vice, probably more than one. The American Magazine, in American style, neglects to name the average vice.

The American Magazine article throughout suggests that Gray should feel honored that he was selected and that he really is. Still I wonder if the Editor of the American Magazine would care to have his publication referred to as an average Magazine.

Average weather, average wheat and average eggs are not exciting. But man, even when carefully inspected, does not fit in a crate.

Yes, it seems likely that the American Magazine has done Mr. Gray a great injustice. The interviewer did not penetrate deep enough. Surely, Mr. Gray has somewhere, maybe hidden away but has just the same, a birthmark, a secret or possibly some peculiar virtue as well as vice.

James A. Farrel, now 60, who is predicted will step to the place vacated through the death of Elbert Gary, as Chairman of the Board of the U. S. Steel Corporation. Mr. Farrel for many years has been operating head of the organization.

EDITH E. DASHLER vs. WALTER DASHLER IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR KENT COUNTY

IN EQUITY NO. 2488 The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a Decree for divorce a vinculo matrimonii for the Plaintiff and against the Defendant.

The Bill states: 1. That on the 15th day of November, 1916, Edith E. Dashler was married to her husband, Walter Dashler, with whom she resided in Harford County, Maryland, until the 21st day of May, 1919.

2. That, through the conduct of your Oratrix towards her husband, the said Walter Dashler, has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Walter Dashler has, without any just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted her, and has declared his intention to live with her no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

3. That your Oratrix and the said Defendant, Walter Dashler, have had two children born to them as a result of the aforesaid marriage.—Elinor Dashler, now eleven years of age, and Hayward Dashler, nine years of age, and both of the aforesaid children are at the present time living with your Oratrix, who is providing for and caring for them.

4. That your Oratrix does not know anything concerning the whereabouts of her husband, the said Walter Dashler, but to the best of her information and belief is at present living in the State of Pennsylvania, and is a non-resident of the State of Maryland.

5. That your Oratrix is a resident of Kent County, Maryland, at the present time living in Rock Hall, where she moved after the aforesaid abandonment of her husband.

It is thereupon, this 31st day of October 1927, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 1st day of December next, give notice to the said Walter Dashler, non-resident Defendant, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 16th day of December next, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Personally we vote for pumpkin pie as the greatest fall delicacy. What do you vote for?

They claim this actually happened here in Chestertown but we doubt it. A young man bought an ice cream cone, walked outside to eat it, then brought the cone back to the fountain. Handing it to the clerk, he says, "Much obliged for the vase."

It was Smith's first Sunday as usher in the church. Naturally he was a bit fussed. Turning to a lady who entered the door, he said, "Just step this way and I'll sew you in to a sheet."
