

The lower grades of the Elementary School have been taught a kinlows: "The squirrel loves a pleasant chase, Tra, la, la, la, la, la, To catch him you must run a race, Tra, la, la, To la, la, 'etc. Our youngest was much impressed but a bit puzzled, this is how she got it: "The squirrel loves a pleasant chase, Tra, la, la, la, la, la, To catch a mule and run a race, Hearing of the test case to deter-who named her doll "Eewie." She re- one-tenth of their shells or the equivfused for months to tell where she alent in money is constitutional be- Washington College last year by recgot the name and finally confessed gan before Judge Albert S. J. Owens, ommending such to the Governor. it was from her favorite Sunday in the City Court of Baltimore yes-School song, "Golden Harps are terday. Counsel for the packers ar-Sounding" and she liked "Joyful gued that the measure was confisca-Eewie" which on investigation we tory of private property and counsel found she had concocted out of the for the State Conservation Departchorus: "Golden harps are sounding, ment contended that the ten per cent joyfully we sing."

The price of shoes is going up. In fact nothing seems to be coming Appeals after a decision is given in down except airplanes.

Our community tree is a terrible advertisement for the community. journed at 5 P. M., to be continued People passing through may say "If the town is as dead as that, let's try the next place." Instead of an ever- Judge Owens said, "and plenty of The Thirty-Seventh Annual Congreen it is a nevergreen.

when he was about to kick off he the measure for the State. scratched the first piece of philoso- Following a protest from the Tri- two days. phy on the wall of his cave: "One State Packers' Association, this test On Wednesday morning, Oct. 19, College Athletic field. The total a- 2:10 P. M.—Recently developed thinty five to foot of the washington of but one man can make a fool of six ard Company, oyster packers, of Tuesday Morning, October 25th a matter of fact, a man can make six mandamus requiring Mr. Earle to Clark. critters are conceited.

In the screen presentation of Robin Hood we wondered what Richard Plug Cut or Wrigley's Double Spearmine were in vogue in those early days so what could it have been.

part of the time in Canada. They heard so much about the marvelous Canadian beer that they sampled it but declared it tasted like an awful mixture of ginger ale and lubricating oil and had no more kick than a dead College out pulled the Freshmen in 4:00-Adjournment. catfish. Describing a severe storm a tug-of-war battle on Monday afterdinner, nine brave souls went to the Mill here. dinning room but all departed before being served. The waitresses were between the two classes and is sup- Harvey W. Ewing, D. D. all sick, the deck hands son joined in the festivities and a bad time was had school. brail. The ship lurched so violently that more than $1,000 worth of two pairs of eyes glared at each oth- erintendent. china was broken in the dinning room er and thirty two pairs of arms and 9:'0—Devotions, Rev. W. L. Mc- lins for State. and kitchen, 69 quarts of strawberry legs began to work. The Freshmen Clintock. jam were smashed, the barber chair broke off at the base, the steamer thither, mostly thither." Now may- chose the best side of the stream. Treasurer. be that Canadian beer didn't have any kick to it, it may have been all

The old Ford is getting a new title reaching waist high. "The Friendly Ford," it has such an The tug-of-war was the first of A. S. Woodard, D. D. open-face hospitable look that everybody hails it as we go along and ev- tween the two classes. Earlier in come to use it as a public taxi, free in base ball. service, until it is holding twice as many as it is supposed to.

me a great many bright and shining waged the annual poster fight. faces." Just then eighty-seven powder puffs were put into action.

they ask in The Grand Street Folli- ville Athletic Club, last night, drew es "Why does Henry at last make a a large number of fans from Chestergood car and call it the "Lincoln?" town and Kent County. Because Lincoln said you can't fool There is talk of organizing a box- dress, "The Making of a Life" by all the people all the time!"

According to the SUN a man beat Pond and drew sizable crowds. his wife with his wooden leg which In the past few weeks there have was the first she had known of the been several clubs come into exist- E. Jones, Middletown, Del. artificial limb. We wonder if he will ence in Quen Anne's and Caroline be put on trial for carrying a con- counties. cealed weapon. Seems as though her head must have been as wooden as his leg.

About one of the best sermons ever preached is contained in Bobby Burn's four lines-he mentions a particular sin but it may apply to any and all:

"I waive the quantum of the sin, The hazard of concealing; But Och! it hardens all within.

"Papa, where do they make these. ukes?" "Know your geography, my boy. In Yukon, of course."

Judge Owens Tomorrow

Which reminds us of a little child ing oyster packers to give the State clause was merely an additional lic-

the City Court, it is understood. sides was heard by Judge Owens yesterday before the hearing was ad-at 11:30 A. M. tomorrow. "This is a most unusual case," arguments of both sides."

The Mock Turtle wrote treatise Clavin V. Trice, of Cambridge, and Episcopal Church, was held on Tues- in slang as to why men are polyga- William L. Rawls are counsel for the day and Wednesday of this week at Court Continues The Mock Turtle wrote treatise | Clavin V. Trice, of Cambridge, and Episcopal Church, was held on Tuesmous if they are. It describes a Tri-State Packers' Association, which Still Pond. Reverend C. W. Clark, cave man of the Dark Ages, his recently questioned the constitu- is the minister at the Still Pond courting etc., winning his mate and tionality of the law. Robert H. church. then the way she begins to put things Archer, Assistant Attorney-General, A large number of the members over on him until he finally rebels and and H. H. Johnson, chief clerk of the Epworth League from all ov- In our last week's edition we re- With each student at Washington starts night hunting and collects "a Conservation Department, who also er the district were present at the ported the court procedure from the College contributing the sum of Four neat little clandestine harem. Later is a member of the bar, are defending sessions which were held in the morn- date of convening up to and includ- Dollars and Fifty cents a drive has woman can make a fool of one man, case was initiated by the I. L. Leon- sion was as follows: women." The mathematics, re- Cambridge. The company filed a pe- 10:30—Devotions, Rev. C. W. marks the Turtle, is weak but the tition against Swepson Earle, Conser- Clark. idea is good if you can afford it." As vation Commissioner, for a writ of 11:00—Address of Welcome, Rev. | Case of James Thomas, charged with a number of years, When the footfools of six women, no wonder the grant it a license to do business. The Response by District President. right of the State to take the shells 11:30—Assignment of Homes. was denied in the application for the 12:00—Adjournment.

the Lion Hearted was supposed to be terday, are the private property of Appointment of Committees. but we harbored the idea that neither from them. This is in conflict with Address, Rev. E. W. Henvis. the Fourteenth Amendment of the Federal Constitution and the Maryland "Bill of Rights," he asserted.

One of our triends took an extended trip during the summer and spent Sophs Victors

The Sophomores of Washington E. B. Eckhard.

a series of three athletic contests be- 12:00—Adjournment.

on the gridiron. And the night af- Rev. W. G. Harris. A minister, in addressing a flock ter the football game, and until six 2:45—Music, District Male Quar- twenty-five true bills.

Boxing Draws Crowd

"After making Fords so long" The first fights held by the Centre-ing club in Chestertown. Last spring Rev. H. E. Woolever, D. D., Editor several contests were held at Still

TEN PAGES

Page One-General News Section Page Two-Business Weather

Page Three-Main Sports Section Page Four-More Sports

Page Five-Editorial and Features Page Six-Serial, "Blacksheep" Page Seven-

Social and Personal News Page Eight-"For the Woman Reader" Page Ten-

County Correspondence

OYSTER Sam Shannahan Speaks To Rotary Club Here

The Chestertown Rotary Club had as its guest and principal speaker ast Monday, Sam Shannahan, of Easton. Mr. Shannahan was the sponsor of the Chestertown Rotary Club when it was formed nearly two years ago. He was for two years the president of the Easton Rotary

Mr. Shannahan spoke to the Chesfertown Club about his duties chairman of the State Board of Ai and Charities.

It was Mr. Shannahan, who is ed tor of the Easton Star-Democrat, one time will be given to hear fully the vention of the Middletown District cedes November 1, known as the fes- held should be the result. Epworth League, of the Methodist Tuesday Afternoon The shells, Mr. Trice argued yes- 2:00—Devotions, Rev. D. J. Moore. lins for State.

Monday And Tuesday At M. E. Church

> Mixed Quartet. 2:45—Report of 2nd Vice Presi- with larceny, plead guilty, verdict lege on the map in athletics. dent, Miss M. Eleanor Maddox, fol- guilty and sentenced to twelve mon-D. D.; Duet "Resting In His Love" tion. S. R. Collins for State.

Ruth Everett. Still Pond Juniors; Address, Mrs. the in the Maryland House of Correc-with apparently the heaviest and 9:45-Report of 3rd Vice Presi- their work submitted their report most powerful team, were easy for dent, Mrs. Harvey B. Moore; Ad- which follows: chairs with people in them slid across the Sophs, who out pulled them from dress, Rev. R. P. Nichols, D. D.; Mus- To the Honorable Judges of the the decks while everything in the the start. This, too, in spite of the ic, District Male Quartet; Report on Circuit Court for Kent County, State staterooms was thrown hither and fact that the "rats" won the toss and Nominating Committee; Call of of Maryland.

Tuesday Evening

As the Sophs pulled steadily, first 10:30-Address by Rev. F. A. Maryland for Kent county having one, then two, and finally all sixteen Lindhorst, Director of Religious Ed- concluded its labors, most respectof the Freshmen were dragged thru ucation of Wilmington Conference. | fully begs leave to submit the folthe mill stream, with water and mud 11:00—Message, "Kind of a God lowing report: Young Folks Ought to Know," Rev. After organizing by selecting Jas.

Wednesday Afternoon

McGuire. son the two classes will meet again dent, Miss Viola Jones; Address, and seven witnesses, brought in tive under Mr. Mohr's experienced tive manner such as a general next.

Treasurer. 3:00-Address by Rev. Omar E. kept in a very cleanly manner. Jones, District Superintendent.

Supper" by District Supt. 4:15—Adjournment. Wednesday Evening Bradley; Music by Local Choir; Ad- hand. of "National Methodist Press."

The officers of the League are: Denton, Md. First Vice President, Rev. O. H.

Connelly, Townsend, Del. erine Meeks, Denton, Md. B. Moore, Betterton, Md.

Jones, Ridgely, Md. Sherwood, Md.

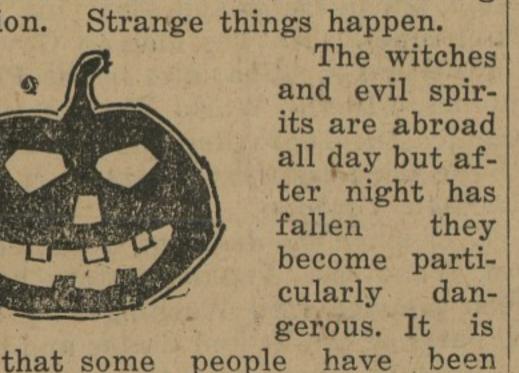

wood, Md. Junior League Superintendent, Mrs. Walter Crew, Betterton, Md. Assistant Junior League Superin- was argued. tendent, Miss Lena A. Lewis, Greens-

lam no banjo."

Ghosts And Spooks Will Walk At Will Here Monday

Many Parties Planned To Celebrate Hallowe'en; College Parade Big Feature

October 31, is the one day in all the prowl at will without fear of being molested by authorities. It is on this night that all the witches and mine whether the new statute requir- of the leading newspapers on the ghosts from the time of Adam and Eastern Shore, who secured the in- Eve and Lillith return and hold a big one's parlor and many other strange

'Tis Hallowe'en. evening of October 31, which pre- ial one of the largest bon-fires ever the meeting today.

You just have to watch your step | tival of All Saints. November 1, All | to Friday. The college authorities next Monday evening. For Monday, Saints Day is a feast day in the RoOctober 31 is the one day in all the man Church, celebrated in honor of the people of Kent County who year when witches and ghosts can lows and Hallowmas. The evening preceding this day is hence called Hallow Even or Hallowe'en.

There will Hallow e'en. Probably the bration of all will take place nual night-shirt parade and bon-fire. day evening they will again set fire farm. to the remaining portion of the blea-ing, afternoon and evening on the ing its session on Tuesday, Oct. 18, been started toward a goal of new ing the flock, incubation, brooding, increase the length of the west draw ceded as follows: Wednesday in the Maryland House of Correction. tory. chewing, as chew he did most of the the packers, and the State is at- 2:15—Report of 1st Vice Presi- ments against Arthur Coleman, Har- then be called Kibler Field, in honor time. Our history is somewhat hazy tempting to take that property away dent, Rev. F. A. Baker, followed by ry Scott, Eugene Gland and Amos of Athletic Director, J. Thomas Kib> lowed by Address, Rev. L. E. Poole, the in the Maryland House of Correction Study Class For Sunday by Dist. President and Daughter, Case of Leonard Robinson, chargled with carrying a concealed wea-3:15—"Junior League Hour," pon, plead not guilty, jury trial, ver-"Dramitization of Good Samaritan," dict guilty and sentenced to six mon- 8:30 at the M. P. Church a study

Wm. P. Taylor; Duet, Rev. and Mrs. ition. T. F. Healey for Robinson. S. R. Collins for state. Grand jury brought in presentments against John Wesley Brown E. K. Mohr who came to Kent from held at headquarters last Monday. High winds are unusual in the while crossing Georgian Bay: "At noon at the mill stream near Brooks' 7:30—Rev. O. P. Jefferson, Pre- and Rob. Jones for larceny and true the west and is making his home with Oct. 24th a project was set in mo- vicinity of the proposed bridge, the siding and conducting Devotions. bills against Eugene Gland, Amos

The affair is an annual occurence Music by Local Choir. Message, Rev. Goldsborough, Charles Harris and Harry Scott. ervised by the Student Council of the Wednesday Morning, October 26th Amos Goldsborough, charged with 6:'0-"Morning Watch" conducted selling liquor. Plead guilty and was At the sound of the whistle thirty by Rev. Omar E. Jones, District Sup- fined $100 and costs. Costs paid and Goldsborough discharged. S. R. Col-

The grand jury having completed

The grand inquest of the State of Jersey. The local class has been un- the drive goes over, the former mem- four 1000 foot spans across the bay

G. Beck, secretary and Frank A. Roader, assistant, proceeded at once upon the duties imposed upon it, eneryone knows now that they are wel- the year the Sophs defeated the Frosh 2:00—Devotions, Rev. Wm. T. deavoring to perform the same in an impartial and correct manner.

twenty-five presentments and found direction. began: "As I gaze about I see before the following morning, there will be tet; Place of Convention; Call of The jail was visited and thirty-two Kent Duckers Plan We wish to extend our thanks to inmates found. We found the jail 3:30—Administration of "Lord's the court, clerk of the court, states Duckers in Kent County are busy attorney, sheriff, town officers and all preparing for the season soon to opother officers for their courtesy to en. Much time is being spent in our demands and for their prompt- putting the blinds in order and the 7:30—Devotions, Rev. Sidney ness in expediting the business in building of new ones. Bait is being

Respectfully submitted. Thursday

District Superintendent, Rev. O. with bastardy; plead not guilty, jury flats. trial. Jury disagreed and were dis- Several new ducking clubs President, Rev. M. E. Wheatley, charged. H. W. Vickers for Alexand- make their headquarters in Kent this er, S. R. Collins for State. The case of Albert Collins, (color- taken into the existing clubs. ed,) charged with manslaughter was Second Vice President. Miss Cath- called. Court trial. This is a motor Shore Society To truck accident in which Miss Mildred Third Vice President, Mrs. Harvey Sorden who was on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. George Hendrickson was struck Fourth Vice President, Miss Viola and killed by a motor truck driven the State. Friday

Continued On Page 4

steel bleachers for the Washington housing, feeding, etc. 1927, at 9:30 o'clock the court pro- mount given by the students passes practices in turkey raising by Ex- thirty-five to forty-five feet. the Thousand dollar mark.

The need of new bleachers has H. Rice. Criminal docket proceeded with been apparent at the local school for assault and battery upon his wife; ball victory was scored over St. Thomas B. Symons, Director Mary- tion of these opponents that there plead not guilty, jury trial, verdict John's this season the bleachers were

Grand jury brought in present- dollars. It is said that the field will pounds of Turkey Mash each. Case of Kelson Brown, charged thing in the way of putting the col-

School Teachers Formed

On Friday evenings from 7:30 to class for teachers and officers of the

For Season's Opening

placed for the ducks.

Although the ducks have not yet WM. G. SMYTH, Foreman. begun to arrive in any large quantities here it is understood that they Case of James Alexander, charged are plentiful on the Susquehanna season and new members have been Dance And Play Cards

The annual card party and dance by Albert Collins near Fairlee. Court of the Eastern Shore Society of Bal-Secretary, Miss Isabel Rowlenson, reserved decision in this case W. F. timore city will be held Thursday at

The above case of Albert Collins the arrangement committee. Other ly In Our Alley" to be held at the this means to raise some funds, and Case of Annie Scott charged with Chapman, Jr., president of the so- evening. The management of the co-operation of Chestertown and vilarceny of poultry, and receiving ciety; John H. Hessey, Henry Powell theatre has decided to run two shows cinity. stolen goods plead not guilty, court Hopkins, Richard H. Dixon, Jr., Paul on this evening. The first will begin "Sir," said the maid quite haugh- trial, verdict not guilty of larceny Lake, Raymond T. Eareckson, Edward at 7:15 p. m. and the second comtily, "either take your arm from but guilty of receiving stolen goods H. Hammond, Webster S. Blades, mence as soon as the first is over. around my waist or keep it still. I and sentenced to 12 months in the Clarence W. Miles and Alexander Hardcastle, Jr.

Former Berkley Mayor

of Washington College at their weekly chapel session which has been PASSED BY U. S. changed for this week from Thursday largest cele- Meeting Scheduled For Last now on file for the bridge will not re-Wednesday Postponed ed for last Wednesday at the turkey this district, said Monday. he City Court, it is understood.

Two hours of evidence from both

Two Day Session Held On tride a school house, cows in some tride a school house, cows in some tride a school house, cows in some to find the deadlock over the size of draw, Stuart S. Jan tride a school house, cows in some tride

> Many farmers and raisers of tur- igators. yesterday conferred informchers. With the bleachers piled high keys from Cecil, Queen Annes, Tal- ally with Major Pettis. Hallowe'en or Hallow Even, the will all available combustible mater- bot and Kent Counties are attending er at 1:25 p. m. County Agent H. opinion he had formed in regard to B. Derrick, who will act as chairman the bridge, he intimated that he was of the proceedings.

at the Baker farm is: management employed in raising feet long over the west channel and 1000 turkeys on the Baker Turkey Farm in 1927—by Mrs. and Mrs. H. | channel. After the hearing in Sep-M. Baker. This will include select- tember the bridge company agreed to tension Poultry Specialist, Mr. 2:20 P. M.—Turkey Production

land Extension Service. guilty and sentenced to five months ignited in a celebration of the vic- 2:25 P. M.—Drawing for 600 and that the most that should be perpounds Baker formula Turkey Mash, mitted are four 1,000 foot spans ov-T. F. Healey for Thomas, S. R. Cal- It is expected that the new stands donated by Metcalfe Bros. Six turwill cost around Thirty-five hundred key raisers present will receive 100 2:30 P. M.—Inspection of food of the barge owners contended that in Goldsborough for selling liquor. ler, who has done practically every- tour being conducted by Mr. and tow of four or five barges following

Mrs. Baker.

Board Attempts Reduction Of Chamber Dues

Sunday Schools in Chestertown and At an important meeting of the during a wind with a velocrity of forthroughout the county, has been or- Board of Directors of the Kent Coun- ty miles an hour a clearance of 1000 ganized under the leadership of Mr. ty Chamber of Commerce which was feet probably would be necessary. He has attended three World's con- the greater the membership the more and of seventy miles an hour only ventions at St. Louis, Jerusalem and weight the organization will have in once in that period. er types of religious education work piece would be more effective than passage. in many southern states and New one at $25.00. It is hoped that if But they say the cost of erecting der way for only a few weeks but is bers of the Business Men's Associa- would be so prohibitive that the promaking a rapid growth. The week- tion which was disbanded about ject will be abandoned if such conly program consists of a short de- eighteen months ago, will unite in struction is the alternative. votional service followed by a pract- and with the Chamber and have a Major Pettis would not say yesterical business discussion of problems Chairman for the Merchant's Unit of day whether he would consider a that arise in connection with Sunday the Chamber that would work along change in the width of the draws to shool work then the lesson for the advertising lines to bring more bus- 300 feet of such material importance following Sunday is taken up by the iness into the county and make for as to require a second hearing. members of the class to whom have more shopping at home with the The only action that Major Pettis been assigned work from the previous proper understanding that competi- can take is to make a recommendameeting, making it largely coopera- tion is the life of trade but that the tion to the divisional harbor engineer all county stores, a plan that larger the consideration of Maj.-Gen. Edcities find peps up shopping to a ward Jadwin, Chief Engineer of the great extent.

A dinner is being planned by the Chamber that will not be confined to just the members of the organization. Fire Ladies In It is expected that Mr. Chester Leasure, assocrate editor of the NAT-ION'S BUSINESS of the Chamber of

be the speaker of the occasion. and a number of individuals from 28, 29, 30. Kent and Queen Annes Counties have ,'Nic-Nacs of 1927" is a big mingone through the Chamber to the strel musical revue, featuring an up Tolchester Company regarding an to the minute lady minstrel scene and improved schedule for the ferry. The several other big novelty numbers. Tolchester Company has most cour- The cast will include, besides a large teously expressed a desire to cooper- number of Chestertown's best lady enate with the recommendations sent in tertainers. Mrs. H. J. Wheeler of by the Chamber.

By-Kota's Have

Russell and S. Scott Beck for de- the Hotel Belvedere. The occasion The By-Kota Club, of the Chester- tainers don male attire and appear as Treasurer, Rev. J. H. McRill, Sher- fendent and Stephen R. Collins for also will be observed as "Ladies town Methodist Episcopal Church, black face singers, dancers, and comhas sold nearly five hundred tickets edians should prove quite a novelty. H. L. Stafford, Jr., is chairman of for the benefit performance of "Salcommittee members are James W. Lyceum Theatre tomorrow, Thursday feel that they will have the hearty

-The Enterprise $1.00 a year.

BAY BRIDGE mayor of the city of Berkley, California, will address the student body

Company Must Be Removed Before Government

Due to a deadlock over the size of of barges, the Chesapeake Bay bride project has reached what is regarded velopment, it was learned Monday.

It is almost certain that the plans ceive approval of the War Department engineer here unless modifications are made. Any material change in the plans will necessitate a second hearing, Major C. R. Pettis, War Department harbor engineer for

In an effort to end the deadlock John's football victory and on Mon- ing held today at the Quaker Neck ney, a director of the bridge company, with a group of Baltimore nav-

While Major Pettis did not say definitely what effect the testimony giv-The meeting is to be called to ord- en by these navigators had on any yet to be convinced that the present The program as it will be followed plans were feasible.

The original plans for the bridge contemplated two draws, one 165 another 210 feet long over the east

These proposed changes met the objections of steamboat companies, but the barge owners declined to with and the Extension Service by Dr. draw their protests. It is the conten-er the two channels. In their argument to substantiate the necessity for the 1,000 foot spans Mrs. H. M. Baker. Any questions will a tug is swung across the stream and be cheerfully answered by Mr. and that it would be impossible to take more than one of two barges through 4:00 P. M.—Feeding of the 1000 a 200 foot draw at one time. The navigators who appeared before Major Pettis yesterday asserted that a 300 foot draw would be of sufficient size to permit the safe passage of a line of five barges behind a tug. One of the pilots under cross-examination by Major Pettis said that his daughter, Dr. Esther M. Dole. Mr. tion whereby the dues of the organi- sponsors contended, and they pro-Mohr has devoted himself to the im- zation may be cut in half if each duced a chart to show that from provement and extension of Sunday member will pledge himself to bring | 1873 to 1925 the wind only twice had School work for a great many years. in one or more new members. Since had a velocity of sixty miles an hour

Washington, D. C., and five Interna- dealing with the various matters with The bridge sponsors, it is undertional conventions and has served on which it is concerned for the civic stood, are willing to increase the size state programs in Iowa, Nebraska, and commercial welfare of the coun- of the draws to 300 feet to give Illinois, Indiana, Idaho, Wisconsin ty it was decided that two members barge and lighter lines what the and Oregon besides assisting in oth- at a membership fee of $12.00 a sponsors consider ample space for ing on of occasional Dollar Days in it and submits the whole matter for War Department.

"Nic-Nacs Of 1927"

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Ches-Commerce of the United States will tertown Volunteer Fire Company are going to stage "Nic-Nacs of 1927" at Letters from the Rotary, from the Lyceum Theatre on Monday, corporations up and down the Shore Tuesday and Wednesday nights, Nov.

the Wheeler Producing Company, who are staging the revue, and her sister Mrs. Mary C. Saville, of Wilmington, Del. Male minstrel shows Benefit Performance are quite common, but a lady minstrels, in which our best lady enter-The Ladies Auxiliary are taking

> "I want you to meet a man about town," said Lord Chumley, as he introduced his friends to a passing cab-